DEATH OF JOSEPH ISGAR, SR.

Joseph Isgar, gr., of Salem avenue, died yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. He had suffered for several months with a chronic bladder trouble in the form of darnkess. and had been confined to his bed five weeks. Deceased was born in London last January. In '51 he came to this day evening, was a decided success. country and settled on a farm in Wayne county. A few years later he moved to this city, where he resided continuously to the time of his death. For many years he was barn boss for the Delaware and Hudson company and subsequently he held the position of engineer at the Van Bergen foundry. For the past few years he has been sexton of the Methodist church. Mr. Isgar was a man of charming Christian character. He identified himself with the Methodist church soon after he came here and has been one of its most active members.

He is survived by a wife, three daughters, Mrs. Susan Hearn, of Toledo, O.; Mrs. George Kelly and Mrs. Ellen Colwell, of this city; three sons. Albert E, Henry and William, of this city.

The funeral will be at the house at three o'clock Sunday afternoon. Revs. A. F. Chaffee and C. E. Lee will officlate. Interment will be made in Maplewood cemetery.

CHAPLAIN CHIDWICK TONIGHT.

Elaborate preparation has been made for the reception of Chaplain Chidwick, of Maine fame, who will lecture in the opera house tonight for the benefit of the St. Rose church improvement fund on "Our Late War with Spain-Its Causes and Results." The procession will be made up of three bands, Catholic societies of the city and late war veterans. Following is the line of March: From city station, Sixth avenue, to Main street, to Lincoln avenue, to Church street, to Seventh avenue, to Main street, to Eighth avenue and countermarch up Main to Sixth avenue, to St. Rose parochial residence.

PRICEBURG.

A large meeting of prominent citizens of the a large meeting of prominent citizets of the upper end of the borough convened at Kiefer's hall on Friday evening, May 11, for the purpose of organizing a hose company, and enrolled about forty members. A temporary organization was effected. The sense of the meeting was strongly in favor of effecting a permanent or ganization. The temporary efficers were as fol lows: Professor M. J. Lloyd, president; Fred Kiefer, secretary. Committees: On cart, John Aitken. Michael Donneily, John Shirnski; on hose, John O'Horo, Reese Davies, Thomas Lewis; on location, William Snyder, William McLaughlin, Thomas Sullivan. The object of this hose npany is to divide the territory, which is too great for the Eagle company to cover when fires occur at this end of the borough. The citi zens in general and the council in particular, should give their carnest support to this muchneeded organization. The next meeting will be held this evening at Kicfer's hall at 7.30 o'clock, for permanent organization. All property own-ers and citizens who have the public welfare

BASE BALL CHAT.

Kervin and Toft will probably be this after noon's battery. Scranton played its poorest fielding game of the season yesterday.

Burnham's new pitching acquisition, Clarke, did not make a startlingly worderful debut yeserday The Reading papers say that Scranton's outfield without question the fastest in the Atlantic league. Pitcher Milligan has not rounded into hts twirling form yet, but is showing up surprisingly strong with the stick. "Rube" Waddell, the Pittsburg twirler, con-tines pitching in hard luck. He only gave Philadelphia six hits yesterday, and yet was defeated.

Knoll was in evidence with the bat yesterday and made his first hits since he has joined th team. In addition to two singles and a double
