At the 6 o'clock service the church was taxed to its capacity, and the famous preacher again presented Biblical truths in a forceful and logical music, and the service was conducted manner. Part of his sermon was in slong evangelical lines. The topic was English, which was given for the benefit of the younger people who cannot understand the Welsh language. Rev.

Rev. Jones is making a tour of the United States with Rev. Chas. Davies, of Cardiff, who preached yesterday morning and afternoon at Olyphant and in the evening at the Puritan Congregational church, North Scranton. Mr. Jones is one of the phining lights of the Welsh Baptist denomination and was born in Brymbo, Denbighshire, a little village famous as the home of John Wilkinson, the pioneer of iron workers. This town is little larger than hamlet, but has sent forth her sons to all parts of the world to win honor Rev. Jones' father was and fame. public life during the past ten years. HAMPTON STREET CHURCH. Yesterday was a great day at the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church. The paster preached a short sermon on the subject of prayer, in which he gave utterance to the thought acterized by earnestness and faith it would be granted. After the sermo came the platform meeting, which had been arranged. The pastor outlined the movement he had on foot to cancel the indebtedness on the church. The following gentlemen made dresses upon the subject: H. C. Hinman, William Parsons, J. T. Rendle and B. T. Stone. It was the unanimous opinion of the speakers that the time had come when the debt must be paid. The congregation fell in line and pledged its co-operation in the work. The joy of the members over the hearty support of the movement gave vent in singing the doxology, "Praise God from Whom All Blessing Flew."

Judge Johnson for shorter hours with increased pay suspended sentence for thirty days to give counsel for the convicted men has made considerable progress in favor of the workmen, notwithstanding time to file reasons to sustain their the clash between the workmen themmotion. Thirteen indictments were returned against the accused by the selves. There are now less than four thousand men on strike as a result of grand jury and all depended on the the refusal of masters to accede to the outcome of this trial. They will in all demands of the unions. Every day adrobability be brought up for trial on ditional signatures are put to the new the other indictments at the next term wage scales. The plumbers are meeting with the most stubborn resistance, about 700 men of that craft still being Idle. The trouble between the unions had serious effect on many building operations. Many builders had granted the demands of the various trades working on their operations, but the men would not return to work where brotherhood carpenters were employed. This resulted in the builders engaging non-union help to carry on the work until the warring unions had come to an agreement.

BERLIN CAR STRIKE.

Sympathetic Crowds Stone the Street Successful Affair at the Presbyterian Cars.

> May 20 .- This afternoon Berlin. rowds in sympathy with the tramvay strikers stoned the cars. The police interfered and were themselves pelted. They replied with blank cartridges and shots were fired at them from the houses. Several persons were hurt on each side. The crowds lingered about, but by o'clock the cars were running.

Police who were net on duty have een ordered for temorrow. Most of the people side with the strikers, who demand a ten-hour day, instead of 14 hours, and a minimum monthly waga of 90 marks instead of 35, together with the yearly increase of five marks until 150 marks shall be reached.
