CHAMPION JEFFRIES TONIGHT. He Will Give a Sparring Exhibition at Academy of Music.

James J. Jeffries, the only undefeat ed heavy-weight fighter, is open to fight any man who thinks he can win the title of champion of the world away from him. Mr. Corbett, imme diately after his defeat on Friday evening last, made the statement that on account of the brilliant showing he made against Jeffries that he is entitled to another fight. Mr. Jeffries thought so too, and now Mr. Brady, Jeffries' manager, is willing to wager $10,000 to $50,000 that Jeffries can do the trick once again. Jeffries is ready to fight at a moment's notice, so all that is necessary now is for Corbett to cover the money. Jeffcles will appear at the Academy of Music tonight in conjunction with the performance of "From Sire to Son," presented by the Keystone Dramatic company. Mr. Jeffries will spar a number of scientific rounds with his sparring partner, Ed Dundhorst, of Syracuse, showing all the important blows he used to put Mr. Corbett Women's asleep last Friday evening, in the attended. greatest heavy-weight fight this country has ever known, defeating Corbett in the twenty-third round by a knockout blow on the jaw. #### CONCERT FOR THE ELKS.

Bauers' Orchestra Plays in the Interest of Street Fair and Carnival. Bauer's band gave a fine concert last evening in front of the Elks' headquarters on Franklin avenue. The music was thoroughly enjoyed by a large gathering of citizens. The band will give a concert every evening this week in the interest of the Elks' great fair and carnival, to be held all next week at Washington avenue and Ash street. Last night's musical programme was as follows:

Manisat March . "Babillage," Gillet
"The Union Forever," Scouten

The concert this evening will be at Providence square.

Mayor James Moir will open the fair and festival next Monday and welcome the visitors to the Electric City. Grand Elk Elliott Ross was in Wilkes-Barre last evening and after extolling the beauties of Scranton and the hospitallty and generosity of its citizens, extended an invitation to the Wilkes-Barre lodge of Elks to visit the street fair and carnival. The invitation was gladly accepted. Brother Ross will visit Pittston this evening and Stroudsburg tomorrow evening and invite the Elks in these places to come and see the fair and enjoy the fun. The fire departments of Scranton Carbondale and Pittston will particiate in the industrial and Bostock Midway Carnival parade next Monday at noon. The Thirteenth regiment, as dready stated, will also take part in it. The booths are selling rapidly and there is no doubt that the fair and festival will be a pronounced success. Much of the proceeds of the festival will be given to charitable institutions.

REV. J. J. LOUGHRAN ON THE CRUSADERS

SCHOLARLY LECTURE IN COL-LEGE HALL.

Second of a Series of Lectures Being Given for the Benefit of the Catholie Young Women's Club-Father Loughran Showed Himself to Be a Most Earnest Student of History and Gave a Masterful Description of the Eight Wars for the Conquest of Jerusalem.

Rev. John J. Loughran, of this city lelivered a most able illustrated lecture last night in St. Thomas' College hall on "The Crusaders." It was the second lecture in the series being given for the benefit of the Catholic Young Women's club, and was very largely

Father Loughran's lecture revealed him as a most earnest and intelligent student of history, and in the two hours during which he spoke, he gave a comprehensive survey of the eight cruasdes undertaken in the Middle

He pointed out in beginning that the crusades, taken as a whole, form the most important wars in the history of the Middle Ages. Not only were the nations of Europe arrayed against one another, but two religions, the Christian and the Mohammedan, were contending for supremacy. "It is estimated," said Father Loughran, "that over 6,000,000 lives were lost in the crusades, and it is very doubtful if the good that accrued from them is commensurate with this frightful mortal-Ity.

PILGRIMAGES TO PALESTINE.

From the very earliest centuries of the Christian era, he explained, Christians had been in the habit of making pilgrimages to Palestine and Jerusalem, and had been unmolested and allowed to pass in peace until the tenth century, when they began to be persecuted by the Mussulmans. The tales told by some of them on their return from the Holy Land aroused a strong desire in many hearts throughout Europe to wrest the city of Jerusalem from the Moslems.

Peter, the Hermit, of Amieras, France, monk, became inspired with a desire to free Jerusalem in the latter part of the eleventh century, having made a pilgrimage and seen with his own eyes the terrible persecutions of Christians in Asia. He secured the sanction of Pope Urban II, and journeyed over the larger part of Europe, arousing the people to take up arms and fight to wrest the Holy Land from the hands of the Mohammetans.

His success was magical, and in the pring of 1096 there gathered on the western frontiers of France over 250,000 men, women and children. This was before the time chosen by Peter, and before the forces could be properly organized they surged over into Hungary, committing the most dreadful devastations. They were almost exterminated in a few months by the Hungarian peasantry.

In the meantime the barons and noforce met with such terrible disaster. late arrival of Dr. O'Malley. as many pilgrims left of the immense Mr. Phillips. army of over half a million. Jerusafifty years was held under Christian

SECOND CRUSADE.

The lecturer then told of the second crusade, which was preached by St. Bernard, and to which King Louis VII, of France, and King Conrad III, ng the main hallway of the station, of Germany, lent their support. This crusade was more successful, and have been first-class passengers from 1149. The third crusade, in which Chicago and the west, en route to the Richard the Lion-Hearted, of England, Paris exposition, but upon inquiry it was learned that they were second Germany, joined hands was next spoken of. During this crusade the most terrible battle of all history was fought, the battle of Arsur, in which tens of thousands of men were slain. The fourth crusade was nothing more than a pilgrimage, he said, crusaders never reached the Holy Land. The fifth crusade was inaugurated through the efforts of Pope Innocent III, and was essentially a French crusade, though the Venetians assisted to a certain extent. Enthusiasm for the sixth crusade was troused by an army of 50,000 children, who marched through Europe singing, "Lord Jesus, restore to us your precious cross."

Father Loughran dwelt briefly upon the seventh and eighth crusades, which were the two last. In both of these King Louis IX, of France, who has since been canonized as a saint, was the leader. He lost his life in After this eighth the last crusade. crusade the enthusiasm for this kind of warfare gradually decreased, and men spent their lives trying to arouse it, but to no avail. The lecturer's descriptions were most vivid, and he did not hesitate to say that many, many times the crusaders were so led away by their enthusiastic zeal that they committed the most horrible indiscretions, after massacreing the sands of men, women and children at a time. The lecture was illustrated throughout with a series

Her Neighbor, Mrs. Mary Pacce Cut Her Three Times with a Butcher Knife-She Will Recover.

Mrs. Sylvester Bolonga, of Willow street, Dunmore, was stabled three times yesterday morning by Mrs. Mary Pacce, of Apple street. The two women are neighbors, and met yesterday morning about 8 o'clock. Bad blood has existed between the two for some time, owing to gossiping. Mrs. Bolonga claims that as soon as Mrs. Pacce saw her, she seized her by the throat and drew from her stocking a large butcher knife, with which she stabbed her over the left eye, in the back of the head and in the neck. Dr. Garvey is treating her, and as none of the wounds, luckily, are deep, she will in all probability recover. Three stitches were made in the cut over the

Mrs. Bolonga's husband went before Squire Cooney and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Pacce, and it was given to Constable Williams to serve. Mrs. Pacce, however, saw him coming and by jumping out of a window in the rear of her house, eluded him, and has not yet been found and taken into custody.

She is a woman about forty years of age, and has three small children. Mrs. Bolonga is about thirty-five years of age, and bears a very good reputation in the neighborhood.

HORSES BEING TRIED. Fire Committee to Purchase Them on Thursday Next.

A number of horses belonging to Waldron are now being tried by the following companies of the fire department: Franklins, Nay Augs, Crystals, Neptunes and Columbias. The joint fire committee to whom the power of purchasing the eight new horses for the department was lately conferred by councils will meet on Thursday and hear reports from the chief and the various drivers as to which horses should be purchased.

The members of the committee believe that they can purchase the whole eight for $1,600. As there is no appropriation this amount paid will either be credited as a deficiency to be provided for in next year's appropriation ordinance or wil be taken out of that very handy "judgments and incidentals" appropriation which by the way is not used for paying judgments at all.

The members are alive to the fact, however, that the department needs the horses and they are going to make ev-ery effort to purchase them imme-

CANDIDATE FOR JURY COMMISSIONER

E. B. STRUGES HAS REGISTERED FOR THAT OFFICE.

Thinks the Office of Jury Commissioner Is the Most Important One to Be Filled This Fall Because Bad Men Have It in Their Power to Continue the Existing Condition of Affairs-Why He Is Willing to Assume the Duties of the Office.

E. B. Sturges yesterday registered with Republican County Chairman A. A. Vosburg as a candidate for jury commissioner.

This move on Mr. Sturges' part is the direct result of the action of the grand jury in the liquor cases. The crusaders have had in mind for ome time the idea of securing some honest, representative man to enter the field for jury commissioner, realiz-
