This institution was intended to meet the wants of people who work, who make little, and can save but a little at a time. Every help is extended to make the way easy to accumulate a bank account. Small sums from one dime up are received, and the absence of formalities, the convenient hours, and the very small sums needed to maintain the account explain the popularity of the

ELKS' GREAT CARNIVAL.

Days for Visitors from Neighboring Towns Have Been Set.

The following store-keepers have rented booths at the Elks' fair and carnival, to be held the week beginning May 21 at Washington avenue and Ash street: Goldsmith Bros., C. J. Weichel, E. P. Reynolds, two booths; Holtsman, two booths; Storrs' Packing company, David Spruks, Columbia Bottling company, L. Belcher, J. B. Schreiber, Florey & Brooks, Lewis, Ruddy, Davis & Murphy, American View company, Short & Cummings, Myers Davidson, Gunter & Forsyth, C. E. Matthews & Son, two booths, Rice, Levy & company, John H. Ladwig. Several other appliances for space are being considered by the committee.

The Bostock Midway Carnival company, which will be seen at the fair, contains a larger number of wild and trained animals than any show in the world. The collection is part of the famous Berlin Hagenbach aggregation that showed at the World's Fair in Chicago, and in many of the principal cities in the country.

The Elks have set apart special days for visitors from neighboring towns. Monday, May 21, will be opening day; Tuesday, May 22, Carbondale day; Wednesday, May 23, Scranton day; Thursday, May 24, Pittston day; Friday, May 25, Wilkes-Barre day; Saturday, May 26, farmers' day.

At noon on May 21 there will be a grand industrial parade, and the whole of the Bostock company will take part in it. Any merchant who wishes to do so can have a float or wagon in the parade.

FARMERS FORM A COMPANY.

Will Erect a Creamery and Condensory Near Factoryville.

As a result of the split between the farmers and the Scranton Dairy company, the former have organized and intend to establish a creamery and condensory of their own.

The application for a charter will be made to the governor, June 7, next by Attorneys B. Akerly and H. H. Hoag. The subscribers are Floyd M. Young, Henry W. Northup, J. W. Dersheimer, George W. Biesecker, J. Nelson Graves, Elmer E. Taylor, S. J. Van Fleet and Oscar J. Brown. The corporation is to be known as the Clark's Summit Dairy and Condensing company, and its capital stock is fixed at $50,000.

The former claim they can easily make more money by manufacturing butter and condensed milk themselves than by selling their milk to the Scranton Dairy company at the prices now being paid. Since April 1, the men composing the new company have been conducting a small creamery at Clark's Summit. The new creamery and condensory is to be located near Factoryville.

ENJOYABLE LECTURE.

Christian Endeavorers' Coming European Tour Described.

W. A. Gillespie, of Philadelphia, delivered a most delightful illustrated lecture last night in the Penn Avenue Baptist church on the coming European tour planned for the American delegates to the North German Lloyd steamer Traave. They will visit England, Belgium, Germany, France and the Paris exposition, Switzerland and Italy. The views shown last night were all photographs of the principal places of interest in the principal cities of these countries and were accompanied with a most entertaining discourse by Mr. Gillespie.

The delegates who will attend from this city are Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce, pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church and J. Lawrence Steile.

MAKING A RECORD.

Lutz Jury Has Been Out Nearly 240 Hours.

The members of the jury in the Lutz murder case at Wilkes-Barre have splendid staying powers, and are making a record for themselves. The case was given into their hands on Wednesday, May 2, and they have since been out for 239 hours, refusing to discharge them. They came into court on Thursday and asked for further instructions. It is understood that two jurors are all who are holding out, though whether these two are for first degree, second degree or acquittal is not known.

The jurors are not allowed to play any game in the jury room, and the only reading matter allowed them is a carefully censored newspaper. The only exercise they get is when they walk to and from their meals. At noon today they will have been out exactly 240 hours.

FUNERAL OF M. E. HUGHES.

Held Yesterday Morning from St. Peter's Cathedral.

The funeral of the late Michael E. Hughes was held yesterday from his late home on Carbon street. The house was thronged with the friends of the deceased before the remains were taken to St. Peter's cathedral. Here a solemn high mass was solemnized by Rev. J. Loughran, assisted by Rev. D. J. MacGoldrick as deacon and Rev. James Gillogly as sub-deacon.

The remains were taken after the services to the cathedral cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were Michael Gordon, Michael Davis, John Gordon, John Biglin, James Dougherty and Joseph Murphy. The numerous floral offerings were carried by Joseph Rafter, Edward Kenney, William Devine and Charles Marlon.

FACTORY BUILDING WANTED.

New York Firm Is Anxious to Locate Here.

Morris Jacoby, representing Jacoby & Co., of New York, extensive cigar manufacturers, spent yesterday with R. ## PENNSYLVANIA'S ODD FELLOWS MEET

ANNUAL SESSIONS OF THE GRAND LODGE.

Amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Grand Lodge and Constitution of the Subordinate Lodges to Be Acted Upon—Newly Elected Officers to Be Installed and Other Important Business to Be Transacted—Proposition to Cut Down Representation.

Monday the annual Grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania will open its annual session in Harrisburg. The annual grand encampment of the Patriarchs Militant, the military branch of the order, and the Assembly of Rebekah lodges, the female auxiliary of the order, will open at the same time.

The representatives accredited to the three branches number, in the aggregate, no less than 1,511. The Grand encampment, composed of the representatives of 251 subordinate encampments, scattered all over this commonwealth, meets to legislate for that branch only, which is reputed to be the highest in the order. Its total membership in this state amounts to only 12,200. The Grand lodge boasts of 107,000 constituents. The Grand encampment will hold two sessions on Monday, commencing at 9 a. m. E. C. Deans, of this city, is one of the Grand encampment officers.

The business of the Grand encampment will be simply routine, confined principally to the reading and action upon the reports of the various standing committees and the admission of new members. Fortunately for the Grand encampment, there will be but a few important questions to decide at the coming session. The officers-elect, as announced by the committee on election returns to have been successful in the recent contest, who will be duly installed, are:

THE OFFICERS.

Grand high priest, John A. Fleming, of Shippenburg; grand high priest, Thomas P. Gross, of Philadelphia; grand senior warden, F. C. E. Milhouse, of Pottstown; grand junior warden, Howard R. Sheppard; grand scribe, James E. Nicholson, and grand treasurer, J. Henry Bettel, all of Philadelphia; grand secretary, John P. Muckler, of Philadelphia; grand clerk, Howard R. Sheppard; grand chaplain, James E. Nicholson, and grand orator, J. Henry Bettel, all of Philadelphia. The newly installed grand patriarch will announce the appointment of his subordinate officers and the various standing committees, when the Grand encampment will adjourn sine die.

The Rebekah assembly, composed entirely of the members of Rebekah lodges, will enter upon their legislative duties at the same time that the Grand encampment commences its work, and will continue in session during Monday and Tuesday. Its legislation has, under the laws of the order, to be subject to revision by the Grand lodge.

The officers for the ensuing term will be nominated and elected during the session. The most important matter that will come up for consideration will be that which relates to the Rebekah lodge, recently organized in Philadelphia. At this institution it is intended to shelter the wives, widows and other women, who, under the laws of the order, are privileged to enjoy its protection and its ministrations, are confined to the members of such lodges as have been admitted to the corporation, an effort will be made to extend its field of operations, so as to cover the entire state.

OVER TEN THOUSAND.

As there are over 10,000 lady members of that branch in this state, it appears that if each contributes only 1 cent per week it would amount in the aggregate to a sum sufficient for every emergency.

The Grand lodge body will meet in the opera house on Tuesday at 9 a. m., and will be welcomed by the mayor of Harrisburg, and probably by Governor Stone. The order's lodges are now not only to be found in every city, town and hamlet on this continent, but they have secured a foothold in Australia, Japan, Chile, Peru, West Indies, Mexico, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Holland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden. All this has been accomplished since the 26th of April, 1819, when the first lodge of American Odd Fellows was instituted at Baltimore, Md., by Thomas Widley, the founder of the order. At its inception there was but a single lodge of five members, now there are not less than 12,000 lodges, with over 1,000,000 members. The Grand lodge will continue holding two sessions each day until the business is concluded, which will probably be late on Saturday.

The committee on revision of the constitution and by-laws of the Grand lodge, and the constitution of subordinate lodges, will submit a report recommending many important changes in the organic laws governing the order in Pennsylvania. The most important proposed amendments are those relating to "appeals," from the action of subordinate lodges; "diplomat sessions of the Grand lodge" and "district representation."

DISTRICT REPRESENTATION.

The district representation proposition has for its purpose the reduction of the number of representatives to the Grand lodge from 1,100, as at present, to one-fifth of that number. It is strenuously contended that the present

LICENSED DEALERS SO DECIDE AT A LARGE MEETING.

Organization Effected to Bring About a General Observance of the Liquor Laws—Committee Appointed to Confer with Crusaders with a View of Having Prosecutions Dropped. Another Meeting Tomorrow to Which All Licensed Dealers of the County Are Invited.

Ninety-one of the one hundred and seventy-nine licensed hotel-keepers of the county met in Durr's hall last night and decided to close on Sundays hereafter. They also authorized the publication of a request to all hotel-keepers in the county to keep closed on Sunday. The notice will be found in the advertising columns.

The meeting lasted from 8 o'clock till 11:15. Many of the prominent central city hotel-keepers did not attend and sent no word of their sentiments in the movement, but those present expressed themselves as feeling confident that when it is seen that the organization is earnest and determined to effect something, all will come in and lend their support.

Nothing definite was decided upon beyond that they should organize to protect themselves. Just how this will be done was not agreed upon, but it was the sense of the meeting that if the authorities do not accord them this protection, steps will be taken to force them to do so.

THE FIRST STEP.

As a first step toward bringing about the desired result, those present agreed to close their places on Sunday and have all other licensed dealers do likewise. They were satisfied that every licensed dealer is not only willing but anxious to close on Sunday and will do so at once and permanently if they are given any reasonable assurance that their neighbors, particularly the unlicensed neighbors, will be closed.

A committee consisting of Fred Durr, Phil Coyne and J. J. Padden was appointed to wait on E. B. Sturges to discuss the matter of settling the cases brought by the Men's union against the licensed dealers. The committee will endeavor to see Mr. Sturges today.

Another meeting of the new organization will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Durr's hall. It is expected then that all the licensed dealers of the county will be enrolled. In anticipation of this they called it the Licensed Liquor Dealers' association of Lackawanna county. The officers are: President, Fred Durr; first vice-president, E. J. Horn; second vice-president, R. P. Halligan; financial secretary, Albert Henne; recording secretary, J. S. McCabe; treasurer, Jenkin Harris; sergeants-at-arms, James Twiss and J. J. Morris.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Details of the Parade to Be Held on May 22 Have Been Arranged. The Decorations.

The details for the parade and review to be held in Wilkes-Barre in connection with the Knights Templar convocation have been completed and approved by Grand Commander R. E. Sir James B. Youngson. It will take place on Tuesday, May 22, at 10 a. m. The parade will be in four divisions. The first division will be the Knights Templar, followed by the officers of the grand commandery.

The decorations promise to be the finest ever seen in Wilkes-Barre, and work will be begun next week. The decorations about Public square will be especially elaborate. There will be a number of decorations on the four sides of the court house cupola just above the clock. They will consist of a large blackboard with extra dark background, and the incandescent lights protruding half their length through the holes. The decorations will be lighted every evening during the convocation, beginning Sunday, May 20, and will be burned until 2 o'clock each morning. A total of 747 lights will be used.

On the West Market street side will be placed a design bearing the words, "Sir Knights, Welcome," in which 257 lights of various colors will be used. On the North Main street side will be an outline shield of frosted lights, with a red passion cross.

A large Maltese cross of frosted lights, overlaid by a red passion cross, will be placed on the South Main street side. On the East Market street side will be an outline triangle of frosted lights and a passion cross. Then there will be the usual bunting decorations for the remainder of the court house.

The court of honor will be about Public square and will consist of twenty-eight columns. Four will be placed along the pave on each corner of the square and twelve about the inner side of the square, near the coping. Each of these will be twenty-eight feet high to the ball on top, and including the flags, will reach about forty feet.

The base of each column will be square, four feet six inches on each side and six feet high. The column proper will then be built round, twenty-four inches in diameter at the base and tapering to an eighteen-inch diameter at the top. About the top will be fluted molding. The framework will be covered by heavy muslin and on this the decorations of black and white pleated muslin, Knights' Templar insignia, flags, etc., will be placed. Twenty sixteen-candle power incandescent lights will be arranged in the molding at the top of each.

SUCCESSFUL EUCHRE PARTY.

Conducted for the Benefit of Syrian Mission.

A most successful progressive euchre party was conducted last night in the new club room of the Catholic Young Women's club for the benefit of the Syrian mission. Over one hundred couples sat at the table in the spacious drawing room and play was continued until 1:30 o'clock.

The four winners of the ladies' prizes were: First prize, Mary Ann McGee; second prize, Miss Margaret Slattery; third prize, Miss Margaret Haggerty; third prize, gold glass cream box, Miss Anna McTague; fourth prize, needle case, Mrs. J. McCabe. The gentlemen's prizes were as follows: First prize, gold cross set with brilliants, P. J. Messitt; second prize, umbrella, Robert Willis; third prize, silver blotter holder, John J. Connor; fourth prize, silver-backed comb, Thomas Redding.

ANOTHER WARRANT ISSUED.

Alderman Fuller yesterday issued another warrant for the arrest of P. J. Gibney, of North Main avenue, who is charged with selling liquor on Sunday and selling without a license. Monday Mr. Gibney was arrested and court before Alderman Kellow. When the time came, however, for turning in the warrant and bail-pieces, Constable Timothy Jones, in whose possession they were supposed to be, declared that he did not have them, although Constable Rooney, of Alderman Kellow's court, says that Jones had told him he had them in his pocket.
