The Trigity guild's rummage sale at the old armory is turning out to be a much greater success than was anticipated. Already the receipts have reached hearly $200. In rummaging, the housewives of the city have found a great many discarded but useful articles which are being placed on sale at nominal prices. As the articles are donated the proceeds are all profit.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Interesting Session of the School Board-Destruction by Fire of a Barn-Sad Mine Accident.

The school directors held a special neeting Tuesday evening to take action on the exoneration list. A number of taxpayers were exonerated from personal taxes, but when the list of widows was presented the question was raised as to the legality of exonerating. A decision recently given in Scranton was read, wherein it was decided school boards had not the power to exonerate from real estate. The question was discussed fully and the board appeared to be in a dilemma. They finally took a charitable, if not a legal, view of the case, and decided to act on the list as has been their custom in past years. A number were exonerated in part, some in full, while the remainder will have to pay. President Pritchard, on account of a possible inability to be present, declined the invitation extended to him to present the diplomas to the graduating class at the commencement exercises and the honor was unanimously conferred upon Mr. Hunter. William Benson, a resident of the Second ward, was present to complain of what he termed the harsh, cruel and brutal conduct of the principal of the schools in disciplining his son, and he further denied the right of the principal or any of the teachers having any jurisdiction over pupils after they had reached the outside of the school building, the offense the boy was whipped for having, he claimed, been committed outside the building. The principal, who was present, was asked by the board to give his version of the affair, which he did and which put such a different board decided the boy deserved what he received, and, furthermore, the secabout the teachers' authority over the pupils outside the school building was munds and Pritchard were appointed visiting committee for the present

At half past one o'clock yesterday morning a barn at the rear of Michael Furey's residence, on Main street, was discovered on fire, the discovery having been made by some members of business places and residences along the Artesian Hose company.
