THE STIRK FAMILY.

Proud Aristocrats in the Realm of the Arena.

The famous Stirk family, one of the great features of the Wallace show, does work that borders on the marvelous. In truth, some of their attainments are of such complex difficulties that it frequently passes with but little more notice from the public than their simpler display, solely because the audience cannot follow its intricate and perplexing paradox.

It not infrequently happens that when a particularly hazardous feat is accomplished the strongest and most pronounced applause will come from the entry wherein the other actors of the show may be found ranged as spectators when "the Stirks are on."

This tribute to their genius from their fellow performers is as unusual as it is spontaneous, and testifies to their superiority more eloquently than any eulogy possibly could.

When an act can hold the attention of the actors as that of the Stirks does, it may indeed be said to be truly great. At Scranton on Friday, May 25.

CRUSADERS SAY THE END IS NOT YET

OTHER EQUALLY SENSATIONAL ARRESTS PLANNED.

Well Authenticated Report That More Councilmen and Thirteen Other Legislative and Administrative Officials Are Listed to Become Defendants in Municipal League Prosecutions—Accused Councilmen to Arrest Harris for Offering Bribes—The Mysterious Letter.

No new moves were made yesterday by the committee acting for the Municipal league of the city in the prosecution of bribes. No new informations were lodged nor warrants sworn out, but there is very good reason to think that the league is far, far from through yet.

E. B. Sturges, the head of the Men's union of Green Ridge and the heart and soul of this reform movement, yesterday said to a Tribune man: "Nothing has been done today, but we have not given anything out just yet, but will be ready to do so in good time."

Attorney E. C. Newcomb was yesterday retained in the case as counsel for the league, and together with Attorneys James H. Torrey and F. E. Beer, will look after the crusaders' side of the case.

ENTERED BAIL.

Common Councilman David H. Reese, of the First ward, and M. V. Morris, of the Second ward, entered bail yesterday morning before Alderman Fuller, Wade M. Finn qualifying as their bondsmen in the sum of $5,000 in each case. M. P. Padgett furnished $5,000 bonds for the appearance of Select Councilman Simon Thomas, of the Fourth ward.

Attorney James H. Torrey, when spoken to yesterday said: "All the warrants issued so far have now been served and the accused parties have appeared before the alderman, with the exception of Select Councilman H. T. Fellows, of the Fifteenth ward, and Common Councilman Griffiths."

Mr. Griffiths, who is the member from the Fourth ward, and who is president of common council, was in Wilkes-Barre all day yesterday. The councilmen on whom warrants have been served so far are: Select, Simon Thomas, T. J. Coyne, common, David H. Reese, Morris V. Morris, James J. Griener, C. W. Goddard, C. E. Wenzel, Thomas M. Watkins, T. F. Morris.

Of these all have entered bail, with the exception of Common Councilman Watkins, of the Fifteenth ward, who was arrested Monday evening and released on his own recognizance to find bail.

With the exception of Common Councilman C. E. Goddard, all of the parties waived a hearing. David H. Reese entered bail Monday evening for his appearance yesterday, when he would decide whether or not he wanted a hearing, but appeared yesterday morning and waived his hearing and entered bail.

Eleven warrants, in all, have been issued, instead of the seventeen at first contemplated, the information being withdrawn, temporarily, at least, in six cases.

TALK OF COUNTER SUITS.

There is considerable talk among the accused councilmen of starting counter proceedings against Joseph S. Harris, the New York detective in the league's employ, who professed the bribes, and yesterday a pretty strong rumor was about to the effect that a large number of warrants were issued before Alderman Fuller, of North Scranton, charging Harris with offering bribes. The alderman, however, denied that any warrants were issued before him, and the rumor, which was in fact, was not true.

Today, it is expected, more sensational will be sprung. It is claimed that several more arrests will be made on warrants issued at the instance of the Municipal league, and that among the latter will be some more of the councilmen and nine members of another legislative body, besides four administrative officials.

The crusade has aroused no end of discussion around the city and the means of securing funds to pay the expenses of the prosecution of the excellent success, one of them announcing that he had secured $500 in less than half an hour.

MR. WILLIAMS' LETTER.

Select Councilman Richard H. Williams, of the Fifth ward, author of the letter that was taken away from Councilman Coyne when he was under arrest in Alderman Fuller's office, contributed the following for publication:

Scranton, May 22, 1900.

Editor Tribune—Sir: Please insert the following and oblige the undersigned:

Going to the printers given to a letter from me to Mr. Coyne in today's papers of the city which tends to place me in an unfavorable and probably incriminating position as stated, on the matter which has been given so much publicity as far as I am concerned, but his name and name of my wife, in connection with the construction placed upon it by the gentleman who caused Mr. Coyne and myself to figure so conspicuously and unjustly before the public on Thursday night, under the meeting of council, Messrs. Mason, Jones and another gentleman of the West Side approached me and Mr. Oliver and asked us for passing a license ordinance which did them as business men a great injustice. They claimed that the ordinance should include the taxing of hucksters, which they said did business here free of tax to the detriment of merchants in general.

As Mr. Coyne and myself are members of the license committee, I asked him to meet me at the St. Charles hotel the next night to amend the ordinance above mentioned so as to include what we considered the just claims of those merchants and insert their wishes in the final reading of the ordinance.

He promised to meet me at 8:30 p. m. on the night mentioned but failed to do so. Feeling that Mr. Coyne was not sincere in his promise I sent the letter to him stating that I was disappointed in him, and that unless I should hear from him before our next meeting or words to that effect I should consider myself free to amend or otherwise do what I wished with the tax ordinance as I think I should.

The letter is, as far as I can recall, the substance of the matter and I shall gladly acknowledge everything in the mutilated letter, as stated in the papers, and furnish as near as I can any words that may be missing. This is written in justice to myself and fair play to Mr. Coyne.

A BOLD THIEF.

Man Named Grant Lowry Arrested For Theft of Gold Watch.

About 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon a man going by the name of Grant Lowry entered a jewelry store on lower Lackawanna avenue and committed an exceedingly bold theft by deliberately taking from the counter a small gold watch and walking out. The proprietor of the place was not in at the time but the place was left in charge of a small boy.

He followed the man out and informed Patrolman Lowry of the act.

The latter with the boy then set in pursuit and overtook Mr. Lowry at Franklin avenue and Spruce street. When the man with the watch saw the officer he tried to slip the time-piece which caused the trouble back into the boy's hands, but was unsuccessful.

He was taken to the Center street police station, but later had his appearance before Alderman Howe for his appearance in police court, and he was released to have a hearing by Mayor Moir Friday morning.

HE BLEW THE TOP OF HIS HEAD OFF

Suicide of David Ginnell, of South Everett Avenue, at 10:45 Last Night at His Home.

One of the most deliberately planned and horrible suicides ever noted in this city occurred about 10:45 o'clock last night, when David Ginnell, an aged man, living at 123 South Everett avenue, shot himself with a shotgun, blowing the whole top of his head off.

The man had recently been sick and had within the past few days become very despondent. The family had all retired last night, when they were startled by the loud report of a gun, seeming to come from the dining room of the house. On rushing downstairs they were horrified to find Mr. Ginnell lying on the floor, quite dead, with the entire top of his head blown off.

Lying on the floor, and extending from his feet, lay a double-barreled shotgun. To the trigger of this was attached a long piece of suspender, at the end of which was fastened a piece of wood. After arranging the gun in this manner, the man evidently stood up and placed the muzzle of the gun in his mouth and planted his feet on the block of wood placed on the floor. Then, by pulling up on the gun, he discharged it.

It is thought that both barrels must have been loaded. The charge entered the roof of the mouth and, after crashing through the brain and blowing off the top of the skull, lodged in the ceiling overhead. The hole in the top of the head was fully six inches square, and the brains were scattered all over the floor and ceiling.

The police were notified of the affair, and Patrolman Peters went to the house and investigated. The deceased man was sixty-five years old. He was a widower, and is survived by four sons and two daughters.

INSURANCE BILLS HELD UP.

Auditing Committee Thinks Reapportionment Not Right.

At the meeting of the joint auditing committee of council held on Monday evening, all of the insurance bills for the present year were referred, after much discussion, to a special committee for consideration. This committee consists of Messrs. Finn, Oliver and Phillips.

The insurance committee, which consists of the chairmen of both branches of council and the mayor, have recently gone over the insurance for the purpose of reapportioning it. Some of the members of the auditing committee thought that this reapportionment was not exactly right. They thought that insurance on the hose wagons in the various hose houses was entirely unnecessary and that, among other things, the street cleaning apparatus should not be insured.

Objection was also raised to placing $100,000 worth of insurance on the municipal building, which is considered practically fire-proof. The committee will report a week from Monday night.

HAD A LUCKY ESCAPE.

Four Persons and a Wagon Load of Glass Simultaneously Upset.

Eight barrels and three boxes loaded with glass bottles, which Moses Epstein, a Raymond court junk dealer, had just loaded into his wagon, were overturned on the pavement in front of the board of trade building yesterday afternoon, together with Epstein and three of his children, two of them mere babes, who were brought along to enjoy a ride.

One of the little ones sustained a slight bruise on the leg, but otherwise the damage was confined to the glass-ware. About half of it was left on the street in fragments. A too short turn of the wagon caused the upset.

HAD TO DIVIDE TRAIN.

Wilkes-Barre was reached yesterday morning at 6 o'clock and the train had to be split up into sections here to allow it to get over the curves between there and this city, which proved to be the last delay. All afternoon the employees of the show made desperate efforts to get things in shape by night, but when 6 o'clock arrived it was discovered that this was impossible.

A short street parade was given in the afternoon, which did not at all come up to the expectations of the general public, which was out en masse but in justice to the show people it must be said that they didn't have time to unload their wagons or get things in shape.

The feature of the parade was the appearance of the Lawrence band, thirty strong, in their new uniforms, which are the nattyest seen in this city in a long time, consisting of white duck trousers, black leggings and red coats and hats. The fair can be continued for four days only, as it is booked elsewhere for next week.

THE BIG BOSTOCK SHOW HAS ARRIVED

ELKS' CARNIVAL AND FAIR TO BE OPENED TODAY.

The Company Did Not Reach Here Until Noon Which Rendered a Formal Opening Last Night Impossible—Grounds Were Thrown Open to the Public, However—The Show Is About the Biggest Thing in Its Line Ever Seen in This City—Some of the Features It Contains.

The Frank C. Bostock "world's greatest exposition" and in the city yesterday about noon, a day behind time, and owing to this fact it has been found impossible to formally open the Elks' great street fair and carnival until this afternoon at 1 o'clock when, according to the faithful process agent, everything will be in complete readiness.

The grounds were opened free to the public last night and an enormous crowd of people availed themselves of the opportunity of inspecting the grounds, despite the fact that the weather was in a pretty chaotic and mixed-up condition. It can be asserted, however, that the fair and carnival will be one of the biggest things in the show line that has ever been seen in this city.

The grounds at the corner of Ash street and Wyoming avenue have been enclosed with a high board fence and there are about four acres thus inclosed. They are divided into two distinct parts, the industrial exposition grounds and the Midway. The visitor as he passes the main entrance enters the industrial part of the show first.

INDUSTRIAL SHOW.

Here on both sides are arranged long rows of tastefully decorated booths, occupied by some thirty or forty of the leading business firms of the city, and containing beautiful arrays of various kinds of merchandise. Shoe firms, cigar firms, carpet stores, bakers, dairy companies and others all have tastefully exhibited. In this part of the grounds the industrial exposition grounds and the Midway. The visitor as he passes the main entrance enters the industrial part of the show first.

After passing through this portion of the grounds the visitor enters the Midway, or star feature of the show, through an exceedingly dazzling brilliantly decorated entrance. The Midway is simply an immense fenced-in area about 300 feet long and 150 feet wide, containing a large number of special attractions on all sides.

In the center is an elevated stage, on which trick bicycle riding will be given; a spiral incline, up which a daring bicyclist will ride; a platform raised fifty feet in the air, from which an acrobat will perform his feats, and several new and novel variations of the old-style of merry-go-rounds.

The other attractions, which will be opened today, are almost too manifold to mention. In the first place, there is a real, genuine wild west show, with troupe of real cowboys and cowboys. There is a large tent, in which is given a representation in moving pictures of the recent Jeffries-Corbett fight. The principal attractions, however, are the two exhibitions of trained wild animals, of which he given in an immense steel cage weighing forty tons. Lions, tigers, bears, leopards and other wild creatures of the forest and the jungle are put through marvelous feats.

T. F. ARCHBALD'S ORDINATION

Takes Place Tonight in First Presbyterian Church.

Thomas F. Archbald, of this city, will be ordained this evening in the First Presbyterian church by the Presbytery of Lackawanna. The services will be commenced at 7:30 o'clock. The invocation will be given by Rev. S. C. Hodge, after which prayer will be offered by Rev. John S. Stewart, D. D.

A sermon will then be preached by Rev. James McLeod, D. D., after which the constitutional questions will be propounded by the moderator. After this a prayer will be offered by Rev. Charles E. Robinson, followed by the ceremony of ordination by the laying on of hands of the Presbytery and the extension of the right hand of fellowship by them.

Rev. S. C. Hodge, D. D., L. L. D., will deliver the charge to the newly ordained clergyman, who will afterwards give the benediction.

Mr. Archbald has accepted a call from the Presbyterian church in Cuba, N. Y., in the Presbytery of Steuben. It was his wish, however, to be ordained in the church with which he has been connected since birth, and by the Presbytery that so recently licensed him to preach the gospel.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Archbald. His education was received at Yale and Auburn Theological seminary. He also made a trip around the world after graduating from Yale.

AN ENJOYABLE RECITAL.

Given at Powell's Music Store Last Night by Miss Fahey.

A very enjoyable pianoforte recital was given last night at Powell's music store, on Washington avenue, by Miss Loretta Fahey, a pupil of Haydn Evans, of the Scranton Conservatory of Music, assisted by Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage and Miss Sadie Edwards.

At 8 o'clock a large number of music lovers were present and listened with delight to the excellent programme rendered. Miss Fahey gave the first selection by playing with fine effect Beethoven's Adagio Cantabile and the Rondo from Sonata, op. 13.

Miss Edwards then sang in a beautiful contralto voice Sullivan's "Will He Come." Miss Fahey made her second appearance and played first Mason's "Spring Dance" (Mazurka) and then "The Rose Bud."

Mrs. Lizzie Hughes Brundage, whose splendid soprano voice has made her in great demand at all concerts and entertainments of a musical nature, rendered De Koven's "For This," and was heartily applauded.

Miss Fahey played Bennett's "La Gondola" and Schubert's Impromptu (in E flat). At the close of these two selections she was presented with a beautiful bouquet of American beauty roses.

Mrs. Brundage and Miss Edwards rendered a very pretty duet, Alliston's "On the River," and the programme was brought to a close by the playing by Miss Fahey of Bartlett's "Grande Polka De Concerto."

Haydn Evans acted as accompanist at the rendering of the vocal selections.

GRAND OFFICERS HERE.

Meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary to the B. of R. T.

Moses Taylor lodge, No. 124, Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, met last night in Campbell hall, on Lackawanna avenue, and held a special session, the chief purpose of which was to take action concerning an article which appeared in last Sunday's Free Press. The members declare that there was no truth in it.

The article was to the effect that there has been a break among the members, and that the lodge is divided against itself. It also mentioned that the last meeting held on Thursday evening, broke up in a heated discussion and that on Friday the charter was taken in charge by Mrs. Lasher, a member, residing on Ninth street, who refused to surrender it, and that the other members were contemplating her arrest. It concluded by mentioning that one of the grand officers is now in the city to take charge of the matter.

Last night's meeting was a well-attended and very lively one, not being over until 11:45 o'clock. The statement was then given out that the story was false. Two members of the Grand lodge are now in the city, but they are here merely on a visit of instruction and general inspection. They are Mrs. Ray Waterson, of Veddorsburg, Ind., a member of the Grand lodge, and
