PURELY A FAMILY AFFAIR. John Davis, of 1111 Swetland street, committed a vicious assault on his wife and child Thursday, in which he knocked the woman down, kicked her and beat her, and attempted to take her life with an axe. He also struck the child on the head with a club. The above facts were brought out at a hearing before Alderman John yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Davis and her mother, Mrs. Thomas Durdan, were arrested for larceny and receiving. After the scrimmage Davis left the house and when he returned late at night found that all of the household effects had been removed next door to the apartments occupied by his motherin-law. A search warrant was issued by Alderman John, and placed in the hands of Constable Timothy Jones. The latter, accompanied by Davis and his father, Daniel E. Davis, went to the house to recover the goods.

While there, the elder Davis alleges, Mrs. Durdan assaulted him with a clothes pole and cobbiestone. For this offence the mother-in-law was held in 500 ball on the charge of assault and battery and making threats, and she was also required to rurnish $300 bail on the charge of larceny and receiving. A. B. Eynon furnished the security. The husband will now be arrested for assaulting his wife.

PRESENTATION TO PASTOR.

The members of the Jackson Street | will be made by several pastors. Baptist church assembled in the base ment of that edifice last evening ostensibly for the purpose of rehearsing church music with the choir, but the principal object of the gathering was the presentation to their pastor, Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., of a beautiful gold watch charm.

The presentation was made in recognition of the faithful and untiring efforts made by the pastor in lifting the Goodrich; foreman, William debt from the church property, which is now almost free from any incum-Richard Nichols made the presentation speech, and Rev. de Gruchy responded in a happy manner. Remarks were also made by John Lloyd, Ioan Jones, Mrs. Caroline Miles, David H. Williams and others. On one side of the charm a reproduction of the church building is deftly engraved and on the other the follow-ing inscription: "Remembered for what he has done. Presented to the pastor, Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., as a token of appreciation for raising funds to liquidate the church debt. May 18, 1900."

ANOTHER WELSH BARD DEAD. After a short illness David Jones, known among the Welsh bards as "Dewi Ogle," breathed his last at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Evan Lewis, 31 Corbett avenue, aged 63. Mr. Jones was 63 years of age and was born at Cwmaman, South Wales, and emigrated to this country thirty-five years ago, settling in Bellevue, where he resided most of the time since. Deceased was a poet of national rep utation and won numerous eisteddfodic prizes in Wales and America. He is survived by one daughter and two sons, namely, Mrs. Evan Lewis, Tena and Also a brother, the Rev. E. Gumos Jones, one of Cambria's most eminent poets and divines, who resides in Wales. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the house. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

LIGHTNING'S PRANKS.

During the first thunder storm last vening a bolt of lightning struck the house occupied by William Daly, on South Cedar avenue, demolishing the chimney and spliting the weather boarding. The youngest son of the under the efficient direction of Miss family had a miraculous escape from injury. He was sitting in the doorway, and the bolt, passing down the chimney, diverged and passed his headburying itself in the ground a short distance away. An alarm of fire was rection of Miss Clara Saunders and turned in from box No. 55 and a remarkably quick run was made by the There was no fire, howthe Providence Methodist Episcopal ever, and the damage to the building is slight. The house is owned by Mrs.

During the second storm last night lightning struck the barn of John Mack, the milkman, on Beech street, tearing off the shingles and doining considerable damage. There were five horses in the barn, but, fortunately, none were injured. A peculiar freak played by this bolt was that it tore a door off the barn to which were tied two horses, which were not injured in the least.
