FIRST HOME DEFEAT.

Coal Barons Batter Scranton Pitchers All Over the Lot-Kervin and Jamieson the Victims.

The Scranton base ball team yesterday afternoon suffered its first defeat on the home grounds in the presence of over 1,000 persons. The worst part of the victory of our opponents was the fact that the latter were none other than "Mercy Derby Day" Clymer and his band of Wilkes-Barre

Coal Barons. They defeated Scranton by out-bat ting the local players, falling on the curves of Southpaw Kervin in a manner which caused Manager Burnham to haul him from the box in the sixth inning and replace him with Jamieson, the Indian. The red man, in his first inning in the box, gave two bases on balls, made one error himself, also had a wild pitch and was touched up for two hits. He did not make himself a particular favorite with the crowd in this inning, and there were numerous cries of "Lo, the poor Indian!" "Send that redskin back to his wigwam, Burnham" and the like. However, Jamieson wasn't feeling particularly well, and was in no condition to pitch At the bat, however, he made himself a rousing favorite by cracking out a single and double on his two ap-

Baron Owen was in the box for Wilkes-Barre. He is the same young man who has been pitching nearly all of the victories for Clymer's men this season, but Burnham's men touched him up in a very lively manner, getting six singles and three two-baggers off his delivery. The locals were very unfortunate in placing their drives, and Ketchem, the ex-National leaguer, who frisks around the Wilkes-Barre left garden, robbed our batsmen of several seemingly safe ones. This same young Baron Ketchem, in the seventh inning.

Sheff wait- PROPOSALS ed for a ball to his liking, and when he got it printed his stamp of approval upon it by almost tearing the horse hide off with a drive that lifted it far over Ketchum's head. The latter, however, turned and ran for the ball like a deer. It looked like an almost impossible catch, but he made a great spring in the air and pulled it

Wilkes-Barre began hitting Kervin the third inning, when a hit by pitcher, followed by Nicol's double and Stratton's single brought in two runs. In the fifth, however, they did their hardest pummeling of the broadshouldered youth. Ketchem, who is as strong a batsman as he is a fast fielder, made a single, and Clymer, Nyce and Burns followed with red hot two-basers. Messitt finally ending the agony by going out to Knox.

Kervin was then sent to left field and Jamieson left his topee and made his appearance on the diamond. "That's a wild Indian," yelled a Wilkes-Barre coacher, and it soon became apparent that his words were only too true. The unfortunate inning referred to above occurred at its close the Barons had four more runs. In the seventh and eighth they scored three more.

Scranton looked dangerous in the fifth inning, when Kervin led off with a single to right field which singed the grass. Ferguson followed with a hot one to third, which Nyce was unable to handle, and Short-Stop O'Brien cracked out his second two baser of the game, bringing home both men and scoring a short while later on Owers muffing McIntyre's high fly. Sneffler and Knox both flew out to the redoubtable Ketchem and Doherty closed the inning by going out, Burns to Kelly. The score follows.
