Scranton Makes a Grandstand Finish of Game That Looked to Be Irretrievably Lost.

Allentown, May 24.-Scranton made a grandstand finish today, winning a game that looked irretrievably lost. Five hits for seven bases and an error by Jim Delehanty gave Scranton just enough runs to win. The game abounded in brilliant fielding in which Doherty, Tom Delehanty and Jim Delchanty excelled. Score: ALLENTOWN.

The Allentown team is making Scranton play hard ball to win this reason. The local boys have won two games from them by one run, lost and Brundage, who have been the guests other by the score of 2-1, and the other game was an eleven-inning one.

Jack O'Connor has been bought by President Dreyfuss, of the Pittsburg club, from St. Louis. The clever catcher was also wanted by Chicago, but the Pirates raised Hart's offer and now have the ex-Tebeauite. O'Connor will strengthen the Pittsburg team in an important department and will add a big amount of ginger to the team.

Bill Everitt, who was one of the bunch of players traded to Kansas City by Chicago for young Ganzel, refuses to go to the American league team. Bill claims that he has been knocked by several members of the Colts and in fact the verbal hammering he has received so far has given him the sobriquet of "The Anvil." He would prove a tower of strength at Kansas City. Manager Burinham list night had a long talk with The Tribune over the long distance 'phone, and wisies it announced that there will be two games tomorrow afternoon. The game post-poned, on Allentown's first visit here will be played off, and the first of the games will be called at "o'clock. A big attendance is expected, and a great treat is promised, as the two teams have played even games so far, and it has been mp and tuck between them. In case rain prevents the contest, two games will be played Monday afternoon. In regard to the O'Brien too'dent Wednesday, Mr. Burnbam says: "I don't bleme O'Brien a bit. There was a local umpire officiating and he made several very incompetent decisions. When he allowed a man to walk to first on Kervin's balk, however, which is decided against the rules. O'Brien registered a kick seems to be getting to be a fashion among the umpires to put Pirate out of the game. Phelen started it and this man is the third to follow the example."
