EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

DEATH OF MRS. MARGARET RICHARDS.

Aged Resident of Jackson Street Passed Peacefully Away-Nearly 88 Years of Age-Concluding Services of Latter Day Saints-Entertainments and Socials-School Deposits, Accidents, Funerals, Aldermanic Cases-Late Judge Ward's Residence Sold - Other Shorter Paragraphs of General Interest.

Mrs. Margaret Richards, widow of the late Thomas Richards, whose death occurred on February 19, died at 5,30 o'clock last evening at her home on Jackson street. She began failing about ten days ago, and the end came peace-Deceased was born in Glammorganshire, South Wales, August 25, 1812, and was married on April 1, 1833. In August of the same year she located in Carbondale with her husband and in 1867 came to Scranton, residing here continuously ever since. For twenty years previous to Mr. Richards' death, the couple were not separated a single day, and both lived and died in the full possession of their faculties, surrounded by their children and grandchildren.

Mrs. Richards was a devoted member of the First Welsh Congregational church, and lived to see her children all rise to positions of affluence in the community. They are David T. Richards, Joshua Richards, John T. Richards Mrs Annie Phillips Mrs H M city, and Mrs. William Davis, of Plymouth. Twenty-two grandchildren and six great-grandchildren are included in the family circle. Seventeen years ago Mr. and Mrs. Richards celebrated their golden wedding and seven years ago their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

The funeral services will be conducted at the house Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIAL. An entertainment and social will be held in the Jackson Street Baptist church tomorrow evening, under the auspices of the Sunday school. The feature of the affair will be a colloquy entitled "How a Bachelor Changed His Mind." The following programme will be rendered;

Octette,"Who Knows What the Bells Octette, "Who Knows What the Bells | Cents; Miss Vost, $1.29; Miss Wade, $1.38; Miss Say;" recitation, Louise Evans; solo, Lizie Ellicott; whistling solo and bird | St.03; total, $1.51. imitations, Willam Gaul; recitation. Will Davis. Colloquy participants: "Horatio Holt," Peter Lewis; "John Wilson," Charles Holley; "Sambo," Robert Dawes; "Mr. James Steward," Charles Holley: "Mrs. Sarah Steward," Viola Evans: "Anna Brown" and "Jennie Steward," Birdelia Evans:

Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success, It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest. FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS. Sluggish Blood

The blood should not creep lazily through It should run swiftly, carrying ife and health to every organ. Indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia and nervousness, invariably accompany poor circulation. Purify and invigorate the blood with Hontetter's Stomach Bitters and these diseases will disappear. The Bitters also prevents maiaria tever and ague, and cures all ailments of the stomach. See that a rivate kevenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

HOSTETTER'S it invigorates Streagthens STOMACH

Sophy Steward," Emma Lewis; "Rose Millington," Edith Lloyd. The admission will be 15 cents and ce cream will be for sate.

THE R FIRST ANNUAL.

The Bellevue Fife and Drum corps neld their first annual entertainment and social in Mears' hall last evening, which was attended by a crowded house. The chairman of the evening was William O'Toole, and the following programme was rendered;

Piano solo, Mrs. Agnes Maiott; vo cal solo. Master John Washburn: cornet duet, Miss Agnes Warner and Robert Stenner: selections by Excelsior Glee party; military sketch, Banfield sisters: flute solo, Prof. Hughes; recitation, Thomas Barrett; vocal solo, Frank Riley; song and dance, Thos. Conners: coon songs, Patrick Hanley; buck and wing dancing, Thomas Lynch; vocal solo, Maggie Armsby; ocal solo, James Sullivan; vocal solo, Harry Savanny.

Phonograph selections were also givn under the direction of members of Stenner's band. The instrument will be raffled off at 1111 Jackson street. on June 16. The entertainment was Edwards, Mrs. John B. Peck, all of this followed by a social. Mrs. Malott furnished the dance music, which was popular and up-to-date.

> WEEKLY SCHOOL DEPOSITS. The following deposits were made in the West Side bank yesterday afternoon by the principals of public schools

Nos. 13, 19 and 32: No. 13 David Owens, 85-25; Martha Watkins, 81.30; Alice Evans, 30 cents; Bertha Kelly, 81.45; Edna Evans, 62 cents; Nellie Richards, $1.40, Catherine Phillips, $1.40; Neilie Kelly, $2.74; Eliza Price, $2.51; May Harris, 45 cents; Sarah McDonald, 93 cents; total, $18.25. No. 32 - Miss Vaughan, 81 cents; Miss Knarp, 81-20; Miss Freeman, $1.04; Miss Mullen, $2.60; Miss Ruddy, 74 cents; Miss Fellows, 20 cents;

Miss O'Connor, $1.55; Miss Carpenter, $1.20; to tal, 80.40.
No. 19—Miss Lees, 83.95; Miss Murray, 25 cents; Miss Nichols, 60 cents; Miss Beamish, 82.13; Miss Morgan, 81.13; Miss Leader, 81.30; Miss Flynn, 89 cents; Miss Evans, 50 cents; Miss Kellow, 28

ACCIDENTS OF A DAY.

Mrs. Philips, of 1302 Academy street, while walking along Main avenue, near Hampton street, with her daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren, stumbled over a misplaced flagstone and fell heavily to the ground. She sustained internal injuries and a gash over the right eye. She was assisted to D. M. Jones' drug store and Dr. George Reynolds was called and attended her. Mrs. Phillips was afterwars removed to her home.

George Morgan, a driver for Grocer Mayo, of Swetland street, dislocated his finger yesterday while handling Sample Silk Waists It is very rarely that we trouble ourselves with died yesterday. The funeral will be sample lines. As a rule they're unmarketable for regular trade because of size limits, poor condition or other faults, hence the reason why we have made it a point to strenuously avoid all offers of College of pharmacy. sample lots.

But This is a Notable Exception

We have not bought merely a handful of out of condition odds and ends, but all the exhibition waists of the latest manufacture in the trader as well as the samples of every man on the road for

This Makes the Purchase Gigantic and offers at the same time such a wealth of selection as has never before been offered in this city, while the bargain opportunity is so remarkable and telling, that the wonderful cash saving is seen at a glance. Here's the plan:

You buy at Manufacturers' Prices

And our profit consists in the discount of these figures which we obtained by taking the entire lot. The sample line includes waists worth from $6,00 to $15.00 each at our regular retail prices, while the Sale Prices Range from $4.29 to $9.98.

A Hint at Styles and Colors

Styles.

Colors.

Ribbon and Lace Trims. Hemstitched effects. New style cording. Cluster tuckings. All over tuckings. Handsome appliques Dainty lace effects. Novelty yokes. Shirred effects. Shell work edges.

Lilac, sereise. Automobile. Light pink. Rose, blues. Steel, pearl. Serpent, navy. Imperial. Turquoise, azure. Canary, lavender.

Black and white.

And a Host of Other Effects and Colorings

This unique collection of elegance in Ladies' Dressy Silk Waists for street or evening wear opens for sale this morning. Needless to add there's a wonderful choice for early comers, and all sizes, as manufacturers have discovered that varying figures require varying styles.

Globe Warehouse

ome heavy bales of hay, and the mem ber swelled to an enormous size. After having his ring cut off. Dr. Reynolds set the finger joint aright, and Mr. Morgan went to his home.

FUNERALS YESTERDAY. Services over the remains of the late John Kurtz, who was killed by a fall of rock in Johnson's mine, were conducted by Rev. F. A. Fricker in St. John's German Catholic church yesterday afternoon. The members of the Catholic Knights of America and St. Joseph's Benefit union and the Hampton Mine fund attended the services. BITTERS The pall-bearers were selected from the members of the societies represented. They were George Schimmelphine, Nicholas Theobald, Nicholas Classner, Christ Gottgi, John Schounman and Frank Schulter. The flower bearers were John Wagner, jr., and Andrew Markovitz. Interment was made in the German Catholic cemetery.

The remains of Jennie, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lewis, of South Lincoln avenue, were privately interred in the Washburn street cemetery yesterday morning. The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. William Morris' infant child was held at I o'clock yesterday afternoon, and interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

BEFORE ALDERMAN KELLY.

H. I. Jacoby, of Eynon, Pa., better known as the Ridge at Archbald, swore ut a warrant before Alderman Kelly yesterday, charging Stanislaus Chierimy and his wife Annie with stealing cow and selling it to a relative at Mill Creek. They were committed to jail in default of ball and the woman was later released on securing bondsman.

William Noll, of 206 Meridian street had his brother, John Noll, arrested for selling liquor on Sunday and without a license at 831 Beech street. He entered bail for his appearance a ourt. Two hundred dollars on each charge was required.

James and Octavo Stearns, of North Scranton, were arrested at the instance of James Campbell, of Front street, for keeping a bawdy house and relieving him of a small sum of money. John Moyer, of Throop, qualified as their bondsmen in the sum of $500.

FIRE IN EDWARDS COURT. A slight fire occurred yesterday morning in the house occupied by Josephine Fellows, at 322 Edwards court. It was caused by a defective flue. The Eagles and Columbias responded to the alarm and had a collision.

Driver William Lewis was thrown from his seat, but escaped injury. One of the hose wagons was slightly damaged.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES Prof. John T. Watkins will meet the nembers of St. Leo's Glee club at the cooms this evening for rehearsal. Rev. R. E. Williams, of Plymouth, gave a Welsh lecture in the South Main Avenue Calvinistic Methodist church last evening on the life of the late Dwight L. Moody. The executor of the late Judge Ward's estate sold the homestead on North Sumner avenue yesterday to Attorney Cornelius Comegys. household furnishings will be sold to-

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Thomas and Rev. D. D. Hopkins will leave today for a few days' visit at Buffalo and The electric lights west of Main evening. in the machinery. Thomas Thomas, a well known resi-William G. Thomas, the coal operator, avenue were extinguished for some erment will be made in the Washburn reet cemetery. Frank J. Jones, of Bellevue, has been notified that he has successfully passed the junior examinations at the Buffalo conducted Thursday afternoon, and in-

A regular meeting of the West Side poard of trade will be held this evening, when officers will be elected for the coming year.

A new team is being broken into service by the permanent men at the Columbia hose house. The old team has een transferred to the Eagles. Misses Sadie Jones and Sadie Edwards will give a concert in Mears' hall on Tuesday evening, May 15. Reese Thomas, a lad residing on North Bromley avenue, was bitten by a dog recently. The wound has been cauterized.

The Young Ladies' Literary society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church held an enjoyable meeting in the lecture room last evening.

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to J. T. Starkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683. MINOOKA.

Messrs. John and Thomas Gerrity, Martin Quinn and John Loftus and Thomas Ruane, of Pittston, were callers in town Sunday.

Miss Mamie Judge, of Pine Brook, is visit ing Miss Annie Burke, of Main street. A. W. Edwards, of Wayne county, has taken his residence here. n 8-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Lamb, of Stafford street, died yesterday after-after a short illness.

Patrick Gallagher, of Stafford street, passed away yesterday morning, after an illness of one week, from the effects of typhoid pneu-monia. Mr. Gallagher was very much respected in this village, and was of a kind and gentle disposition, unassuming in his nature, and one who generally made a friend of every one who came in contact with his daily life. The de-ceased was a comparatively young man about 22 years of age, and leaves a wife and five small children to mourn his less. His sudden death is very much regretted by all his friends death is very much regretted by all a member of Division No. 9, ancient Order of Hibernians, of this place, and also the Knights of Maccabees. The funeral will take place Wednesday orning with a mass at St. Joseph's church.

Some people can't drink coffee; everybody can drink Grain-O. It looks and tastes like coffee, but it is made from pure grains. No coffee in it.

Grain-O is cheaper than coffee; costs about onequarter as much.

All grocers; 18c. and 25c.

HAPPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

RECEPTION TO REV. G. A. CURE AND FAMILY.

Tendered to Them by the Epworth Events-Notes-Short Paragraphs.

Rev. G. A. Cure, the new pastor of the Providence Methodist Episcopal hurch, and the members of his famwere tendered a reception last night in the church parlors. The reception partook of the nature of a velcome to Mr. Cure and his family, and was under the auspices of the Epworth league of the church.

The reception was under the direc tion of W. S. DeWitt, president of the Enworth league. The address of welcome was delivered by Attorney C. W. Dawgon, who spoke in a very happy vein. Addresses of welcome were also made by Revs. Clymer, Reese, Eddy and Jones, clergymen of this part of the city.

Rev. Mr. Cure responded in an impressive and feeling way to the words of welcome addressed to him. came here from Newark Valley, N. Y., but is by no means a stranger in this vicinity. Six years ago he was paschurch, of Green Kidge. He assumes the dutier of his new pastorate under very happy circumstances.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the Providence Presbyterian church for election of trustees and hearing of reports took place last night, in the lecture room of that The attendance was large and highly interesting. Reports were the parents and friends of the pupils and a vermade by Secretary Thomas Shotton and Tressurer Atherton.

These reports show the church in a very healthy condition, both as regards membership and financial stand-

The trustees elected for the ensuing year were: L. W. Morss, Edward Roderick and Dudley Atherton.

RUMMAGE SALE.

The North End of the city has now aught the fever of "the rummage and it is expected that next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the vacant store room in the sale. They say that there is nothing in the furnishing of a house, or of an office, nothing that you wear-men or and experience, in professional acquiren women-but what they would like to include in their "stock of trade."

The sale promises to be a real boon to people who have only a few dollars or even only a part of one dollar and want to get genuine bargains. Contributed articles for the sale are to be left at the store between the hours or 2 and 5 p. m. throughout the week.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

This evening everybody in the North End and many besides will go to the auditorium to see and hear the musical farce comedy, "What's Next," and dent of West Pittston, and brother of its concluding climax, the cake walk. The diagram of reserved seats can be seen today it Griffin's drug store. General admission, 25 cents. cream will be sold at the close of the entertainment.

A phonograph party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren DePew, on Jadwin street, Saturday evening. The guests were delightfully entertained during the evening by many selections on the phonograph, which was operated by Byron Shiffer. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served, after which the guests departed for their homes, all declaring they had spent a most enjoyable evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Willard Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Abe DePew, Mr. and Mrs. Sewell, Mrs. John Griffin, Mrs. Will Stebbins, Mrs Pross and daughter, Veleda, Mr. and Mrs. Warren DePew; Misses Bertha Whyte, Ethel DePew. Grace and Mabel Griffin. Marion Sewell; Messrs Byron Shiffer, Leon Morgan, Moses Sewell and Franklin Jones. The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Alpha Featherby, who died Saturday, was held last evening at 7.30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Colvin, of North Sumner avenue. The Rev. S. G. Reading, pastor of the North Main Avenue Baptist church, officiated. The remains will be taken to East Lemon, this morning, where interment will be made. The deceased is survived by two sons, Nelson and James Featherby, and one daughter, Mrs. John Colvin.

Mrs. George H. Shiffer, of Parker street, is suffering from a severe attack of neuralgia.

Mrs. Edward Morgan, of Parker street, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is somewhat improved. Richard Cowles is convalescent from serious illness. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clark and daughter, Georgianna, of Church avenue, are visiting relatives at Scott. The funeral of Mrs. Orpha Slocum will be held this afternoon from her late home on Church avenue at 1 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Myers' burying ground at Clark's

Edwin Evans, delegate from the Thomas Jefferson lodge, and Luther Edwards, from Cartadlawn lodge, of American True Ivorites, left today for Brattleboro, Vermont, to attend the grand lodge, which is in session there. John I. Evans, of Deacon street, a rand officer of American True Ivorte society, is attending a session of Last evening the Rev. W. F. Davies, of the Memorial Baptist church, gave an excellent address at his church on Wayne avenue, on mission. He took as his subject, "Echoes of the Ecumenical Conference."

the organization at Brattleboro, Ver-

The prize cake walkers of No. 27 school will contest with the Providence cake walkers during the play "What's Next?" to be given tonight at the Auditorium by the young peo ple of Providence.

DUNMORE.

Miss Ada B. Dean, of Wilkes-Barre, will give an evening of readings at the Methodist Episco-pal church in this borough on Thursday night next. Miss Dean comes under the auspices of known to many in this borough, no introduction is necessary to insure a well filled house greet-ing her. The programme will be published later. Ex-Chief Dierks, of the police force, has re-ported each night promptly on time for duty during the past month for which period of time he claims he is still lifted by council. The mat-ter will probably be settled at the next special seeting of council. The funeral of the late Mrs. Michael Monahan, i Meade street, will be held this afternoon at 30. Interment will be made in St. Mary' Catholic cemetery.

Rev. W. F. Gibbon, of Elm street, pastor of dist Episcopal Church—Annual Meeting of the Presbyterian

The First Presbyterian of the Presbyterian elegating trip, expecting to reach Princeton, N. J., in a tew days. While there the will attend the second of the presbyterian Church—The Trustees Elected. he will attend the anniversary of his class of '80 and also be present at the graduation exercises by Presbyterian Church—Other short time. The Dunmore Critic suspended publication jast Street Commissioner O'Donnell had a gang of nen at work on North and South Blakely atreets sterday and succeeded in placing them in bet ter shape.

Miss Nettle Shields, of Nicholson, is spending several days with her cirl clum, Miss Marion Bryden, of North Blakely street.

Miss Mamie Conners, of Ringhamton, N. Y., is visitor in town.

The Boys' club of St. Mark's church will hold their first annual social temorrow night in th hurch parlors on Potter street.

GREEN RIDGE.

Rev. A. F. Chaffer, of Carbondale, a former pastor of Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, us circulating among Green Rivige friends yes Esther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Simn

oh, of Monsey avenue, is so seriously ill that there is little hope of her recovery. John K. Garland, of Center, Perry county, Pa., of many years prescription clerk for Rea & ones, druggists, is visiting Green Ridge friends. Word has been received by Green Ridge friends that D. J. Phillips, who left here several weeks ago for Alamagordo, New Mexico, hoping there to recuperate after a severe illness, has had a relapse and is now in a very critical condition vicinity. Six years ago he was pas-tor of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal had several hemorrhages. He has for years been prominent in religious and musical circles in this city and a wide circle of triends will learn with regret that he is not receiving the benefits he anticipated from a warmer climate. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Phillips accompanied him on his trip and are with him now.

Augustus Deatrick, of East Berlin, Pa., is visting his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Rea, of Sanderchool No. 20 enjoyed an outing in the near the Country club grounds Saturday noon. They were accompanied by a num delightful atternoon was spent.

H. B. Taylor, superintendent of the Seranton ace works, is in New York city. Mr. Taylor is mpanied by his wife, John B. Poore, manager of the Scranton Pump ompany, made a business trip to Honesdale, OBITUARY.

Charles Sherman Minor, the oldest member of bar in Northeastern Pennsylvania, died at his residence in Honesdale Sunday morning, aged 83 years. The funeral will be held at his late residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Minor was born Jan. 11, 1817, at Washington, Conn., and was graduated from Yale in the class of 1841. He read law and was admitted to the bar at New Haven, Conn., and Dec. 3, 1844, he came to Wayne county, and was ad-Steele block will be a veritable be lists, be came to Wayne county, and was achive of business. The ladies of the lists, he came to Wayne county, and was admitted to the bar, since which time he has resided in Honesdale, and was engaged in the resided in Honesdale, and was engaged in the practice of his profession up to the .me of his death. It has been said of him that in year character and ability he was the Nestor of the Wayne county har. He was a nic-long studen of scholarly attainments. Besides practicing hi profession he acquired a library and gave great deal of attention to use origin of all r ligions. He held but few offices, and those wer by appointment. He made the first draft in Wayne county durin one Civil war, and since 1869 he has been a trustee of the Danville In sane asylum. He leaves a wife and two daugh-ters. Rev. William H. Switt will conduct the uneral services. Interment in Glen Dyberr emetery. Miss Mary Gavin, of 324 Stone avenue, cesterday, her death being a very sudden She was 22 years of age, and is survived her widowed mother, Mrs. Stephen Gavin, several young brothers and sisters. To neral announcement will appear later. The de-ceased was a member of the Blessel Virgin so-ciety of St. Peter's enthedral and a young lady of most excellent disposition. The funeral will be held Thursday merning with services at St Peter's eathedral and interment in the Cathedral

Roland Franz, of 15% Wyoming avenue, died rather suddenly yesterday morning at his home It is understood that no physician was in at tendance. The deceased was about 10 years old and is survived by a wife and three children oronor Reberts is investigating his death.

Paul Beesly, aged 25 years, one of the best day night at the home of his parents, 822 Pitts on avenue. Beside his parents he is survived by

* All Advertisements

Pleasure of

Cycling,

Unless You

Ride a

Sold Only By

211 Washington Ave.

Spring

Hats and

New

Neckwear

NOW BEING SHOWN AT

For the Cure of... Kidney Disease

Bring to mind

Warner's Safe Cure whether mentioned or not.

We often read "Watch your kidneys," etc., and it naturally calls to mind the only world-wide famous specific that has stood he test for twenty years-Warner's Safe Cure-although the advertisement may be paid to mention another remedy. The w public knows there is but one Kidney Remedy and all these advertisements for others but call Warner's Safe Cure to mind.

AMUSEMENTS. You Don't

YCEUM THEATRE BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessess. H. R. LONG, Manager, Know the Full PALMER COX'S An elaborate musical extravaganza in two acts. 200-in cast-2:0. Costumes from N. Y. Libretto by Paimer Cox Music by Malcom Douglas. TUESDAY an: WEDNESDAY evening. Wednesday matines at 3:30, May 8 and 9. General admission 25c. Reserved seats 35 and 50c. n.saleat Lyceum box office Saturator powers.

day morning. Staged and directed by H. ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LONG, Manager.

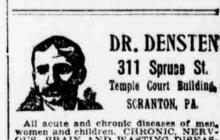

3 Days commencing THURSDAY, MAY 10. USUAL MATINEES. TWO SHOWS IN ONE.

BROWNIES

IN FAIRYLAND.

NEUVILLE And a Careful Selected Company of Players in a Grane Revival of

THE BOY TRAMP

inees, 15 and 25 cents.

DUUMN AM, GUNN, G

109 Wyoming Avenue.

the following brothers and sisters: Joseph, William, Theodore and Mrs. Anna Hoyer. funeral will take place tenorrow afternoon i the German Methodist Episcopal chuurch neet avenue and interment will be made he Forest Hill cometery.

D. J. Clearwater, of South Scrauton, died on Sunday at Wilcox, N. Y., whither he had gone for recuperation. His son, W. K. Clearwater, who was with him when he died, is his only liv ing child. The remains reached the city yester

311 Spruce St. Temple Court Bullding SCRANTON, PA.

All acute and chronic diseases of men, women and children. CHRONIC, NERV-OUS, BRAIN AND WASTING DISEASES A SPECIALTY. All diseases of the Liver. Kidneys, Bladder, Skin, Blood, Nerves, Womb, Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, and Lungs, Cancers, Tumors, Piles, Rupture, Golire, Rheumatism, Asthma, Catarrh, Varlococele, Lost Manhood, Nightly Emissions, all Female Diseases, Leucorrhoea, etc. Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Blood Poison, Indiscretion and youthful habits obliterated. Surgery, Fits, Epilepsy, Tape and Stomach Worms. CATARRHOZONE, Specific for Catarrh, Three months' treatment only $5.00, Trial free in office. Consultation and examinations free. Office hours daily and Sunday, $ a. m. to 9 p. m.

DIVINIAM UNIN O DR. DENSTEN

May 21 to 26, inclusive.

Washington Ave. and Ash St.

Main Entrance, Washington

Avenue.

Mighty Midway Carnival

Coming Direct from a Successful Season of Three Waeks in Greater New York.

Opening Monday, Noon, May 21.

A Gigantic Confederation of the Latest and Greatest Novelties in the Amusement World.

The Mightiest Popular Price Enterprise of the Universe

MIDWAY FEATURES.

of Cairo-Hindoo Tocatre-Cinemat graphe-Wild West Showstock's Trained Wild Animals. Wombwell's Royal Menageri

Bonner, the Talking Hoese,

Rain or Shine

Day and Night at di

Rain or Shine. Marvelous Exhibitions of Wild Beast subjugation

Six Days and Six Nights

by Trainers of Indomitable Courage. Pleasant Pastime of Midway Features. Turkish Theatre-Streets of all Nations-A Boer Laager-Crystal Maze - Electra.

Infinite Variety for all.

Elephants, Camels and Syrian Donkeys for Rid-ing sastime; Ascended by Courteous Drivers from the far Oriental East. Under the persondirection of Frank C. Bostock, the Animal to the Midway, BOWSER Admission to the Midway,

