CUPULAR RAILROAD MAN DIES

George Higgins died Thursday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. F. G. Stoutenger, No. 15 Washington street. Mr. Higgins has been in failing health for some years and from July last was unable to perform any work. The cause of his death was tuberculosis, Deceased was bern in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1857. He resided in that city until five years ago when he took the position of eastern agent for the Santa Fe railroad. On account of his health he relinquished traveling some three Taylor Hose Company to Picnic. years ago and came to this city as Ontario and Western agent. He later accepted a position as eastern agent for the Frisco route continuing in that capacity unt'l last July. He was a universally Lopular man and a member of the Knights of Pythias, His surviving immediate relative is Mrs. Frank G. Stoutenger, of this city. There will be services at the house morning at ten and the remains

WAS BOUND TO BURN.

The five companies responded to an alarm yesterday morning at about 4.50 o'clock from box 17. The blaze was in the Martin house that suffered from fire on Wednesday. It is alleged that a stove had been placed in the building to dry the woodwork that had been soaked at the previous fire and in this way it started. When the companies arrived the blaze was so great as to preciude all hopes of saving the house. so it was left to burn. The less, probably $1,000, is insured
