

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF W. E. JOHNS AND MISS MARGARET PHILLIPS.

Ceremony Performed at the Home of the Bride's Mother by Rev. David Jones—Hon John T. Williams Elected President and William T. Davis Treasurer of West Side Bank—Social and Other Events Tonight—Funerals, News Notes and Personals.

In the presence of the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends, County Auditor William E. Johns and Miss Margaret Phillips were united in marriage at 8:30 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Thomas Phillips, on South Main avenue. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Congregational church.

As the bride and groom entered the parlor, Mrs. Frank Jones played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride wore a gown of white mousseline de soie, trimmed with chiffon and d'Alen lace, and carried a bunch of white roses. She made a fascinating appearance, being exceptionally pretty, tall and graceful, and was faultlessly gowned. The groom, an athletically built young man, was becomingly attired in evening dress.

The ceremony over, congratulations were showered upon the happy young couple by their relatives and friends, and after a short interval tables were brought into service and groups of four and six sat here and there and were served with dainty delicacies. Mr. and Mrs. Johns took their departure on the midnight train for Philadelphia, Washington and Baltimore.

They will be at home to their friends after June 1 at 215 South Main avenue. The bride is the only daughter of the late Thomas W. Phillips, who was up to the time of his death general outside superintendent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western coaleries. The groom is engaged in the shoe business at 102 and 104 North Main avenue, and is the youngest son of Mrs. Edward T. Johns, of 155 South Main avenue.

Both are prominent in the younger society of West Scranton and are two of the most popular young people in the city. The esteem in which they are held was fully attested by the many valuable and beautiful gifts received as wedding presents. Hundreds of friends extend congratulations to them and wish both many years of uninterrupted happiness.

HONORED WITH PRESIDENCY. Hon. John T. Williams, ex-member of the legislature from the First legislative district, was unanimously elected president of the West Side bank at Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success, It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest. FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

This is a Gingham Season

You can see that at a glance if you care to look around and it may interest you to know that the Globe Warehouse is the center of the Gingham trade, no matter what the grade or make you have your mind set on, may be. In order to emphasize this fact, we have resolved to make this of the year. Come in and see the beauties of the finer grades, including Linen and Silk Weaves in tufted effects, dots, Chambrays, etc. Also the latest from the home of the gingham in Bonnie Scotland. The variety is unlimited and their fresh loveliness cannot fail to win your admiration.

The Greatest Gingham Week

Special Value Lots for this Week Only

Anderson's Gingham

The name is the guarantee here and these are the very newest from the famous weaves—Tufted Effects, Cords, Dots, Stripes, Plaids, Checks and Plain Weaves. Actual values 25c and 31c a yard.

Your Choice This Week 15c

32-Inch Gingham

Charming Cord-stripe effects, in such a wide range of styles and colorings that choosing the prettiest becomes difficult. Actual value, 20c yard.

Your Choice This Week 14c

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS. Indigestion will lead to general weakness. The Bitters invigorates the blood and revitalizes the entire system. It cures Stomach, Liver and Kidney Ills. No one who uses it need have Constipation, Dyspepsia or Biliousness.

A meeting of the directors held last evening, to succeed the late Benjamin Hughes, who was the presiding officer of the directors for fifteen years. William T. Davis was elected as treasurer to succeed Mr. Williams. Both gentlemen have been identified with the bank's interests for many years. The former is a member of the well known real estate firm of Carson & Davis, and the latter is identified with the firm of Williams & Company, general merchandise, of South Main avenue.

SOCIAL TONIGHT. Mrs. Boyce and Mrs. Benninger will conduct an ice cream social at the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal parsonage this evening, to which the public is invited. The following programme will be rendered: Instrumental solo, Miss Grace Himmann; Recitation, Miss Vera Rodak; Duet, Mrs. A. Warren, Miss Anna Lester; Violin solo, Mr. Lou Evans; Recitation, Miss Bessie Diehl; Duet, Solo and organ, Mrs. B. Stone and Mr. George Stephens; Duet, Mrs. L. Stone and Miss L. Stubbins; Recitation, Miss Anna Bennett; Solo, Mrs. L. Stone; Instrumental solo, Miss Nellie House.

WASHBURN STREET CHURCH. At the conclusion of the prayer meeting last evening, an open parliament session on Bible school work was held and attended by many persons. The Christian Endeavor society will hold an adjourned business session this evening at the home of Miss Mabel Yost, on Jackson street. A special offering will be taken up at both church services and Bible school session next Sunday for the famine sufferers in India.

SEVERAL FUNERALS. The funeral of the late Mrs. John Duggan will occur at 9 o'clock this morning from the house on South Elmore avenue. Services will be held in St. Patrick's church and interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The remains of Kate, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Healey, of Luzerne street, were interred in the Cathedral cemetery yesterday afternoon. Services over the remains of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Jenkins' 5-year-old child were held at the house on Archbold street yesterday afternoon. Burial was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

Rev. J. B. Sweet conducted the funeral of the late Mrs. Henry J. Ufford, which was held at the house on South Elmore avenue. A large number of members from the several societies to which the deceased belonged were in attendance. The body was taken to Foster on an afternoon train, where interment was made in the cemetery at that place.

A requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. W. P. O'Donnell yesterday morning in Holy Cross church, over the remains of the late John Corcoran, of Fourth street. Interment was afterwards made in the Cathedral cemetery.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. The West Side Social club will conduct an entertainment and social in Meads' hall tomorrow evening. Some of the best local talent of the city will take part in the affair. Mrs. Agnes Malott will furnish the music for dancing.

The Luther league of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church will hold an entertainment in the church this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. The prize drawing for the benefit of William A. Davis, of Bellevue Heights, will be conducted in D. D. Evans' hall, South Main avenue, at 8 o'clock this evening. Holders of unpaid tickets are supposed to make payment for them or they will not be included in the drawing. All ticket holders are requested to be present.

The Ladies Aid society, of the First Baptist church, will serve supper this evening at the home of Mrs. Annie Swallow, on Tenth street, between Scranton and Washburn streets. The Mozart Glee club met in the Welsh Baptist church last evening and decided to compete in several of the approaching festivals. Holders of unpaid tickets are supposed to make payment for them or they will not be included in the drawing. All ticket holders are requested to be present.

The drawing for the benefit of Joseph Richards, of Corbett avenue, announced for May 26, has been postponed. The Central and Sloan Mine Accidental Funds will open the season at Lake Loda on Thursday, June 7. Escaping gas was exploded Tuesday evening in John James' barber shop on South Main avenue, caused by a lighted match being thrown on the pipe that was leaking. The damage was slight.

The members of the Jackson Street Baptist church and congregation are requested to meet with the choir tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock to rehearse church music. Frank Malosky, a miner in the Briggs shaft, had one of his fingers injured while at work yesterday and had the member dressed at the West Side hospital.

Ethel, the 14-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Jenkins, of 113 South Elmore avenue, died yesterday. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery. Court Pride, of Lackawanna, No. 6, Foresters of America, initiated several candidates in Ivorite hall last evening and enjoyed a smoker and social session after the business meeting.

NORTH SCRANTON. The rummage sale which has been conducted by the ladies of Providence Presbyterian church in the Steele block for the past three days was closed last evening. All day yesterday the room was filled with bargain seekers, all of whom were pleased with their purchases. The ladies have realized a nice sum during the sale and are satisfied with the labor done by them.

The ladies of the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church will serve supper this evening in the church parlors. The ladies of this church have long been identified as some of the best servers as well as excellent preparers of the many palatable dishes and are certain they will not fail their many friends this evening. Supper tickets, 20 cents.

The funeral of Patrick Langan was held yesterday afternoon from his late home of Block avenue. The remains were taken to the Holy Rosary church at 2:30 o'clock, where services were conducted by the Rev. J. J. O'Toole. The drum corps of which the deceased was a member, attended. They played the funeral dirge as the body was being conveyed to the Cathedral cemetery, where interment was made.

Dr. J. F. Goodwin, of Philadelphia, is the guest of his college chum, Dr. J. J. Sullivan, Jr. Charles Harmon, an employe of the Paragon Plaster company had his hand badly injured and lacerated by machinery Tuesday afternoon. Bauer's band gave a concert last evening on the square, advertising the Elks' street carnival. Several thousand people listened to the excellent music.

The members of the Shield of Honor lodge are requested to meet at Thomas' hall, on West Market street, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Miss McLaughlin, city missionary of the Second Presbyterian church, will give a talk at the Young Women's Christian association this afternoon at 4 o'clock. A special invitation is extended to the missionary societies of the various churches. The embroidery class will not meet today. The annual meeting was held by the ladies of the Providence Presbyterian church yesterday in the Sunday school room.

GREEN RIDGE. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hangl attended the commencement exercises of the Dalton High school last evening. Miss Haslam, Mr. Hangl's niece, was one of the graduates. Traffic on the Green Ridge People's GRAIN-O THE FOOD DRINK. Some people can't drink coffee; everybody can drink Grain-O. It looks and tastes like coffee, but it is made from pure grains. No coffee in it. Grain-O is cheaper than coffee; costs about one-quarter as much.

PEA COAL $1.25 a Ton Delivered. To South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to J. T. Farkey, 1914 Cedar ave. Phone 6653.

MINOOKA. Mrs. Cawley, mother of Patrick Cawley, of Five Points, has gone to the West Side hospital for treatment. Miss Bertha Johnson and Miss Alice Murray represent the Ladies Temperance society at the Diocesan convention, which is being held at Avoca, line was suspended for a short time yesterday forenoon by car No. 114 jumping the track at the switch on Green Ridge street. Lee, son of Prof. H. L. Burdick, was knocked down by a bicycle rider while playing ball on Delaware street yesterday afternoon. The cyclist stepped out of the way of a passing carriage and into the path of the bicycle man. Fortunately, he was not injured.

THE SEARCHLIGHTS. The Right Thing Has Been Found—A Scranton Citizen Shows the Way. Once more we are indebted to a Scranton citizen for a public statement that throws more light on a subject of ever-increasing interest. People have been deceived by false misrepresentations from time immemorial. No wonder the skepticism of an citizen endorsed by strangers, residing in distant parts of the Union. It is no longer necessary to accept such endorsements, for local citizens are giving their testimony, and 'tis an easy matter for any reader to investigate.

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

Green Ridge camp, Modern Woodmen of America, was regularly instituted last evening by District Deputy Hughes and the following officers were elected: V. C. B. T. Jayne, W. A. D. J. Whiteford; banker, F. C. Hazzard; secret, W. S. Found; clerk, Joseph Fiddler; inside watch, T. R. Hughes; outside sentinel, J. W. Stevens; board of managers, J. U. Hopewell, three years; W. S. Found, one year; J. J. John, one year; physician, Dr. James L. Ren.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES. Marriage of J. T. Martin and Miss Madeline Rorick Yesterday Morning in St. Mary's Church. Yesterday morning St. Mary's German Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Madeline Rorick was united in wedlock to J. T. Martin by Rev. Father Stopper. The bride was attired in pink silk, and the groom in the conventional black. The bridesmaid was a sister of the bride, Miss Anna Rorick, and the best man, Casper Martin, is a brother of the groom.

A wedding reception was tendered the bride at the home of her parents, on Stone avenue, after the wedding. The banquet was gallily decorated with potted plants and Japanese lanterns. The couple were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. After a short wedding tour, they will begin housekeeping on Cedar avenue.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES. The Ladies' auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians met in regular session last night in the Pharmacy hall. The Scranton Axle works, which were shut down for a week for repairs to the engine, will resume operations today.

PERSONAL NOTES. A. J. Mulderig, the Pittston avenue tailor, will leave today on a business trip to New York. The gymnasium class of the Scranton Athletic club will hold a practice drill tonight at the club house on Alder street.

Mrs. Jeanette Meisell died Tuesday evening at her home, 25 West Union street, Wilkes-Barre. Miss Meisell had been in impaired health for some four years, but some of her friends were prepared for this sudden change. Some months ago she underwent a grave surgical operation in the hope that she might regain her health, and she remained in the hospital for some time, but the benefit proved only transient and of late she has been wasting away. Miss Meisell was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob M. Meisell, of Scranton. Her father had spent in Honoluli except two years in Scranton. On July 1, 1853, she was married to Gilbert White. Before her husband's two sons were born, namely, Irving and Frank, at home; she also the following sisters, Mrs. Betsy Welsh and Mrs. Mary O'Grady, of Binghamton; Mrs. W. H. Harkin, East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. Fannie Moore, Scranton; Mrs. Lillie Bryan, of Honolulu. The late John Brown was a brother of the deceased. Mrs. White was a most estimable woman. She had been a Christian from youth, being a member of the Methodist church for a number of years, and later she united with Grace Episcopal church.

Miss Jeanette Meisell died Tuesday evening at her home, 25 West Union street, Wilkes-Barre. Miss Meisell had been in impaired health for some four years, but some of her friends were prepared for this sudden change. Some months ago she underwent a grave surgical operation in the hope that she might regain her health, and she remained in the hospital for some time, but the benefit proved only transient and of late she has been wasting away. Miss Meisell was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob M. Meisell, of Scranton. Her father had spent in Honoluli except two years in Scranton. On July 1, 1853, she was married to Gilbert White. Before her husband's two sons were born, namely, Irving and Frank, at home; she also the following sisters, Mrs. Betsy Welsh and Mrs. Mary O'Grady, of Binghamton; Mrs. W. H. Harkin, East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. Fannie Moore, Scranton; Mrs. Lillie Bryan, of Honolulu. The late John Brown was a brother of the deceased. Mrs. White was a most estimable woman. She had been a Christian from youth, being a member of the Methodist church for a number of years, and later she united with Grace Episcopal church.

THE DOG'S BARK. Something About Its Meaning Under Various Circumstances. As to barking, there are different sorts of barks, the meaning of each of which is well known. For example, there is the barking that at night is meant to call the master's attention to the fact that some burglar is on the premises. When I hear my Landseer Newfoundland, or my splendid St. Bernard giving warning in this way, I turn on my other side, and do but sleep the sounder, well knowing that the evil-doer would dare to enter my premises, or even my grounds.

Some years ago every house in Twyford was entered by burglars except my own. With limbers they had already opened a lower window of my villa, when they had to try the bark of warning. The burglar had descended through long generations from the days when wild dogs hunted in packs, and it was then as useful in recalling stragglers as the bugle of a regiment.

Next there is the bark of joy, when a dog, for instance, meets again a kind and loving master, who may have been absent for a few days. No mistaking this. It is the bark of pleasure and excitement. There is another sort of bark, which one often hears at the house door, in full chase, after a poor unhappy dog. The wild nature of the hounds finds full play now, and this semi-bark, semi-howl, is music to the so-called sportsman that follow up behind.

THE SEARCHLIGHTS

THE SEARCHLIGHTS. The Right Thing Has Been Found—A Scranton Citizen Shows the Way. Once more we are indebted to a Scranton citizen for a public statement that throws more light on a subject of ever-increasing interest. People have been deceived by false misrepresentations from time immemorial. No wonder the skepticism of an citizen endorsed by strangers, residing in distant parts of the Union. It is no longer necessary to accept such endorsements, for local citizens are giving their testimony, and 'tis an easy matter for any reader to investigate.

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

line was suspended for a short time yesterday forenoon by car No. 114 jumping the track at the switch on Green Ridge street. Lee, son of Prof. H. L. Burdick, was knocked down by a bicycle rider while playing ball on Delaware street yesterday afternoon. The cyclist stepped out of the way of a passing carriage and into the path of the bicycle man. Fortunately, he was not injured.

Green Ridge camp, Modern Woodmen of America, was regularly instituted last evening by District Deputy Hughes and the following officers were elected: V. C. B. T. Jayne, W. A. D. J. Whiteford; banker, F. C. Hazzard; secret, W. S. Found; clerk, Joseph Fiddler; inside watch, T. R. Hughes; outside sentinel, J. W. Stevens; board of managers, J. U. Hopewell, three years; W. S. Found, one year; J. J. John, one year; physician, Dr. James L. Ren.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES. Marriage of J. T. Martin and Miss Madeline Rorick Yesterday Morning in St. Mary's Church. Yesterday morning St. Mary's German Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Madeline Rorick was united in wedlock to J. T. Martin by Rev. Father Stopper. The bride was attired in pink silk, and the groom in the conventional black. The bridesmaid was a sister of the bride, Miss Anna Rorick, and the best man, Casper Martin, is a brother of the groom.

A wedding reception was tendered the bride at the home of her parents, on Stone avenue, after the wedding. The banquet was gallily decorated with potted plants and Japanese lanterns. The couple were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. After a short wedding tour, they will begin housekeeping on Cedar avenue.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES. The Ladies' auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians met in regular session last night in the Pharmacy hall. The Scranton Axle works, which were shut down for a week for repairs to the engine, will resume operations today.

PERSONAL NOTES. A. J. Mulderig, the Pittston avenue tailor, will leave today on a business trip to New York. The gymnasium class of the Scranton Athletic club will hold a practice drill tonight at the club house on Alder street.

Mrs. Jeanette Meisell died Tuesday evening at her home, 25 West Union street, Wilkes-Barre. Miss Meisell had been in impaired health for some four years, but some of her friends were prepared for this sudden change. Some months ago she underwent a grave surgical operation in the hope that she might regain her health, and she remained in the hospital for some time, but the benefit proved only transient and of late she has been wasting away. Miss Meisell was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob M. Meisell, of Scranton. Her father had spent in Honoluli except two years in Scranton. On July 1, 1853, she was married to Gilbert White. Before her husband's two sons were born, namely, Irving and Frank, at home; she also the following sisters, Mrs. Betsy Welsh and Mrs. Mary O'Grady, of Binghamton; Mrs. W. H. Harkin, East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. Fannie Moore, Scranton; Mrs. Lillie Bryan, of Honolulu. The late John Brown was a brother of the deceased. Mrs. White was a most estimable woman. She had been a Christian from youth, being a member of the Methodist church for a number of years, and later she united with Grace Episcopal church.

THE DOG'S BARK. Something About Its Meaning Under Various Circumstances. As to barking, there are different sorts of barks, the meaning of each of which is well known. For example, there is the barking that at night is meant to call the master's attention to the fact that some burglar is on the premises. When I hear my Landseer Newfoundland, or my splendid St. Bernard giving warning in this way, I turn on my other side, and do but sleep the sounder, well knowing that the evil-doer would dare to enter my premises, or even my grounds.

Some years ago every house in Twyford was entered by burglars except my own. With limbers they had already opened a lower window of my villa, when they had to try the bark of warning. The burglar had descended through long generations from the days when wild dogs hunted in packs, and it was then as useful in recalling stragglers as the bugle of a regiment.

Next there is the bark of joy, when a dog, for instance, meets again a kind and loving master, who may have been absent for a few days. No mistaking this. It is the bark of pleasure and excitement. There is another sort of bark, which one often hears at the house door, in full chase, after a poor unhappy dog. The wild nature of the hounds finds full play now, and this semi-bark, semi-howl, is music to the so-called sportsman that follow up behind.

Who does not know, and whose heart has not been to hear, the melancholy whine or "yap-yap" of the poor dog that is constantly kept on chain? Greater cruelty than this it is impossible to conceive. A dog so loves freedom, but here he is, chained to a barrel, his only companions the slimy slugs. He sees the glad sunshine sparkling on the trees and bushes, but he cannot bask in its rays, as those other dogs do that pass him by, so contented and happy. His bedding is scant and damp; his food is neglected; and his drop of water is slime in summer and frozen in winter.—Our Animal Friends.

DIOCESAN DIVISION IS DECREED

railway magnate and newspaper proprietor, of Harrisburg; Rodney A. Mercer, of Towanda; Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Ware, of Honoluli; Dr. Esie, ex-state librarian of Pennsylvania; Rev. Dr. Ernest T. Smith, of Harrisburg, who is said to be the handsomest man in the convention, harrington bishop Mr. and Mrs. William Dimmick, Mr. and Mrs. Russell, of Honoluli; Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Wirt, of Bloomsburg; Captain Stetson, of Reading; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Butler, of Mauch Chunk.

A large committee of ladies assisted in entertaining. Mrs. E. N. Willard directed affairs in the supper room. Mrs. J. Benjamin Dimmick and Mrs. Everett Warren presided at the profusely decorated table. Others assisting were Mrs. L. S. Oakford, Mrs. R. J. Foster, Mrs. A. D. Holland, Mrs. Pennypacker, Mrs. George L. Dickson, Mrs. G. M. Hallstead, Mrs. W. M. Dickson, Mrs. William Marple, Mrs. L. G. La Har, Mrs. George B. Jeremy, Mrs. L. W. Stillwell, Mrs. Charles McMillen, Mrs. C. B. Derman, Mrs. S. Derman, Mrs. Stook, Mrs. Pettigrew, Mrs. E. S. Moffat, Mrs. G. C. Youm, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. C. D. Sanderson, Miss Russell, Mrs. T. Hayes, Mrs. P. F. Price, Miss Derman.

Among the gentlemen who assisted as members of the reception committee were A. D. Holland, W. M. Marple, C. D. Sanderson, S. Derman, Everett Warren, R. J. Foster, F. L. Brown, F. P. Price, Samuel Hines and H. W. Kingsbury.

OTHER EVENTS. Mrs. Everett Warren gave a beautiful public school yesterday and special permission was given him to give three talks to the pupils of the high school and other grades in No. 1 building this afternoon. The subject for the talks will be "Physical Culture." Mr. Burrill is a specialist on this subject, having given lectures to a large number of scholars in many states of the Union.

A short address was delivered yesterday to the scholars in which ventriloquism was explained and many amusing illustrations given which were pleasing to the scholars.

W. C. T. U. MEETING. The third meeting of the month of the Women's Christian Temperance union will be held tomorrow afternoon. The ladies are working with interest along this new line of work for the borough and the committee on flowers and visiting have brightened many dull sick rooms.

HE INSTRUCTED THE JUDGE. Who Was So Well Pleased That He Gave Him Seven Months. From the Washington Post. "Nathaniel Patrick Henry Schofield Bey" called the police court clerk in stentorian tones, and a hearty laugh was heard from the lawyers, bailiffs and general hangers-on around the room.

A very black negro of about forty stepped to the bar with the remark, "Yes, sah, dat's my cognomen title." "Well, Nat, what have you got to say about this charge of—of what's the name of that thing, anyhow, Mr. Bailiff?"

"Shootin' craps, your honor." "Shootin' craps," repeated the judge, "now look here, I have sent enough of you fellows down on this charge, but I confess I know nothing about the game, if such it might be called. I've listened to the pigeon-English of Chinamen telling of their fan-tan arrangement, and now you, Nat, these, tell me what this game of craps is like?"

"Well, judge, it's just like this. You see you take de bones—" "The what?" "Wy, de bones, yo' honah. Them's the things you throw, and I'll tell you you fellows down on this charge, but I confess I know nothing about the game, if such it might be called. I've listened to the pigeon-English of Chinamen telling of their fan-tan arrangement, and now you, Nat, these, tell me what this game of craps is like?"

"Hold on there," shouted the judge, before the enthusiastic Nathaniel could be headed in his enthusiastic dissertation. "I'm sorry in the least about the game, but from what I have heard you get seven months."

"Thankee, judge," said Nath, as he was led grinning from the bar of justice.

THE DOG'S BARK. Something About Its Meaning Under Various Circumstances. As to barking, there are different sorts of barks, the meaning of each of which is well known. For example, there is the barking that at night is meant to call the master's attention to the fact that some burglar is on the premises. When I hear my Landseer Newfoundland, or my splendid St. Bernard giving warning in this way, I turn on my other side, and do but sleep the sounder, well knowing that the evil-doer would dare to enter my premises, or even my grounds.

Some years ago every house in Twyford was entered by burglars except my own. With limbers they had already opened a lower window of my villa, when they had to try the bark of warning. The burglar had descended through long generations from the days when wild dogs hunted in packs, and it was then as useful in recalling stragglers as the bugle of a regiment.

Next there is the bark of joy, when a dog, for instance, meets again a kind and loving master, who may have been absent for a few days. No mistaking this. It is the bark of pleasure and excitement. There is another sort of bark, which one often hears at the house door, in full chase, after a poor unhappy dog. The wild nature of the hounds finds full play now, and this semi-bark, semi-howl, is music to the so-called sportsman that follow up behind.

Who does not know, and whose heart has not been to hear, the melancholy whine or "yap-yap" of the poor dog that is constantly kept on chain? Greater cruelty than this it is impossible to conceive. A dog so loves free-railway magnate and newspaper proprietor, of Harrisburg; Rodney A. Mercer, of Towanda; Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Ware, of Honoluli; Dr. Esie, ex-state librarian of Pennsylvania; Rev. Dr. Ernest T. Smith, of Harrisburg, who is said to be the handsomest man in the convention, harrington bishop Mr. and Mrs. William Dimmick, Mr. and Mrs. Russell, of Honoluli; Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Wirt, of Bloomsburg; Captain Stetson, of Reading; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Butler, of Mauch Chunk.

DIOCESAN DIVISION IS DECREED

A large committee of ladies assisted in entertaining. Mrs. E. N. Willard directed affairs in the supper room. Mrs. J. Benjamin Dimmick and Mrs. Everett Warren presided at the profusely decorated table. Others assisting were Mrs. L. S. Oakford, Mrs. R. J. Foster, Mrs. A. D. Holland, Mrs. Pennypacker, Mrs. George L. Dickson, Mrs. G. M. Hallstead, Mrs. W. M. Dickson, Mrs. William Marple, Mrs. L. G. La Har, Mrs. George B. Jeremy, Mrs. L. W. Stillwell, Mrs. Charles McMillen, Mrs. C. B. Derman, Mrs. S. Derman, Mrs. Stook, Mrs. Pettigrew, Mrs. E. S. Moffat, Mrs. G. C. Youm, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. C. D. Sanderson, Miss Russell, Mrs. T. Hayes, Mrs. P. F. Price, Miss Derman.

Among the gentlemen who assisted as members of the reception committee were A. D. Holland, W. M. Marple, C. D. Sanderson, S. Derman, Everett Warren, R. J. Foster, F. L. Brown, F. P. Price, Samuel Hines and H. W. Kingsbury.

OTHER EVENTS. Mrs. Everett Warren gave a beautiful public school yesterday and special permission was given him to give three talks to the pupils of the high school and other grades in No. 1 building this afternoon. The subject for the talks will be "Physical Culture." Mr. Burrill is a specialist on this subject, having given lectures to a large number of scholars in many states of the Union.

A short address was delivered yesterday to the scholars in which ventriloquism was explained and many amusing illustrations given which were pleasing to the scholars.

W. C. T. U. MEETING. The third meeting of the month of the Women's Christian Temperance union will be held tomorrow afternoon. The ladies are working with interest along this new line of work for the borough and the committee on flowers and visiting have brightened many dull sick rooms.

HE INSTRUCTED THE JUDGE. Who Was So Well Pleased That He Gave Him Seven Months. From the Washington Post. "Nathaniel Patrick Henry Schofield Bey" called the police court clerk in stentorian tones, and a hearty laugh was heard from the lawyers, bailiffs and general hangers-on around the room.

A very black negro of about forty stepped to the bar with the remark, "Yes, sah, dat's my cognomen title." "Well, Nat, what have you got to say about this charge of—of what's the name of that thing, anyhow, Mr. Bailiff?"

"Shootin' craps, your honor." "Shootin' craps," repeated the judge, "now look here, I have sent enough of you fellows down on this charge, but I confess I know nothing about the game, if such it might be called. I've listened to the pigeon-English of Chinamen telling of their fan-tan arrangement, and now you, Nat, these, tell me what this game of craps is like?"

"Well, judge, it's just like this. You see you take de bones—" "The what?" "Wy, de bones, yo' honah. Them's the things you throw, and I'll tell you you fellows down on this charge, but I confess I know nothing about the game, if such it might be called. I've listened to the pigeon-English of Chinamen telling of their fan-tan arrangement, and now you, Nat, these, tell me what this game of craps is like?"

"Hold on there," shouted the judge, before the enthusiastic Nathaniel could be headed in his enthusiastic dissertation. "I'm sorry in the least about the game, but from what I have heard you get seven months."

"Thankee, judge," said Nath, as he was led grinning from the bar of justice.

THE DOG'S BARK. Something About Its Meaning Under Various Circumstances. As to barking, there are different sorts of barks, the meaning of each of which is well known. For example, there is the barking that at night is meant to call the master's attention to the fact that some burglar is on the premises. When I hear my Landseer Newfoundland, or my splendid St. Bernard giving warning in this way, I turn on my other side, and do but sleep the sounder, well knowing that the evil-doer would dare to enter my premises, or even my grounds.

Some years ago every house in Twyford was entered by burglars except my own. With limbers they had already opened a lower window of my villa, when they had to try the bark of warning. The burglar had descended through long generations from the days when wild dogs hunted in packs, and it was then as useful in recalling stragglers as the bugle of a regiment.

Next there is the bark of joy, when a dog, for instance, meets again a kind and loving master, who may have been absent for a few days. No mistaking this. It is the bark of pleasure and excitement. There is another sort of bark, which one often hears at the house door, in full chase, after a poor unhappy dog. The wild nature of the hounds finds full play now, and this semi-bark, semi-howl, is music to the so-called sportsman that follow up behind.

Who does not know, and whose heart has not been to hear, the melancholy whine or "yap-yap" of the poor dog that is constantly kept on chain? Greater cruelty than this it is impossible to conceive. A dog so loves free-

SYRUP OF FIGS. ACTS GENTLY ON KIDNEYS, LIVER AND BOWELS. CLEANSSES THE SYSTEM EFFECTUALLY; DISPELS COLDS, HEADACHES & FEVERS; OVERCOMES HABITUAL CONSTIPATION PERMANENTLY TO GET ITS BENEFICIAL EFFECTS. BUY THE GENUINE—MAN'D BY CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. LOUISVILLE, SAN FRANCISCO, NEW YORK. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS. PRICE 50c PER BOTTLE.

AMUSEMENTS. LYCEUM THEATRE. BURUNDON & REIS, LESSEES. H. R. LONG, Manager. Friday Evening, May 18. CHARLES FROHMAN PRESENTS Miss Annie Russell MISS HOBBS. In a New Comedy, in Four Acts Entitled MISS HOBBS. By Jerome K. Jerome. Prices—$1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c.

SATURDAY MATINEE, May 19. "Liiputians In Fairyland" Or "CRUISE OF THE POLAR STAR." Controlled by Fred H. Decker & Co., New York. A juvenile fairy opera in three acts of gorgeous scenic splendor. Grand production by home talent. Act I.—Deck of steam yacht; brilliant costumes. Act II.—Sulimarian scene, showing curious shells, etc., and diver in combat with huge shark. Act III.—Tremendous cave, which at the arrival of a fierce dragon, is transformed to Aurora's sparkling fairy garden.