ELKS' FAIR AND CARNIVAL.

Series of Concerts This Week-The Thirteenth Expects to Parade.

The Elks are getting everything in proper shape for their street fair and carnival at Washington avenue and Ash street on May 21 to 26. The booths for the display of the goods of our manufacturers and merchants are being rapidly rented. The booths will be decorated in purple and white and with the thousands of electric lights streaming down pon them they will no doubt, present a very pretty appearance. In connection with the celebration, Bauer's band, commencing this evening, will give a series of concerts every night this week. The orchestra will play this evening on Franklin avenue in front of the Elks' lodge rooms, or Wednesday evening the band will play on Providence square; on Thursday evening in Hyde Park; opposite Fairchild's hotel; on Friday evening on Pittston avenue, and, on Saturday evening, Bauer's orchestra after parading through the principal streets of the city, will give a concert on Penn avenue, in front of the Elks' carnival headquarters.

Arrangements are being made for a big military parade in which it is thought the Thirteenth regiment will participate.

MARRIED IN NEW YORK.

Jacob Jurkovitz, a Hebrew, and Miss Kate Thomas, a Roman Catholic, Eloped and Were Married.

The residents of the South Wash ington avenue flats are considerably worked up at present over the rather dramatic marriage of Jacob Jurkovitz, of the flats, and Miss Kate Thomas of Green Ridge. Jurkovitz is the son of Max Jurkovitz, formerly of the firm of Schwartz & Jurkovitz, who is one of the best known and most highly respected Jewish residents of that portion of the city. The new Mrs. Jurkovitz is of Irish parentage, is a Roman Catholic. Jurkovitz is a young man about 25 years of age and his wife is about the same age.

They disappeared from town together last Friday and were married in New York state. They made an unsuccess ful effort to be united in this city last week. They have been lovers for two years, unknown to his family, The latter declare that his action was entirely contrary to their wishes, but that they expect that all will turn out well in a few days when the couple return home. They incidentally refer to a divorce as the probable outcome Max Jurkovitz is highly indignant over his son's conduct.

CONSERVATORY CONCERT.

Excellent Performance of the Younger Pupils Last Night.

There was another delightful plane recital given last night by the pupils of the Conservatory of Music, and in ome respects it excelled all the previous ones, in that the work of the younger students was given considerable prominence. Their mastery of difficulties and unmistakable knowledge of the subject as far as their studies had led were definitely proved. Little maids like Miss Florence daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Peck, gave pleasing selections with no evidence of nervousness or self-consciousness. A tiny girl, Norma Johns, of laylor, played a bright little nun by Bohm, with a promise of such technique that no listener could fail to be surprised, Miss Mary Flower, of Gouldsboro, made a striking impression with her excellent work, as did also Misses Ida Gessner, Grace Gerlock, Emma Bone and Marion Hutchinson. The latter young lady gave the Chopin Nocturne in G Major, with much beauty of in-terpretation. Miss Louise Slocum, of Carbondale, played Schumann's Papillons with excellent effect. Miss Clara Browning rendered the last movement of the Concerto in D Minor with intelligence and brilliance of execution, The ensemble, in which several of the above mentioned students participated, assisted by Miss Follansbee, Miss Wagenhurst and Mr. Wilkins, was exceptionally fine.

Philip Warren gave a most satisfacory rendering of that always welcome baritone solo, Handel's "Honour and Arms," and sang in good voice "The Wolf," by Thomas.

Robert Wilson, chief agent of the Men's union, says: "In the cases ignored the evidence in every-instance was as strong, and in most instances stronger, than in those in which true bills were returned."

Said E. B. Sturges, the prime mover in the crusade: "It will be an expensive ignoramus for those who got out of it by the means employed. It is the worst thing that could have happened them. Those against whom true bils were returned will find themselves better off in the end."

Mr. Sturges says an exception is made in the case of Phil Coyne. His arrest was due to mistaken identity. There was no evidence against him, Mr. Sturges said.

A warrant was yesterday issued by Alderman Howe, at the instance of Robert Wilson, agent for the Men's union of Green Ridge, for the arrest of Michael O'Connor and John Walsh, 218 Lackawanna avenue. They are charged with selling liquor on Sunday.

SHOPLIFTING CHARGED.

Mrs. Joseph Visoley, of Blair Avenue, and Her Father Placed Under Arrest Last Night.

Mrs. Joseph Visoley, of Blair avenue, North Scranton, and Adam Garvius, her aged father, were arrested yesterday evening and taken to the central police station, she accused of shop lifting and he of being accessory to the act.

They were arrested by Detective John Molr and Mounted Officer Block, on a warrant issued by Alderman John T. Howe. In the house were found dress goods amounting to about $400 in value, the majority of which were recognized and identified by have been missed from the Globe begin at the speak-easies." store, and Mrs. Visoley, who has been Attorney F. E. Beers, one of the frequently seen about the place, has and asked that the matter be probed into. One of the facts that led to her being suspected was that she was seen wearing a lace collarette with an odd beading on it, which had been missed from the store. On Chief Robling's being notified, a search warrant was sworn out before Alderman John Howe, and armed with this Detective Moir and Officer Block visited the house. They were admitted by Garivius, and from him received the keys to the various closets and rooms, all of which were locked. The house was then searched and was found to be literally filled with stolen goods. Mrs. Visoley came home short while later and was arrested. She had on her person at the time the piece of silk goods and a pair of gentleman's socks, which latter articles came from Goldsmith's bazaar. She and her father were taken to the police station, and Patrolman Hockenberry was left at the house to the supreme court's decision was han 1keep watch. On going through it he ed down. Visoley is a woman about 30 years of age and has a 2-year-old child. Among the articles found in the house were twelve silk shirt waists, eight or nine pieces of silk, one piece being identified by Mr. McConnell and valued at $90; six silk skirts, two fur collarettes, one sealskin collarette, one fine value, valued at $15; six boys' fancy vests, one large piece of cashmere, fifty yards of ribbon, several pairs of shears, one lace collarette with bead trimming, a large number of rilk handkerchiefs. There is also a large number of mits for very small children and infants' clothes. When arrested the woman had in her possession $48. The goods were all removed to the central police station, and Chief Rob-ling requests that representatives of the various dry goods stores of the city be present at headquarters at 10 o'clock this morning to examine the goods, as it is thought that there are articles in the collection from all the dry goods stores of the city.

The man and woman will be given a hearing before Alderman Howe this morning.

INFORMAL DANCE.

Conducted by Catholic Historical Society Last Night.

In lieu of their regular meeting, the members of the Catholic Historical Society and Newman Magazine club gave a most delightful informal dance last night in the new quarters of the Knights of Columbus, on North Washington avenue.

Over one hundred of the members and their friends danced merrily between the hours of 8 and 12 o'clock to music played by Bauer's orchestra. which was seated on the platform behind a bank of paims. The charming informality of the affair was what rendered it most attractive.

For the Benefit of Anxious Business

The Lake Shore Limited is undoubtedly the most magnificently appointed train in the world. It furnishes every comfort and convenience possible in railway travel. Among the many other conveniences to be found on this train are reports on the stock, bond, grain, cotton and provision markets. These reports are corrected at every stopping point of the train by thoroughly responsible commission firms and patrons of these trains can keep just as thoroughly posted when travel-ing between New York, Buffalo and Chicago, as though they were in their office. The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway certainly knows how to cater to the wants of its patrons. **

John Henry Phillips was last night elected school controller from the Fifth ward to succeed his brother, the late D. I. Phillips. The election was by the members of the board of control. Mr. Phillips secured fifteen votes. while his opponent, William Morgan, had only five.

Mr. Phillips' name was presented by Mr. Evans, who said that his election would be fitting and complimentary to the memory of his deceased brother. Mr. Morgans' name was not put up for nomination. The vote was as Phillips and complimented Mr. Phillips upon his election. Mr. Phillips responded and in a few words thanked the members for the honor and said that he would endeavor to act as had his brother. His voice was so choked with emotion that it was with difficulty that he could speak.

WANT A NEW SCHOOL

A deal of discussion and amuse nent was afforded by the events imme. diately following the introduction of a petition from certain citizens of the Twenty-first ward residing on the Diamond Flats. The petitioners urged that the board erect a new school on the Diamond Flats to take the place of the present one, which was referred to as being "a menace to the health of the scholars attending It."

A motion was made to refer the matter to the building committee, whereat Mr. Leonard arose and expressed the hope that the committee would make a report on it. as the erection of a school of even small cost was of the nost urgent necessity. He pointed out that last fall a number of permits had to be granted certain children allowing them to attend another school. The motion to refer to committee was car ried and the committee was requested by the chairman to report at the next meeting.

President Jayne thought that there should be some official action taken by the board regarding the city controller's compensation, inasmuch as the supreme court has just decided that he must work without compensacollarette in question and carried a tion. After a deal of argument and speech-making, Dr. O'Malley, speaking in favor of continuing the compensation, Mr. Barker moved that it be the understanding of the board that the compensation ceased on the day

The building committee made the following recommendations: That hereafter all applicants for the position of janitor in buildings where there is steam heat or power used, pass a satisfactory examination before the board's engineer; that the boller in No. 23 school be removed to No. 13 school, and that an engine, whose cost is not to exceed $300, be purchased for use in the latter school; that the secretary of the board advertise for sealed proposals for 1,000 single school desks.

WORK PROGRESSING SLOWLY. All of these recommendations were adopted, and then Mr. Roche spoke of the fact that all of the school buildings now in course of erection are progressing very slowly and that the contractors cannot be urged to hasten the work. A motion was passed directing the contractors to appear at the next regular meeting of the building committee and explain matters.

Another important matter discussed was the large number of truants seen upon the streets. Mr. Gibbons brought this up after the report of Attendance ELECTED LAST NIGHT BY THE Officer Joyce had been read. He said that any day there might be seen large numbers of children, between the ages of seven and eleven, romping on the streets. He thought that two or three more attendance officers should be engaged to assist Mr. Joyce, Mr. Jayne remarked that it is a physical impossillity for one man to do the work. The natter was finally referred to teachers' committee with instructions to report on it at the next meeting.

After the board had argued about the ontroller's compensation, Dr. O'Malley noved that Attorney Reedy be tendered a vote of thanks for his successful efforts in the school poard case. Mr. Roche vigorously opposed this, saying that he didn't believe in throwing compliments at an official who was paid for everything he had done. The motion of Dr. O'Malley was passed, how-
