CARBONDALE.

TRAGIC FISHING EXPEDITION. Earle Stocker Drowned at Long Pond

on Saturday Afternoon. Earle Stocker, a former resident of this city, was drowned in Long pond, Saturday evening. Together with Morgan Williams, of the Welsh Settlement, he set out on a fishing expedition Saturday afternoon. They were in a boat on the pond, as the shades of night fell, and by an incautious move of one of the young men it was capsized. Willlams managed to catch hold of the boat, but Stocker went to the bottom. Stocker was nineteen years old. Ef-forts were made to locate his parents yesterday, but as they had recently moved, no messages reached them.

Attempted Robbery at the Sweeney House-Funeral of the Late Mary Hall-Personal News.

The Sweeney hotel was entered by burglars shortly after 11 o'clock Sunday night. Entrance was obtained through a door at the rear. The nocturnal visitors made so much noise, however, that their presence was known before they had succeeded in the object. A little daughter of Proprietor Johns was the first to make the discovery, and, rushing into her father, told him of her fears. Mr. Johns quickly arose and on his way down stairs heard some one hurriedly departing. The only trace of the burglars obtained was by Mrs. Johns, who from her bed room window, saw three men hurrying away in the cover of the darkness. The proprietor is fully prepared for such visitors, and they will get a warm reception if they repeat their visit. As Sunday was said to have been a dry day, it is supposed the visitors had a big thirst, their object being to help themselves to the contents of the bar-room, which was happily averted by the little girl.

The funeral of the late Mary Hall took place yesterday afternoon. Services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church by Rev. Maynard Thompson, of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. M. D. Fuller. nter field Joe Delehanty is every day coming nearer to the batting pace set by his famous Philadelphia brother. A home run and two singles were his portion yesterday off "Kid" Jordan at Reading. Stratton made his usual three-bagger yesterday at Wilkes-Barre. Scott is now being played at first base, and Colliflower is being utilized in right field. The change is making a big improve-ment in the team's work. The Elmira papers claim that the deal by eans of which the team is to be transferred to Lancaster has not yet gone through and that a strong effort is being made to hold the team in Clmira. $2,170, it is claimed, has been pledged for the support of a team, and this amount certainly should be sufficient.

It has been officially announced that O'Connor, the St. Louis catcher, is on the market. Tebeau and he can not get along together and therefore both parties are desirous of a change. O'Cennor is a splendid backstop and good batsman and would strengthen any team. A man tike O'Con-ner would prove unvaluable at Pitts' 11g. The Wilkes-Barre base ball team up to date is led in batting by Second Baseman Johnnie Burns, with an average of .511, for sixteen games, which neludes ten two-basers and three home runs. Ketchem is next with .475, and Colliflower and Stratton are the next two sluggers. Stratton leads in fielding with an average of 1.550 for seventeen games. Burns' record didn't suffer to any extent in yesterday's game, when he banged cut triple, double and three singles. Owens leads he pitchers with four victories and no defeats.
