

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MEETINGS OF RELIGIOUS AND FRATERNAL ORGANIZATIONS.

Church Members Discuss Pertinent Questions, While the Wheelmen and Firemen Rehearse and Enjoy Themselves—Weekly School Deposits at West Side Bank—Funerals of John Tate and William Eschenbaugh—Several Accidents and Other Shorter News Notes.

Notwithstanding the fact that last evening was oppressively warm, several indoor meetings were held, none of which had any particular significance, but incidentally served to call out the members of the churches and other organized bodies where the conferences were held.

The Electric City Wheelmen held a rehearsal for the minstrel performance to be given at Nicholson next Friday night, and if their friends had been permitted to see them they would infer that the boys were making ready for a private bath instead of a public exhibition.

Down at the Tabernacle on South Hyde Park avenue a large group of singers rehearsed for the cymanfa on Memorial Day and sang the old familiar Welsh hymns with much enthusiasm. At the Washburn Street Presbyterian ladies were in session in one room and the Chi Epsilon society held a regular meeting in another part of the church.

The Columbia Hose company also met in regular session and discussed the narrow escape of Clare Storm at Saturday night's fire and how Al Lewis' rubber coat was burned from his back. A vain attempt was also made to discover the identity of the guilty fellow that turned the hose on Chief Walker.

The firemen held a social session after the meeting to congratulate County Auditor William Johns on his approaching marriage, and jollily reigned for several hours. Several councilmen were present. A lunch was served and impromptu remarks were made by several of the guests present.

IT WAS Kidney Disease

A COMPLETE CURE AFTER A TOUR, WITHOUT BENEFIT, AMONG THE LEADING LIGHTS OF THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

The case of FRANCES W. G'ESHAM. 617 and St. N. W., Washington, D. C. Secretary and Treasurer of the Higher League of Educational Society, Washington.

"I firmly believe that I owe my life to Warner's Safe Cure. For two years I suffered with kidney trouble and could find no relief anywhere. I sent hundreds of dollars to doctors and medicines, some would give temporary relief and others none whatever. I decided to try Warner's Safe Cure as a last resort and wish I had followed the advice of friends sooner. It was the only thing that helped me and in less than four months it had made a new woman out of me. I am entirely well and I give all the praise to Warner's Safe Cure."
