BOARD OF TRADE DISCUSSES VIADUCT AGAIN.

Favor the Traction Company's Proposal if Sidewalks Are Added-Officers Re-elected and Other Business Transacted-Meridian Street Property Owners May Bring Suit Against the City-Result of the Storm-Damage That Was Done in This Part of City-Other Notes.

The board of trade, at its monthly meeting last evening, again discussed the possibility of a viaduet over the railroad crossing on West Lackawanna avenue, and the proposition made by the Scranton Railway company to build a structure sixteen feet wide to allow the laying of a double track thereon, was thoroughly argued. It was the consensus of opinion that viaduct should be erected, but that sidewalks ought to be added also, The idea of a subway being built to overcome the present danger was considered out of the question, as the railroad company does not favor such

After much discussion the matter was referred to the streets and bridges committee, with instructions to take immediate action and report at the next meeting. The committee is composed of A. B. Holmes, Joseph P. Phillips, Thomas M. Watkins, H. D. Jones A. M. Morse, Jenkin T. Reese and Roger Evans. Secretary Oliver was instructed to call a meeting of the committee for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the office of A. M. Morse on Jackson street, and they will wait on General Manager Silliman in reference to the matter.

OTHER BUSINESS.

The secretary was instructed to communicate with Street Commissioner Thomas with reference to having the Barber Asphalt company repair a depression in the pavement on South Main avenue, near Scranton street. His attention will also be called to the condition of the Hyde Park avenue pavement near the Franklin Enhouse, which has been undermined by failure to fill in trenches after excavations. The sidewalks on Price street, between Main and Hyde Park avenue, are also in a deplorable condition, and the street commissioner will be asked to remedy them.

The streets and bridges committee reported the laying of sidewalks on Price street between Main avenue and Chestnut street, and the members were asked to further the project of paving of Washburn street, from Sumner to Van Buren avenue. Nearly all of the property owners favor the pav-ing plan, and if the Cemetery associa-

Morse and oseph Oliver were appointed a special committee to confer with the Fourth ward councilmen relative to securing permission for the property owners on Price street, between Sumner and Bromley avenues, to construct a private sewer from their premises.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

President, Charles E. Daniels; vicepresident, Thomas M. Watkins; secre-tary, Joseph Oliver, and treasurer, William Farrell, were tunanimously re-elected to serve the board anothe year. G. A. Williams, of the Republi can, and W. R. Hughes, of The Trib une, were elected as honorary mem bers of the board.

The committee on membership and dues reported several members in arrears and their names were dropped from the rolls. Dr. M. J. Williams, part of the month. who was unable to attend the meetings, sent in his resignation, which was accepted with regret.

The special committee on the locaion of a branch postoffice, reported that proposals have been advertised RESULTS OF YESTERDAY'S STORM for the supplying and equipment of suitable building

A communication from Senator Boles Penrose was read and placed on file in reference to his giving attention to a house bill endorsed by the board at the last meeting.

At the next meeting President Danels will appoint the standing committees and Secretary Oliver will submit his annual report. The viaduct committee will also report, and the board will probably then adjourn for the summer months.

BETTER SEWERAGE NEEDED.

When the main sewer was connected with the old Oxford mine culvert and thence carried down to the river, about 25 feet of the old culvert where it crosses the Smithing and Ansley properties on Meridian street was not econstructed and as a consequence during every severe storm for the past six or eight years these properties have suffered from the water bursting through this section and causing damage and annoyance.

The escaping sewer gas is also both dangerous and annoying. Since South Main and Hyde Park avenues have been paved a greater amount of refuse than before is forced through the sew During yesterday's storm both of the above properties were badly lamaged, the water standing from one to two feet deep in the barns and outbuildings, so that the horses and cattle had to be removed.

Complaint has been made to councilmen and street commissioners for years without a remedy being effected. These property owners contemplate suing the city for several thousand dollars damages,

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Miss Alvah Brady Stunned by a Bolt of Lighting-Funeral of Edward Clark Today-Other Notes.

Last evening about 6 o'clock during he severe rain storm which was raging, a bolt of lightning struck a large tree in the front of the Brady home on East Drinker street, and for a short period of time consternation took hold of every one in the immediate vicinity When quiet was restored Miss Alvah Brady was found prostrated on the floor, having been stunned by a flash of lightning. She soon recovered. No damage was done to the property.

The heavy fall of rain made very apparent the poor system of street leaning and road making now it vogue. Street Commissioner McDonnell's force of men had thrown large quantities of dust and accumulation from the gutters into the road during the past two days, but it only took the rain about an hour to replace the same in a pasty mixture back into the

For Twenty-three Years He Was Pastor of the Hickory Street Presbyterian Church-Funeral of D. J. Clearwater from His Late Residence-Organizations That Attended the Funeral-Services Conducted by Pastor of Methodist Episcopal Church-Personal Paragraphs and Short News Notes.

Word was received here yesterday the death on March 29, at Leipzig. Sachsen, Germany, of Rev. William Wunderlich, formerly pastor of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church. Rev. Mr. Wunderlich assumed charge of the congregation in 1863 and was its pastor for twenty-three years. He did a great work for religion while here. When he took charge the congregation worshipped in what was known as the "White church," but its membership so increased under his wise guidance that the church now occupied had to be erected. He was both plous and learned, a man whose every day life was an incentive to those who came in contact with him to live better lives. His influence for good in this part of the city cannot be overestimated.

In 1889 Rev. Mr. Wunderlich was compelled to resign on account of failing health and returned to his old home in Germany, where he continued to preach the gospel until about two years ago.

CLEARWATER FUNERAL.

The funeral of D. J. Clearwater took place at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoor from his late residence, 345 Pear street and was very largely attended. General Grant commandery. Knights o Malta, held services at the house, and the James Connell lodge of Odd Fellows held their services at the cemetery, while the funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. P. Doty, of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, of which Mr. Clearwater was an active member.

Rev. Doty took for his text Hebrews "There remaineth, therefore, a rest to the people of God," and delivered an able eulogy of the late Mr. Clearwater. Interment was made in the Forest Hill cemetery. The floral offerings from sympathizing friends were many and handsome.

Mr. Clearwater died while on a visit his brother, A. A. Clearwater, of Wilcox, Elk county, and in his death South Scranton loses an earnest, honest and upright citizen.

Such women wear themselves out with suffering and seem to think there is no relief from the monthly pains.

Miss Emily F. Hass, of 148 Freeman Street, Greenpoint, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-I wish to state that I used your < Vegetable Compound with the greatest success. I was very sick for nearly a year with hysteria, was downhearted and nervous; also suffered with painful menstruation and pain in back and limbs. I often wished for death, thinking nothing would cure me. I had doctors, but their medicines did me no good. At last, by the advice of a friend, I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with very little hope of its doing me any good, but I am happy to say I am entirey cured. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-For several years my health was miserable. I suffered the most dreadful pains, and was almost on the verge of insanity. I consulted one of the best physicians in New York, and he pronounced my disease a fibroid tumor, advising an operation without delay, saying that it was my only chance for life. Other doctors prescribed strong and violent medicine, and one said I was incurable, another told me my only salvation was galvanic batteries, which I tried, but nothing relieved me. One day a friend called and begged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began its use and took several bottles. From the very first bottle there was a wonderful change for the better. The tumor has disappeared entirely and my old spirits have returned. I heartily recommend your medicine to all suffering women."-Mrs. Van Cleft, 416 Saunders Ave., Jersey City Heights,
