INSPECTED NEW DAM.

Col. Watres Entertained Wilkes-Barreans at Spring Brook.

Colonel L. A. Watres and a party of Scrantonians and Wilkes-Barreans yesterday morning visited and inspected the new reservoir at Spring Brook which is being built by the Consolidated Water Company. Among the Wilkes-Barreans in the party were nearly all the members of the select and common councils, who together with Mayor Nichols were invited to inspect the works. The mayor was unable to attend and sent his regrets.

The Scrantonians in the party left here at 9:35 yesterday morning and were met at Moosic by the Wilkes-Barreans. Besides Colonel Watres there were Granton, W. G. Parke, W. J. Northrup and A. H. Christy, and in the Wilkes-Barre party, besides the members of councils, were John Welles, Hollenback, Hon. Morgan B. Williams, George R. Bedford, A. H. McClintock, Dr. Davis, the city chemist; Attorney W. S. McLane, and Cyrus Wren, of Plymouth. Major Jacob Roberts, an ex-member of the legislature, was one of the councilmen present.

The company looked over the wall built and the quarry, and expressed themselves as very well pleased with the work done. They partook of lunch at noon, and left on the 2.50 train.

On Account of the Knights Templar Parade at Wilkes-Barre to be held on May 22, the Central Railroad of New Jersey will sell excursion tickets from Scranton to Wilkes-Barre and return for all trains, on May 21 and 22, good to return until May 23 inclusive, at fare of 60 cents.

ELKS PARADE TONIGHT.

Concerts by Bauer's Band—Fifty Booths at the Fair Rented.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the concert by Bauer's band on Pittston avenue last evening was listened to by thousands of persons. The Elks will parade this evening and Bauer will give another concert opposite Elks' headquarters on Penn. avenue.

Fifty of the booths at the fair have been rented by merchants for the exhibition of their goods.

The Bostock show has been exhibiting this week in Richmond, Va. The Dispatch of that city speaking of the carnival of the Elks and Mr. Bostock says: "The combination Bostock shows now upon road street and contiguous thoroughfares is unique. Clean and wholesome in tone, without exception, they seem to introduce talented people of all nations, and to afford a clear insight into the manners and customs of these peoples.

The menageries are complete, and well stocked, and the animals are all well kept and remarkably well trained.

YOUNG PEOPLE BANQUET

Celebration of the Fourteenth Anniversary of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Second Presbyterian Church.

In the parlors of the Second Presbyterian church last evening the fourteenth anniversary of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was celebrated. The society of this church is a model one and the gathering of the members at this banquet was a very happy event.

The Sabbath school orchestra under the direction of William Stanton, who is chairman of the music committee of the society, gave some beautiful numbers. The members, eighty of whom were present, were then seated at the tables and after singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," the blessing was asked by assistant pastor, Rev. James Hughes. Under the direction of Raymond C. Sanderson, chairman of the social committee, a delightful menu was served, consisting of bread, chicken croquettes, creamed asparagus, salad, ices and coffee.

J. M. Chance, president of the society, welcomed the members and introduced the toastmaster for the evening, William J. Torrey. The following toasts were proposed and responded to in the following order: "Absent Members," H. W. Rowley; "Junior Society," Horace Chandler; "Mission Work of Our Sister Churches in the City," Miss Decker; "Our Watchword for the New Year," the pastor, Dr. Robinson; "The Boys' Club," Ernest Loney; "The Girls' Club," Myrtle Thomas; "Our Session," James H. Torrey.

Thomas Archibald, of the First church, was present and brought greetings from that church. Miss Salmon and Mr. Ralph Williams sang songs and Miss Clara Brewster recited. Miss Grace Sanderson read the annual report of the society.

The decorations under the direction of Miss Decker, chairman of the flower committee, were beautiful. After a most delightful evening the exercises were brought to a close with prayer by Dr. Robinson.

KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN.

You'll see that you seldom or never get something for nothing. In the long run it pays to buy only those things which have an established reputation and are sold at a fair price.

There are occasions, however, when one is able to buy a high grade article at a ridiculously low price, as is being demonstrated in the remarkable bargains in pianos offered by the Finn Music House. For example, a handsome Hallett & Davis walnut upright, best largest and most expensive style at $250.00, or a Royal upright rosewood finish, double veneered case, hardwood back, 7-1/2 octaves, three stringed three pedals repeating action, full metal ball at $125.00. This stock contains twelve different makes; each and every piano guaranteed by the makers for five or some for eight years.

The motive is clear. Having adopted a fixed policy, and settled upon a representative line it became necessary that this stock should be closed out to make room for the regular line of pianos. Affording a glorious opportunity to win popularity by offering pianos at prices utterly impracticable if it were not intended to continue the sale of these instruments.

Churches, lodges, societies, schools, etc., will find this a golden opportunity to make a capital investment in pianos. It is necessary to see these instruments to appreciate the disparagement between price and value.

Payments, or cash. It's no difference to us. Costs a little more on payments, but you have the use of piano and money. It's worth more. Examine and see for yourself.

END OF THE PRESENT THEATRICAL SEASON

IT WAS SATISFACTORY IN EVERY RESPECT.

At the Lyceum Some of the Best Attractions on the Stage Were Presented—A Better Show of Appreciation of the Good Things Offered Would Have a Beneficial Effect. Big Crowds at the Academy—Articulations Seen at the Lyceum During the Season.

With the presentation of "Miss Hobbs" at the Lyceum last night the regular season at that house ended. The Academy of Music will close its doors after tonight's performance. Both houses have had very successful seasons, and did the largest business in their histories.

The Academy of Music season has been especially satisfactory, and it is estimated that no city in the country of the size of Scranton had a greater number of persons attending popular theatrical entertainments.

At the Lyceum some of the best attractions known to the theatrical world were presented. These did not always draw as large an audience as their merits entitled them to, but on the whole the lessees of the Lyceum are congratulating themselves on the success of the season.

Scrantonians often fail to give superior theatrical attractions the patronage that should be awarded them, and this is regrettable, because it militates against securing the best the stage affords. The theatrical business, like every other business that succeeds, is founded on strict business laws, and when a show that costs its managers a lot of money to produce draws a house that sometimes fails to do more than meet expenses here it is not to be wondered that they would hesitate to send their ventures this way again. A nicer discrimination in the way of patronizing the best attractions will do much to improve Scranton's standing in the theatrical world. The theatrical business is a better class attraction at a result.

MANAGER LONG'S SUCCESS.

Manager Harvey Long, who had both houses under his control during the season, was popular with the patrons of the theaters and altogether is to be congratulated on the results he achieved. The attractions at the Lyceum during the season were:

REV. DR. TAYLOR NOT COMING.

Will Not Be Able to Lecture at Green Ridge Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Dr. I. J. Lansing received a telegram last night from the wife of Rev. J. Hudson Taylor, of Boston, announcing that her husband's physician had forbidden him to speak at present, and that accordingly he would be unable to give his proposed address on Chinese missions in the Presbyterian church tomorrow. He will come here some time in the near future, however.

The congregations of the First and Second Presbyterian churches were to have united with the Green Ridge congregation in attending these lectures. The usual services will accordingly be conducted in these three churches.

SHOT IN SELF DEFENSE.

Verdict in Case of Constable Michael J. Walsh, of Forest City, Who Killed John McDermott.

Richard Beer, justice of the peace of Vandling borough, conducted an inquest recently in the case of Michael J. Walsh, constable of Forest City, who shot and killed John McDermott, of Vandling. On the night of May 9, Walsh was engaged in executing a warrant for McDermott's arrest when the latter assaulted him with a razor, inflicting slight injuries.

The constable shot his assailant in self defense, after which he surrendered himself and gave up his revolver, and also the razor that he took from his prisoner's hands after McDermott fell. Justice Beer issued a warrant for Walsh's arrest and he was committed to the county jail. Later he was admitted to bail by Judge Kelly in the sum of $500.

The jury was empaneled by Justice Beer the night of the killing, and after viewing the remains, adjourned to meet later. Three witnesses were examined at the hearing, they being Morris Lavin, John Kilpatrick and John Sullivan. Their testimony corroborated the story published in The Tribune the day after the shooting, and the jury rendered the following verdict:

"That John McDermott died from the effect of a bullet wound, said bullet being fired by Constable Michael J. Walsh, of Forest City, between the hours of 8 and 9 p. m. on the 9th day of May, 1900, in the borough of Vandling, Lackawanna county, Pa.

"We also find from the evidence that the said Michael J. Walsh was acting in self defense when he fired the bullet that caused the death of said John McDermott. Signed, James C. Sullivan, foreman; James P. Madigan, Robert Burt, James P. Madden, Charles Vinney, David Parry."

MINE FIRE EXTINGUISHED.

Flames Not Subdued Till 7 O'Clock Yesterday Morning.

The fire at the Richmond, No. 2 colliery of the Elk Hill Coal company, at Capouse, was extinguished yesterday morning after a fifteen hour fight.

Before the flames could be successfully attacked it was necessary to remove a large part of the debris of the roof of the fourth level morning. This gave the flames a big start and made the fight a difficult one.

None of the five men burned in the explosions of Thursday developed any serious symptoms, and all will be about it, is expected, in a few weeks at the longest.

MAY BE JOHN NEALIS.

Soldier Who Died in Cuba Probably a Brother of P. J. Nealis.

P. J. Nealis, of Ninth street, ex-chairman of common council, is pretty thoroughly convinced that the John Nealis, who died in Cuba, was his brother. Postmaster Rippe recently received a letter, is his brother John, who enlisted last summer in the army.

The letter received by the postmaster states that the man died in Neutamis, Cuba, and Mr. Nealis says he is sure his brother is located in this place after his discharge from the service. He will communicate with the man who sent the letter asking for further details.

TRIED TO JUMP FROM THE BRIDGE

A. G. BROADBENT WAS CRAZED BY DRINK.

He Was Prevented from Jumping from the Linden Street Bridge by Persons Who Saw Him and Later Was Taken in Charge by the Police on Wyoming Avenue Where He Was Screaming and Yelling and Acting in an Insane Manner.

A. G. Broadbent, a young man about twenty-eight years of age, a painter by trade, living in the 600 block of North Washington avenue, was taken to the central police station last night, after an attempt at suicide, suffering from a very bad case of delirium tremens. They were the result of his having looked upon the wine when it was red, and various other intoxicants of different hues, several times too often, during the day.

Early last evening he tried to commit suicide by springing from the Linden street bridge.

It was about 7 o'clock, and he was just about to take the fatal leap when he was seen and stopped by passersby. Police headquarters was notified, and a patrolman went to take him in charge. When the latter arrived on the scene, however, Broadbent had managed to escape from the citizens who had undertaken to hold him, and had disappeared. A thorough search was made for him, but nothing further was seen or heard until about 10 o'clock, when a message was received at the central police station.

Charles Schadt and some other passersby had found him on Wyoming avenue, shouting at the top of his voice and in an insane manner. They stopped him, and on phoning to headquarters, Patrolman Gechelde was sent for him. He took him to the central station, and there Broadbent passed the night.

He continued screaming and yelling all through the night and early morning, making frantic efforts to break the bars of the cell and get out.

MATRICULATES MAY JOIN.

Important Action by High School Executive Committee.

Arrangements for the nineteenth annual banquet of the Scranton High School Alumni association were gotten under way yesterday at a meeting of the executive committee in the office of President John M. Harris, in the Conell building. Besides Mr. Harris, there were present John J. Murphy, Charles E. Daniels, Miss Josephine Lees, Miss Lillian Simpson, Miss Julia John Sullivan, Miss Jane Fellows and Miss Isabel Powell.

Mr. Murphy was appointed a committee on hall; Mr. Daniels was delegated to attend to the matter of caterer, and Misses Pettigrew, Simpson, Powell and Fellows were charged with the task of preparing a list of all who are eligible to membership, with a view of sending them circulars, tending to stir up a more active interest in the association. President Harris was instructed to arrange with Principal Grant for an address to this year's graduating class on the aims and scope of the association.

The question of eligibility to membership to High school pupils other than graduates was discussed and the sense of the meeting was that all who have ever attended the school in any of the four upper classes should be entitled to join the association, and therefore nothing in the constitution to forbid it. The committee resolved that announcement should be made that matriculates as well as graduates would be received as members.

The next meeting will be held at the same place next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

SCHULIZ COURT SEWER.

Contractor Certifies Contract for Its Construction.

Contractor Howell yesterday afternoon certified the contract for the construction of the Schuliz court sewer system, upon Contractor John J. Fahy filing a judgment bond in the sum of $800, that being the amount of the city's share. Mr. Fahy intends to begin work at once as he has all the necessary material on hand.

The sewer system will extend over portions of the following streets: Schuliz court, Harrison avenue, Ridge Row, Wheeler avenue, Sherwood court, Colfax avenue and Okell court. The contract specifies that the work must be done in three months time and that if it is not, the contractor is to forfeit $5 a day for every day over that. Mr. Fahy's bid was the lowest offered, being $2.18 per lineal foot.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Recognizing the fact that under the operation of the Crawford County system the rural districts are at a great disadvantage in the matter of nominations by the Republican party, and feeling convinced that for the purpose of making up a well-balanced ticket, that will commend itself to the entire Republican party and secure the undivided party vote at the election to be held Nov. 6th, I hereby withdraw my name as a candidate for recorder of deeds.

I am impelled to take this step largely by the fact that in the person of T. J. Matthews, of Spring Brook township, the outlying districts have a candidate who is eminently qualified for the office of recorder of deeds, and one who can be heartily supported by all Republicans without fear of factional differences.

I therefore ask all my friends to support the candidacy of T. J. Matthews for that office, on the triple grounds of continuous, active and faithful party service, great personal fitness and aptitude for the office, and for the reason that his geographical location is such that his nomination will round out the ticket satisfactorily to that portion of the Republican party who always support their party principles in fair weather and foul, and whose fidelity is often overlooked.
