EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

IRA TRIPP HOSE COMPANY QUARTERS WILL BE OPENED.

Ceremonies Incidental to the Event Will Be Held This Evening-Entertainments in St. Mark's Church, Mears' Hall, Hampton Street Parsonage and a Concert by Bauer's Band-Prize Drawing and Social Gatherings-Thomas Kennedy's Death in Buffalo-Other Notes and

The new quarters of the Ira Tripp Hose company in Tripp park will be formally opened this evening with appropriate exercises. The company is one of the recent additions to the city fire department, and its members reside in that populous section of the city. Mayor Meir, members of select and common council and other city officials have been invited to attend and participate in the ceremonies.

The building is a two-story framstructure, suitable for the company's requirements. The first floor will be used for the hose wagon and horses, the front part being partitioned for the former, and in the rear four stalls have been erected for the horses. The second floor will be used for meeting and social purposes. In the front part a parlor has been located and in the rear there is a stage with dressing rooms on either side.

The entertainment will consist of remarks by the chairman, R. E. Fenton; riano zolo, Miss Kate Reardon; vocal soie, William Lynett; address, A. J. Colborn; selection, Village Hell quartette: instrumental duet. Kelly and Drury; recitation, Miss Mary Phillips; vocal duct. Degnal and Shaughnessy. whistling sole, Charles Graham; vocat solo, John Shaughnessy; recitation, August Phillips, and other selections.

The social will be in charge of the Ladles' auxiliary, the members of which will furnish refreshments. small admission fee will be charged to help defray the expenses and dancing will follow, with music by Miss Rear-

OF A SOCIAL NATURE.

A party of young people were entertained at the home of Elmer Widenor Wednesday evening in honor of the host's birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Peete and son, Misses Annie Fentz, Eva Fredenburg, Mattie Storm, Gertrude Peete. Emma Fentz, Cora Blaiser, Henry Lewert, Frank Kelly, Elmer Widenor, William Heuch, Edwin Bruener and

The choir of the First Baptist church visited the Hyde Park mine recently, guided by P. K. Smith, and enjoyed Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success. It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest.

CAREFUL. When the druggist offers you a substitute for

BE

Dr. James' Headache Powders

refuse it. Demand Dr. James' if you want your headache cured.

Dr. James' Headache Powders are perfectly safe and reliable.

At all Drug Stores 4 doses 10 cents.

Cure Where Others Fail.

the experience immensely. They re turned to Dr. Beddoe's house for refreshments. In the party were Dr. and Mrs. B. G. Beddoe, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas James, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penny, Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Senderling, Mr. and Mrs. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Banning, Misses Ruth Beddoe, Bessie Daniels, Minnie Carpenter, Edith Williams, Anna Dagger, J. G. Bailey and W. A. Matthews.

BAUER'S BAND CONCERT.

Several thousand persons were attracted to Main avenue last evening by Bauer's band, which gave an open air concert from the balcony of Fairchild's hotel, advertising the Elks' car-The several numbers were nival. played in an artistic manner and were liberally applauded.

The programme was as follows: Forever," Scutton; "Bartered Thomas Miles: "Cavalry Charge," Rollinson; "On the Levee," Hall; "The Star Spangled Banner." The members of the band were en- Evans. tertained by the new proprietors of Fairchild's and Stetter's hotel after the concert. At the latter place several popular airs were rendered. ENTERTAINMENT AT ST. MARK'S. The Luther league of St. Mark's church gave a pleasing concert last evening in the new edifice on Washburn street, and the affair was patronized by a large assemblage. Rev. A. L. Ramer presided and all of the numbers on the programme were rendered in a pleasing manner. The vocal selections were contributed by Blanche Grogan, Nellie Markwick, Nettie and Clara Jones, Hazei Smeed and Rhoda Clark. Mrs. William Moser and Mrs. Kate Cross played two piano duets, and recitations were given by Geraldine Phillips, Edna La Rue, Elizabeth Waring and Gus Phillips.

A dialogue was interpreted by Misses Edith Lloyd, Budella Evans, Emma Lewis, Viola Evans, John Lewis and FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS. Charles Hawley. Instrumental solos in Correct Summer Underwear. Tastes will differ as to make, materials and styles, but that won't interfere with your chances of being suited, for every good standard make is here at your service, while many admirable specialties not to be found elsewhere add materially to the value of our present great display, which is not equalled anywhere in this state, outside of Philadelphia.

Ladies, We're Showing the Right Thing, at the Right Time

Among the Leading Varieties Are

The Newest Thing

For Summer wear — Ladies' Ribbed Knee Pants, hand made goods, Torchon lace trim. Easy, cool and perfect fitting. ous prices.

Black Lisle Tights

Knee or Ankle lengths, vests to match with long or short sleeves.

In all colors and cuts. Beautifully trimmed and finished. Prices to suit.

Ladies's Fancy Vests

Silk Yests That Fit

In Silk and Real Lisle thread, long sleeves, short sleeves, no aleeves, as you care to have them, and all shades.

Children's Underwear

Gauze, Mercerized, Balbriggan

Lisle Union Suits

In White or Ecru. These are more popular this year than ever, and shapes have been vastly im-

Gauze Wool Vests

The safest and most comfortable underwear for ladies who per-spire in hot weather. White and Natural Greys only.

Fine Cotton Underwear

Unlimited assortment in qualities, weights and styles. Special values this week.

Mercerized Underwear

It's Silk in everything but fact, appearance, colors, finish, etc., are the same as silk, while the or Light Wools. All sizes and cost is about one-fourth that of

Special Show Days for Summer Underwear Saturday and All Next Week

Globe Warehouse

were played by William Morton, Cora Vetter and Margaret Thomas. A social was held after the entertainment.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIAL Hundreds of young people patronized the entertainment and social given by the West Side Social club in Mears' hall last evening. Dr. R. E. Penton acted as chairman, and the opening number was a piano solo by Mrs. Agnes Malott, which was executed in her usual clever style.

The Village Bell quartette sang "Take Me Back to My Dear Old Southern Home," "Farmyard Medley" and "The Lighthouse," and were com-pelled to respond to several encores, Solos were rendered by Miss Jennia Gleason, Benjamin Morgan, John H. Jones, Caleb Evans, Thomas Davis and Harry Zintell.

Frank Jones danced a clog and Harry Birch gave a buck and wing dance. A was enjoyed afterward, for which Mrs. Malott played all the popular accompaniments on the plano.

PRIZE DRAWING.

The prize drawing for the benefit of William A. Davis, of Bellevue, was conducted in D. D. Evans' hall, on South Main avenue last evening, which resulted as follows:

No. 1, Mrs. James D. Reese, 636; No. Vivian Williams, 582; No. 3, Gladys Davies, 907; No. 4, William Richards. 487; No. 5, Fred Beacham, 404; No. 6, Thomas H. Jones, 672; No. 7, John T. Halloran, 323; No. 8, Dewi Mosely, 609; No. 9, Richard Bowen, 1061; No. 19, Gwen Morgan, 106; No. 11. Seth Jones, 29; No. 12, Benjamin T. Evans, 507. Ticket-holders with the stubs of the above numbers can secure their prizes by calling on President William T Davies, 26 Snyder avenue.

A PARSONAGE SOCIAL.

The parsonage of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church crowded last evening with people who gathered to enjoy the entertainment rovided by Mrs. Benninger and Mrs Boyce and partake of the cream and cake served by the young ladies.

During the evening instrumental se ctions were rendered by Misses Nelle House, Grace Hinman, Lou Evans, Mrs. B. Stone and George Stephens. Bride," Roloski; medley overture, "The Misses Verna Roderick, Bessie Diehl Hummer," Dewitt; cornet solo, "Co- and Anna Bennett recited and vocal numbers were contributed by Mrs. J. Warren, Miss Anna Leister, Mrs. L. Stone, Miss L. Stubblebine and Louis > SUCCESSFUL INITIAL SUPPER. The Ladies' Aid society of the First Saptist church served an excellent super last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Swallow, on Tenth street. The menu was palatable and provided in abundance.

> The proceeds of the supper will be evoted to the building fund of the new edifice, and already this society has contributed a large amount towards the expense incurred on the new structure.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. Miss Mabel Yost, of Jackson street, ntertained the Christian Endeavor society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church at her home last even-

The remains of Mrs. John Duggan, who died at her home on South Filmore avenue, were laid at rest in the Cathedral cemetery yesterday morning. after the celebration of a requiem mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church. All members of the Electric City Wheelmen who intend accompanying the minstrels to Nicholson are requested to meet at the Lwarence band rooms on Wyoming avenue this after noon at 12 o'clock The choir of the Jackson Street Bap- Thomas McCue Run Over by a Troltist church will rehearse church music this evening and all the members of the congregation are invited to join in the singing service

The funeral of Ethel, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Jenkins, will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house, rear of 113 made in the Washburn street cemetery. John O'Boyle and Miss Delia Burke, both residents of Eynon street, were married in Syracuse recently. James and Margaret O'Nelll, cousins of the Mrs. O'Boyle have returned here to

George Pfeiffer, shoemaker for Evans & Powell, was called to Reading yesterday by telegram, owing to an accident which befel his son George. The latter fell from his bicycle and fractured his collarbone. His injuries are

Mrs. Martin King, of Merrifield avenue, received a telegram yesterday tating that her son-in-law, Thomas Kennedy, who went to Buffalo, N. Y., recently, died suddenly in a hospital there. Deceased was formerly employed in the Archbald mines, and is survived by two children. The remains will be brought here for interment.

The Red Cross Social club will hold lawn social at the residence of Edward Woolbaugh, corner of Lafayette street and Rebecca avenue, Wednesday evening, May 23.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Following is the programme of the Kalos-Plegan, which will be given at the Auditorium tonight;

PART FIRST.

Pizzicatti Chorus. The Gypsy Vestal Virgins. PART SECOND.

Charge of the Light Brigade. Vivlandiers. Minute Men.

Old GloryMiss Geraldine The Flag That Has Never Kown Defeat. The Star Spangled Banner. Grand Finale, Tableaux and Chorus. May Day Fets, under the direction of Miss Geraldine Phillips.

Tableaux, under the efficient direction of Miss Margaret Gibbs. Elecutionists, Misses Bessie Slote and Geraldin

Soloist, Master Harold Miller Color Bearer, Miss Millie Hoffman, Director, Licutenant David W. Davies, Musical Director, Miss Clara Sanders The Home Missionary society, of the

meet this afternoon with Mrs. Charles Rev. J. R. Reese, pastor of the Puritan Congregational church, will speak

Providence Presbyterian church, will

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK? Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about ¼ as much. All grocers sell it. I.c. and 25c.

Strengthens System Body Brain and Nerves.

No other preparation has ever received so man Gives Appetite. Produces Refreshing Sleep,

A Safeguard Against Mental

Diseases. For overworked men, delicate women, siekly children this healthful, invigorating and stimu-lating tonic has no equal. Dose-A small wine-glass full three times

Sold by all druggists. No other preparation has ever received so many voluntary testimonials from eminent peo-ple as the world-famous Mariani Wine. on the subject "Intemperance," at the meeting of the Welcome Temperance society this evening at 7.30 o'clock. The above society holds its meetings at the First Welsh Baptist church on West Market street. Thomas Neary, of Lowell, Mass., but formerly of this place, is visiting his parents on Mary street. Thomas Sullivan, of Wayne avenue, was calling on friends in Pittston yes-Miss Margaret Golden, of Leggetts street, is slightly indisposed. The alarm of fire sent in from box o'clock was caused by a blaze in the old Flynn property on West Market street, now owned by the Ontario and building is unoccupied and it is generally supposed the fire was started by a crowd of rowdles who make the building their headquarters each evening. The Cumberland, Liberty, Niag-McDavitt, Helen Otth; Messrs, Wal- fifth places, ter Otth, Lawrence Otth, Charles Harold Otth. Mrs. Otth was assisted the third. by Miss Lillian Otth and Miss Carrie Bodonski in entertaining.

Members of Shield of Honor lodge are requested to meet in Thomas' hall Saturday evening.

The Auditorium was crowded last evening by young people who enjoyed the social and dance under the auspices of the Keystone Literary and Dramatic club. An elegant repast was served last evening by the ladies of the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church to a large number of people. The funeral of Mrs. P. F. Gordon will avenue. be held this morning at 10 o'clock. A solemn high mass of requiem will be elebrated in the Holy Rosary church DUNMORE DOINGS.

ley Car on Butler Street and Killed-Personal Notes.

About 8 o'clock Wednesday evening little Thomas McCue, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCue, of Butler street, was South Bromley avenue. Burial will be struck and almost instantly killed by a car on the No. 6 branch of the Scranton Railway company. The little fellow, who was seven years of age, was playing on the street at the corner of Butler and Burke streets, when a car, bride, were the attendants. Mr. and in charge of Motorman Westbrook, came bowling along.

In his play the boy suddenly darted onto the track, and was struck by the car. He was unconscious when picked up and died before medical aid arrived. Coroner Roberts examined the body yesterday and empaneled a jury.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES

A select party of young people from this borough and Scranton were pleasantly entertained by Stewart Bishop, at his home on Brook street, last even ing. After social chat and party diversions, light refreshments were served. Later in the evening the guests bid adieu to their host, with many pleasing thoughts of their evening's pleasure. Those entertained were the Misses Kennedy, of Adams avenue, Scranton; Miss Marie E. Van Cleft, of 210 South Blakely street, and Miss Ray E. Yost, of Blakely street; Messrs. Satterfield, Weirs and Turvey Breese, of Scranton; Harry Harker and Stewart Bishop, of this place.

The banquet of the alumni of the High school will be held on May 2s. A meeting of the members will be held on Monday evening. Little Joseph Dolphin, who had his hip dislocated by an accidental fall on Brook street, is in a most serious condition. A second operation was performed Wednesday. St. Mary's choir is rehearsing special music for the Decoration day celebra-Mrs. Mary Pacce, who on Monday stabbed and seriously wounded Mrs. Sylvester Bolonga, has not yet been apprehended by the borough police authorities. Mrs. Bolonga is still in a dangerous condition. To Niagara Falls and Return via the Lehigh Valley Railroad for $5.00 May 23rd, 1900.

Tickets on sale from stations Phil-lipsburg to Tunkhannock, inclusive, including branches, limited for return passage to May 25th, 1900, and will be honored on any train, except the Black Diamond Express. Consult Lehigh Valley railroad agents for further in-

Knights Templar at Wilkes-Barre.

On account of the forty-seventh annual conclave, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, to be held at Wilkes-Barre, May 21 to 23, the Delaware and Hudson railroad will sell special tickets from all points in Pennsylvania to Wilkes-Barre and return at one way fare for the round trip. Tickets good going May 21 and 22, and good for return on or before May 23.

Smoke The Pocono, 5c. cigar.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

MEMBERS OF MAENNERCHOR VISITED WILKES-BARRE.

Went There to Invite the Members of the German Singing Societies of That City to Participate in Their Concert of May 29-Local Organization to Participate in the Big Saengerfest in Brooklyn, N. Y., on July 6-Personal and Nubs of News.

A committee from the Junger Maennerchor, consisting of Charles Conrad, John Schunk, Alfred Gutnelnz, Otto J. Robinson, C. G. Lewert, William Ziesemer, Alfred Westphal, George Worth, Frederick Phillips, William Smith, Fred Heinz, Adam Frientell and William Budenbach, left last night for Wilkes-Barre to personally extend invitations to the Wilkes-Barre Coucordia and Liedertofel societies to attend the concert which the Junger Maennerchor will give in Music hall on May 29, with a view of raising funds to defray their expenses to the National Saengerfest to be held in Brooklyn, N. Y., on July 6, and in which the Maennerchor will sing under the direction of Professor Schmidt, its leader. The organization has been rehearsing for some time on the selections which it will render at this big meeting of the German singers of the country. With the exception of the trophy donated by Emperor William of Ger-many all the prizes for this Nineteenth National Saengerfest are now in the hands of the United Singers of Brook-No. 86 yesterday morning about 2.30 lyn, under whose direction the Saengerfest will be held. There are fifteen prizes in all. The contest for individual societies Western Railroad company. The are divided into three classes. Those competing in the first class will sing "Huenengraeber," by E. Heuser. The first prize is a grand plane valued at $1,500. The second prize is a silver panel with the relief portrait of Comara and Excelsior Hose companies re- poser Houser in gold in the center. sponded and in a ghort time had the The portrait of Beethoven in a heavy gilt frame is the third prize. The Mr. and Mrs. Edward Otth, of Cus- competitors in the second class have ick avenue, entertained a number of five prizes to try for. A grand plane young people at their home Wednes- valued at $1,200 is the first and a silday evening in honor of their daugh- vert portrait of the composer, Meyerter, Miss Helen Otth, The occasion Albersiebea, whose song "Johannis was the anniversary of her birth. At nacht am Rhein," is to be sung by a seasonable hour refreshments were the contestants, is the second prize served. Those present were: Misses The third prize is a picture of Heine Eleanor Burns, Mame McDavitt, Car- and two silver trophies will be given ie Bodanshi, Tessie O'Mailey, Anna to the societies deserving fourth and "Krenzfahrer's Abendlied." Simon, Will Burns, John Grimes and Rheinberger, and a piece of silver is PERSONAL NOTES.

Michael McGarry and Maurice Duggan returned yesterday from Avoca, where they attended the annual convention of the Scranton Diocesan union.

Philip Maguire, of Irving avenue, is dangerously ill with pneumonia. Rev. A. Lang, of Dunkirk, N. Y., a former paster of St. Paul's German Lutheran church of Beech street, is on a visit to his mother on Cedar

Mrs, Worrel, of Peckville, who was visiting Mrs. John Zang, of Cedar ave-nue, has returned home. in as the result of excessively drinking ice water The funeral will take place this morning at Balce Fuhr and mother, of Slocum street, left Wednesday for New York, from whence they sailed on the steamer St. Paul for Europe. Their destination is Switzerland. Select Councilman John J. Schneider Frederick Miller, Frederick Kirchoff and Alderman Lentes, a committee of arrangements for the annual excursion of the Scranton Saengerrunds, will go to Lake Lodore today to look over the grounds preparatory to their excursion on June 25. NUBS OF NEWS.

General Grant commandery, No. 230 Knights of Malta, will hold its regular weekly business meeting tonight in Hartman's hall, Pittston avenue. Rapid progress is being made by ontractor M. J. Ruddy with the work of laying the foundation walls for the new church of St. John the Evangelist at Pittston avenue and Fig street. The corner stone will be laid on Sunday afternoon, May 27, with impressive ex-

St. Aloysius Young Men's society met last night in Pharmacy hall. Camp No. 430, Patriotic order, Sons of America drum corps, held their weekly practice last night in Freuhan's hall, Cedar avenue. Camp No. 430, Patriotic order, Sons of America, has received an invitation from Camp 242, of the central city, to attend union services in the Calvary Reformed church, Sunday evening May 27.

The new residence of Hugh Kelly, at Cherry street and Irving avenue, is nearing completion. By direction of Councilmen Coyne and Cusick, of the Twentieth ward, a gang of men has been put to work filling up the deep gully in Brook street, between Cedar and Pittston avenues. At a recent meeting of St. Irene's Total Abstinence and Benevolent soclety, the following officers were elect-President, Mrs. E. C. Connell; ed: vice-president, Miss Catherine Jordan corresponding secretary, Miss Winifred Durkin; recording secretary, Miss Alida Hurley: treasurer, Miss Julia Whalen: trustees, Miss Anna McTigue, Miss Alice Gibbons, Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to J. T. Starkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683.

O'Boyle, Miss Nellie McGuinness and

Miss Mary Rafter; sergeant-at-arms,

Miss Anna McCrea.

10c. The Kind that Cure.

Broncho Remedies (27 kinds) are positively the best that medical knowledge and chemists' skill can prepare, and the price of each is 10 cents because that is enough.

They are Specifics-Sure Cures.

Be sure that you get B-R-0-N-C-H-0.

For sale in Scranton by John J. Davis, N. M. Eicke, Samuel L. Foulk, H. E. Griffin, J. L. Jenkins, George W. Jenkins, Carl Lorenz, Lorenz & Koempel, A. W. Musgrave, H. C. Sanderson, C. R. Shryer, Matthews Bros.

MINOOKA.

Martin Diskin, of Main street, will leave this morning for Paterson, N. J., on business for the Simpson Silk Manufacturing company. He will be gone one month Mr. and Mrs. James Hart, of Sayre, Pa., who were visiting friends here the past week, have returned home. Miss Annie Russell Miss Margaret Fanning, of Hyde Park, is the guest of Mrs. Patrick oyce, of Gilmore avenue.

Miss Nellie Loughney, of Main street, who has been visiting friends in Tunkhannock the past week, has returned The cantata which was to be given

May 21, by the children of the parish has been postponed indefinitely. The Scranton Axle works, located in this place, has resumed operations, after an idleness of a few weeks. Mr. Thomas King, of Main street, who has been dangerously ill during the past week, is improving,

OBITUARY.

Peter Lavelle, of 566 Front street, South Scran ton, died yesterday morning after a three weeks' illness of double pleurisy. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick E. Lavelle, and was 10 years of age. He was employed in the South steel mill, and was very well known in the city. Monday he was operated upon and yesterday un-derwent another operation. He died shortly after it. The pleurisy is supposed to have been in directely caused by injuries received while play-ing foot ball last year. He was a young man of exemplary character, possessed of the most manly traits. His funeral will be held tomorow morning at 9 o'clock, with services at St Peter's cathedral and interment in the Cathedra

The body of the late David Donahue was brought to the city from Sparrow Point, Mary-land, and taken to the home of his father, Daniel Donahue, of 521 Orchard street. He was 24 years of age and worked in a Sparrow Point mill. He was found unconscious in his bed Sur day morning, May 13, and died soon after. Cramps were the cause of his death, which set clock, with services at St. Peter's cathedral and interment in the Cathedral cemetery

John Millane, one of the pioneer residents Hallstead, and for many years in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western com pany, died Wednesday, leaving to mourn him a wife, one son, Thomas Millane, and one daugh-ter. Mrs. Frank J. Grattan. He was a brother of Michael Millane, of Susquehanna, and an cle of Rev. Miles Millane, of Dunmore. uneral will take place this morning at 9 o'coock from St. Lawrence's church, Great Bend

E. D. Bovard, of 315 North Blakely street, Dun more, died at 9.40 o'clock last night. Decease was 25 years of age. Superintendent E. D. Be vard and wife and one brother, Ernest L., vive. The funeral arrangements will be nounced later.

A church society in Brooklyn discussed at recent meeting the question: "Which is mo demoralizing, fashion or tobacco?"

Harry W. Boyard, eldest son of Superintenden

Or "CRUISE OF THE POLAR STAR."

AMUSEMENTS.

BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessess. H. R. LONG, Manager,

Friday Evening, May 18.

YCEUM THEATRE

Prices-$1.50, $1.00, 75c., 50c., 25c.

SATURDAY MATINEE. May 19.

Or "CRUISE OF THE POLAR STAR."

Controlled by Fred. H. Decker & Co., New York. A juvenile fairy opera in three acts! Geogeous special scenery. Gigantic production by home talent. Act. I.—Deck of steam yield; brilliant celers. Act II.—Bubmarine scene, showing curious shells, etc., and diver in convast with huge shark. Act III.—Dreary Cave, which at the arrival of a fierce dragon, is transformed to Aurora's sparkling fairy grotto.

Bright catchy music; calcium lights with changing colors; calchum lights with changing colors; clabotate costumes. Crowded houses at N. Y. City, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, etc. 200 Young People in the Cast.

Prices—Saturday night, 15, 25, 35 and 30 cents.

Saturday matines, 15 and 25 cents.

Auspices Hardenbergh School of Music and Art. Sale for reserved scats opens at box office 9 a. m. Wednesday, May 16. ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BURGUNDER & REIS, Lesses. H. R , LONG, Manager. All this Week. Last Attraction of

THE KEYSTONE DRAMATIC CO. Two Shows in One-Drama and Vaudeville. Presenting a Repertoire

Daily Dime Matinees at 2.15 p. m. Evening Prices-10c, 20c, 30.

of Recognized Melodramatic Suc-

BUY THE CENUINE SYRUP OF FIGS

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. IF NOTE THE NAME.

ELKS' Carnival

Day and Night.

May 21 to 26 Inclusive.

Rain or Shine.

A gigantic confederation of the latest and greatest novelties of the world, including

Bostock's Trained Animals

Six Days and Six Nights. Admission to the Midway, 10 cts.