TAYLOR NEWS.

Rev. Daniel Evans Occupies the Pulpit of Welsh Baptist Church-Personal and Other News.

Rev. David Evans, of Cambridge, Mass., occupied the pulpit in the Weish Baptist church last evening, and delivered a very able and foreible sermon in the English language to a arge and appreciative congregation. Mr. Evans was a Taylor resident some fifteen years ago, and like other of our young men, through strict integrity and perseverance has been rewarded. He received his early education in the public schools. Later he worked in various capacities in and about the mines of this locality, devoting his leisure hours to the study of books which would prepare him for more profitable pursuits. In this effort he has succeeded. Mr. Evans is now in charge of a large and prosperous church in Cambridge. He is a young man of many excellent qualities and his numerous friends here are highly pleased with what he has accomplished. Mr. Evans is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards, of Main street.

The musical entertainment rendered by the Keystone orchestra in the Price Library association rooms on Friday evening was an excellent treat and was greatly enjoyed by the large audience. Mr. Richard Gendall gave an exhibition of club swinging which was also much appreciated. On next Saturday evening the association will conduct a strawberry and ice cream social in their hall.

Rev. J. Crwys Evans commenced his pastorate at the Welsh Congregational church yesterday under most aus-picious circumstances. He preached to two large congregations both morning and evening. Mr. Edward Keifer, employed as a driver in the Pyne mines, had his hand badly lacerated on Friday by heing caught between the bumpers of two cars. It is thought that the amputation of his thumb may be found necessary, but the hope of the physician in attendance is that it will be avoided

Mrs. McNann, of Philadelphia, and Campbell, of Nanticoke, Mrs. are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fox, of Grove street.

News Notes and Personals.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ann. Merritt, wife of Mr. Peter Merritt, of North Main street, took place yeaterday afternoon. Services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church by Chicago Rev. M. D. Fuller, D. D., who preached an impressive sermon. Among the magnificent floral gifts was a pillow, "Gates Ajar," and a wreath, the gift of the sons and grandsonc. The pallbearers were: William Whitley, Joseph Merritt, William Merritt, Char ence hitley, John Merritt and Wal-ter Merritt. The flower beavers were Norman Williams, Alva Whitley, Ralph Merritt and George Merritt. Both the pall and flower bearers were grand jons of the deceased. There was a large number of out of town relatives and friends present, among whom were Joseph, Edward and George E. Jermyn, of Scranton: Mrs. Joseph Curt.

An Ancient Belief.

The ancients believed that rheuma tism was the work of a demon within man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demoniac enough to warrant the betier. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists Matthews Brothers, wholesale and retail agents.

AVOCA.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Avoca will be honored with a representative gave us a woman who seemed even in the earlier gathering of temperance men, and in order to entertain them extensive preparations are being made. Heretofore the people in Avoca have always demonstrated their hospitality, and it is their desire to feel equal to the honor conferred on them in choosing the town for their annual convention.

but Knox made a magnificent throw to the plate and retired him. On the Allentown side Jim Delehanty played a splendid third base, and Smoot, the ex-Atlantic City player, did well in right field.

It is a difficult task to transplant a story from the pages of a novel to the stage and it is not often that the feat is ancessfully accomplished. The much discussed book, "The Christian," had the scenning advantage of being prepared for the stage by its author, Hall Came, but in this case the advantage is more securing than teal. The stage version differs from the road of for teat-ment and emergiance and for the road of the rest-In the last inning Scranton should have scored. Knox, the first batter, hit a vicious one toward third, which was too hot for Jim Delehanty to stop, and made second base. McIntyre, however, grounded out to first, and ment and conclusions and for ne good reason to far as can be seen. On the concary there seems to be a distinct loss in a commatic way. Knox went to third on the play. Doherty was next up, and if he-had only batted a fly to the outfield, a run would for nearly two years, but it was not until Sat-orday that Scrantonians had an opportunity of seeing what has unquestionably been the greathave been in. He hit to the pitcher, however, who retired him at first, and "Pirate" O'Brien closed the game by est drawing attraction of the day. Manager Sharsig, of Allentown, is indulging in siderable kicking over Phelan's umpiring in hat awful 35-13 game at Elmira, and the Chronicle and News has the following to say about it: "Manager Sharsig writes to a friend in this city that Umpire Phelan gave Allentown such a had deal early in yesterday's game that the lo-cals simply threw up their hands. After that they didn't care how high the score ran. Phelan

s a home unpire and Mr. Sharsig says he aparly wouldn't give Allentown a chance to win, A protest has been filed against Phelan umpiring any more games.¹⁷ The respected Chronicle and News sang a different tane when in Scranton's game at Allentown poor "Pirate" O'Brien was put out of the game by that same man, Phelan, simply because he tried to restrain him from ing the Scranton players of the game.

The Scranton management has made a good nove by signing another fielder, who will report for work today at Reading. The new man is ' Knoll, who with one or two other men onstituted the bright spots on last year's team. Knoll is a great favorite in the city and is one of the fastest little players in the business. He was last year recognized as the crackerjack cen-ter fielder of the Atlantic league and when the Scrarton team disbanded was immediately signed as he did it, however, and it was therefore called fool. In his next attempt he made a great three of 151 feet 10 inches. by Buffalo of the Western league, where he fin ished the season. He wild not do so well in this league at the bat but fielded finely and ran the bases well. However in fifty-four games he h .575 and stole nineteen bases, builting ahead of such men as Hallman, Dillard, who was draft-ed by St. Louis; Clymer, now with Wilkes Barre, (9) by St. Louis, Cymer, now with Wilkes Barre, and Greuneinner, of Buffalo. He fielded magnifi-cently and came in third among thirty-sight field-ers, with an average of .650. So far this season he has played well at Ruffalo, but Eddie Burke, the famous outfielder has been signed for left field. Jake Gettman last year with Washington, is in center field, and "Joeko" Hailigan, the easy hitting outfielder has been very with Washington.
