MEMORIAL DAY ORDER.

Issued by Asa B. Stevens, the Commander of the Ezra S. Griffin Post, G. A. R.

The following has been issued by Asa B. Stevens, commander of Lieutenant Ezra S. Griffin Post, Grand Army of the Republic:

Headquarters Lieutenant Ezra S. Griffin Post, No. 129, Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic, Scranton, Pa., May 21, 1900.

General Order No. 2.

Commander: Approaching Memorial Day reminds us of our duties to our beloved dead. As we grow older, let us be more particular in the observance of this sacred day and let us discourage the holding of games and other frivolous amusements thereon by thoughtless people in every possible way. In the words of the immortal Logan: "If other graves grow dull, and other hearts slack, and others cold in the solemn trust, ours shall keep it as long as the light and warmth of life remain to us." Let us, as in most fitting manner, make the solemn service of Memorial Day as impressive as possible by appropriate exercises.

Let us invite to our assistance in this patriotic work the Woman's Relief corps, the Sons of Veterans, the school children and all loyal and patriotic citizens to join with us in the beautiful service for our soldier dead. The past two years has asked new strength and power to the nation and new glory to the flag. The achievements of the Grand Army of the Republic have rendered possible the glorious victories won in the interest of liberty and humanity. Let us mark the resting place of our sons who have given their lives for their country. Let us carefully see to it that in placing flowers upon the nation's dead, none of these are overlooked.

It is again directed that May 30th is Memorial Day, and not Decoration Day. The latter term is one applied to those who seek to devote the day to games, races, etc. The only authoritative Grand Army designation is Memorial Day. It is urged that the newspapers, the public and all comrades give emphasis to this every occasion.

Since last Memorial Day many comrades who were with the grand army of the last war call of earth and will no longer be found in our ranks or in our post room. The tribute of love and reverence they have paid to others we shall honor by the same. Let us as comrades of the war and citizens of the nation pay our tribute in sincerity and earnestness, that will reach the world that the American citizen today and in the future as in life has his name firmly fixed in the hearts of an appreciative people. The men whose memory is perpetuated by the loving service Memorial Day was part of the greatest comradeship the world has ever known. Let us who survive them be so earnest in our tributes, so pure in our affections, and so devoted to the memory of those who have given their lives for their country, that the lessons of patriotism which we shall teach shall find a lodgment in the hearts of all our people, binding all together in devotion to flag and country.

By resolution of the national convention that the reading of President Lincoln's address at the reading of the Memorial Day exercises in all Memorial Day exercises, and those in charge of Memorial Day exercises will cause the same to be read in connection with the exercises on that day.

It is enjoined upon every post that in accordance with the custom now firmly established throughout the order that they attend division exercises on Memorial Day. Those in charge of arrangements have been made with the pastor of the Washington Street Presbyterian church to deliver a memorial service on May 27, at 7.30 p. m. The Woman's Relief corps, the Sons of Veterans are invited to meet us at the post room at 7 p. m. and all go to the house of God together.

Arrangements have been made by the Memorial Day committee of posts No. 130 and 219 for a proper division of the work, and I have the following details for post No. 129. Past Post Commander South B. Mott at Dunmore Presbyterian cemetery, Past Post Commander S. V. Haupt at Pittston avenue and St. Mary's Catholic cemetery, Quartermaster S. H. Stevens at Dunmore Catholic cemetery, Comrade W. H. Lefus at Catholic cemetery, Past Post Commander E. B. Powers will meet at Forest Hill cemetery. The commander at Washington street cemetery.

Memorial Day services at Grand Army hall at 8.30 a. m. on Memorial Day, and friends of our comrades who have died during the past year are cordially invited to attend these exercises.

A short parade at 1.30 p. m. on Memorial Day. An entertainment will be given at 5 p. m. at the Lyceum theater on Memorial Day.

Let every comrade make an effort to attend all the exercises on Memorial Day.

By order of Post Commander Asa B. Stevens, Artist: George S. Brook, Adjutant.

THE DRUMMER EVANGELIST.

Has been holding Anti-Saloon Meetings in Moscoe Borough.

"The Drummer Evangelist," Rev. W. H. Williams, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, has been holding Anti-Saloon league meetings all this week in Moscoe borough, speaking in all the churches in the borough. Last night he spoke in the Presbyterian church in Moscoe. At the close of the meeting they organized an Anti-Saloon league with 112 members. Mr. Williams leaves today for Philadelphia, where he goes to assist the superintendent of the Philadelphia district, speaking in the Quaker City twice on Sunday.

Next week, beginning Tuesday, he speaks in Old Forge borough in the different churches. His other engagements are: Sunday, June 3, 10.30 a. m., Methodist church, Pittston; 2.30 p. m., the address of the boys' meeting at the Young Men's Christian association, Pittston; 7.30 p. m., Calvary Baptist church, Taylor; Sunday, June 10, 7.30 p. m., Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, South Scranton; Sunday, June 17, 10.30 a. m., First Methodist Episcopal church, Pittston; 7.30 p. m., Jackson Street Baptist church, West Scranton.

CORNER STONE OF NEW CHURCH TO BE LAID

BISHOP HOBAN WILL OFFICIATE AT THE CEREMONIES.

Rev. J. J. McCabe, a Former Assistant, Will Preach the Sermon, and He is Noted For His Force Ability and Powers of Conviction—Many Societies Will Parade—Arrangements All Completed—When Finished the Church Will Cost About $75,000—A Handsome Structure.

The weather is the only thing that the pastor and people of St. John's church, South Side, hope to remain propitious, to make the ceremony of the laying of the corner-stone of their new church, tomorrow afternoon, one of the most important religious ceremonies that the annals of the Scranton diocese can boast of. Although only two weeks were consumed in the preparations, the energy of the people is so great that results will show that this short time has been all that was required.

In no church in this vicinity, nor in any parish hereabouts, will one find more earnest workers in the cause of religion. This condition is due more to the zeal of the pastor, Rev. E. J. Melley, than to the spirit of self-sacrifice on the part of the people. When there is any work to be done, and committees are chosen, it is with a view to the success of the object in hand. The results frequently obtained are marvellous, and men who would not speak as the result of political or social strife, find themselves aiding each other in works promulgated by the pastor.

The condition of the parish is the best proof of the efficiency of the methods pursued by the pastor. Established in 1856, the parish embraces about one-third of the Nineteenth ward, one-third of the Eleventh ward, and about two-thirds of the Twentieth ward. The first church was built in 1856, and was a small frame structure, the first pastor being Rev. R. A. McAndrew, now of Wilkes-Barre; the first assistant being Rev. M. J. Millane, present curate at Dunmore. Rev. E. J. Melley, the present rector, succeeded Father McAndrew, and the assistants have been Fathers Dunn, Lucas, Walsh, Moffatt, McCabe and Fleming, the latter being now stationed there.

FATHER MCCABE WILL PREACH.

Father McCabe will preach the dedicatory sermon tomorrow afternoon. He is considered one of the most forcible, earnest and convincing speakers in this diocese, and he is considered one of the highest esteem that he has been asked to speak on the occasion, and many persons familiar with his ability will journey to the South Side tomorrow for no other purpose than to listen to him.

The first edifice erected for worship was a one-story frame structure on Flg street, where the parish had purchased three lots. This was superseded the next year by the present temple of worship. The basement is devoted to meeting purposes and entertainments; the first floor is dedicated to church purposes, while the second floor is used as a school house. This latter feature is appreciated to the extent that, during the years that it has been used for such purposes, the number of pupils has averaged six hundred per annum. The course of study is most thorough, the pupils of the International Correspondence Schools. There are eleven teaching Sisters.

Besides the building referred to above, the congregation also owns a parochial residence on Pittston avenue, a convent on Flg street, two vacant lots opposite the church property on Flg street, besides three lots on Pittston avenue, the site of the new church. All of this has been acquired since the erection of the parish, and is free from debt. The parish is people may be judged from the fact that at the last meeting of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent association, one of the parish societies, the members voted an altar as its contribution to the new church.

ESCORT COMMITTEE.

Tomorrow's celebration is, or will be, the first public appearance of Right Reverend Bishop Hoban officiating at such a function in this city. John Gibbons, marshal for the occasion, has appointed a committee from the parish who will ride in carriages, and act as an escort for the bishop. This committee consists of Michael McGarry, Malachi Coyne, W. G. O'Malley, M. J. Donohoe, F. W. Galagher, Dr. J. J. Walsh, Dr. J. A. Manley and M. J. Connetton. The aides to the marshal, appointed by Mr. Gibbons, are: C. G. Boland, C. T. Boland, Peter Robling, Jr., P. J. Dickert, Patrick P. Tighe, Martin J. McHugh, John Ward and Michael G. Langgan.

The parade will form at 2 o'clock, and the order to march will be given at 2.30 o'clock. This latter will, of course, depend on the hour at which Bishop Hoban arrives at the "orchard," but the committee will try to time his appearance, so that the programme as arranged will be carried out.

The formation of the parade will probably be in the following order: Grand marshal and aides, the St. Paul's Pioneer corps, carriages containing Right Rev. Bishop Hoban, his secretary and the escort committee, children.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saved Mrs. Hayes From an Operation.

(LETTER TO HER PUBLISHED IN NO. 4, 1895)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Words cannot express my thanks to you for your kind advice to me in regard to my health. I had been running down in health for about seven years. I had doted with good doctors and taken a great many patent medicines. My trouble began when my first child was born. I had a very hard time and after its birth was in great need of help. "After my second child I had very good health until last winter when I again became pregnant and suffered very much and miscarried. I came very near dying, and the doctor said I must have an operation, which frightened me very much, and concluded to write to you for your advice, and take your medicine. Was troubled with the whites, great pain in back and hips, sometimes when lying down or sitting was unable to get up. Would have liked to be in your hands, but could not find you. "I can say I have never seen anything so wonderful as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sensitive Wash. Your remedies have done wonders for me. Hoping that many of my suffering sisters may be led to take your medicine from reading this letter, I remain, sincerely yours, MRS. MARY HAYES, MARLBOROUGH, KY."

Letters like the foregoing should convince everyone that Mrs. Pinkham's advice is certain help.

Children of the Cadet society of the parish, societies from St. Mary's church, societies from the Church of the Sacred Heart, Holy Name society from the cathedral parish; St. Patrick's society, organized in the parish before the parish was formed, accompanied by societies composed of the older total abstinents; the Ancient Order of Hibernians; Branch 55, Catholic Mutual Benevolent association; the St. Aloysius society, accompanied by the younger total abstinents; Columbus council, Young Men's Institute, accompanied by their sister societies. The Forest and the Cumberland bands have volunteered their services for the occasion.

WILL BE VERY COMPLETE.

The church, the corner-stone of which will be laid tomorrow, will, when completed, be one of the most complete in the city. The sanitary arrangements are supposed to excel anything that has yet been constructed, the lighting, heating and ventilating being the result of the most modern application. There will be five mades of ingress and egress.

The church will seat eleven hundred persons, and the ceiling will be sixty feet above the floor. There will be an organ gallery at the end of the church for the choir. The basement will be fitted up for the children. There the children's mass will be celebrated and the Sunday school. The old frame church will be utilized until the new church is completed. It is expected that the basement will be ready for the children this fall, but the church proper will not be used until probably a year later. It is estimated that completed will cost about $75,000.

By special request of Rev. E. J. Melley, the Cathedral Holy Name society will sing at the laying of the corner-stone.

MAYOR WILL SIGN IT.

Work on Connell Park and Speedway Street Railway Will Be Begun in the Near Future.

Mayor Melr will this morning sign the ordinance granting the Connell Park and Speedway Street Railway company a franchise to construct a road through the city. The city to Nay Aug park, the Speedway and Connell's park. When asked by a Tribune man yesterday if he would sign the measure, he appeared much surprised that such a question should be asked, and replied: "Why, certainly I will. You might have known that without asking."

The plans for the construction of the road are being prepared by A. B. Dunning, and the officials of the company say that actual work on the road will be commenced within two weeks. The contracts for the furnishing of material are ready and will be signed once, so that the material will be on hand within the next thirty days. It is expected that the road will be completed by September.

The company intends fitting up a tract of land beyond the Speedway way hotel as a public park, and in this park will be constructed a magnificent theatre with a seating capacity of 1,500 and with a stage as large as the Lyceum's. It is the intention of the company to keep this open the entire year round, both summer and winter, as a first-class vaudeville house. The plans for this building are already in the city and work on it will be carried on simultaneously with the work of constructing the road.

SCHOOLS WILL BE FINISHED.

Contractors Assure Building Committee That They Will Be Ready.

John Benore, Peter Stupp and Washburn & Williams appeared before the building committee of the board of control last night and assured the members that the new schools, Nos. 8, 35 and 4, now being constructed by them, would be finished ample time to allow them to be re-opened when the other schools are opened in September. The committee accordingly decided to recommend to the board next Monday night that all persons from whom annexes are now being rented be notified that the same will be vacated on July 1. By doing this the rent for the months of July and August may be saved the district.

The finance committee also met last night and awarded the contract for the printing of the city directory. The committee will meet on Monday afternoon for the purpose of receiving bids for these bonds.

CAUGHT SUPPOSED THIEF.

Had Gotten Into the Supply Shanty of a Mine.

Night Watchman William Hughes and Engineer Richard Morgan, at the Hyde Park shaft, captured a man in the act of robbing the supply shanty at 11.30 o'clock last night and turned him over to Patrolman Peters.

The prisoner proved to be James Needham, a young married man residing at 2011 Luzerne street. He was locked up the West Side station house. He gained entrance to the shanty by picking the padlock. It is supposed. His actions indicated that he was very much intoxicated.

COUNCILMAN IS TO SUE THE CRUSADERS

SELECT COUNCILMAN COSTELLO WANTS REDRESS.

Information Was Laid Against Him Charging Bribe Taking and His Name Was Given to the Newspapers as Being One of Eighteen That Would Adorn a Warrant But He Was Never Arrested. Senator J. C. Vaughan Engaged to Prosecute the Case For Him.

Suit is to be brought by Select Councilman John J. Costello, of the Third ward, against those of the crusaders responsible for connecting his name with the bribery prosecutions. He has charged Senator J. C. Vaughan as his attorney and instructed him to proceed against his alleged false accusers to the full extent of the law.

Mr. Costello was not arrested and no warrant was issued for him as far as is generally known, but an information was laid against him in Alderman Fuller's office and his name was given to the newspaper men as one of the eighteen which would appear on the warrants charging bribe taking.

For some reason that has not developed the informations against Mr. Costello and six others were withdrawn or at least held back, but the newspapers, especially those out of town, published them as being among the accused and although not arrested, they feel they stand in the public eye on the same plane with those who were arrested.

Senator Vaughan was about yesterday afternoon inquiring as to who was liable and what manner of proceeding would be in a case of this kind. "Mr. Costello is wholly guiltless," yet he has been published broadcast as a hoodler. The prosecutors included him in the list of those against whom they had laid information and then announced publicly that they had evidence to connect every one they accused. Mr. Costello is wholly guiltless under this accusation. He wants a vindictive and redress for the injury done him and proposes to get it if it is in the law. I have not satisfied myself yet whom we will proceed against or what procedure will be adopted.

The Licensed Liquor League of Dunmore held a meeting last night in Dunmore, at which they decided to close their places of business hereafter on Sunday, commencing May 27. Out of the forty-six hotel keepers in the borough, thirty-four were present last night, and a committee was appointed to wait on the absent twelve and acquaint them of the action taken. S. A. Norris is president of this league and John J. O'Boyle secretary.

FUNERAL OF MISS M'DONOUGH

Requiem Mass Celebrated in Holy Cross Church.

The funeral of Miss Mary McDonough took place yesterday morning from the home of her mother, Mrs. Catherine McDonough, of Fourth street. At 9 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in Holy Cross church by Rev. W. P. O'Donnell, the pastor. He also preached a sermon in which he referred in beautiful language to the worthy life of the deceased. Solos during the mass were rendered by William Lyndon. The Angels' sodality, of which the deceased was a member, attended the mass in a body.

Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery. The pall-bearers were P. E. Killeulen, Bartley Leonard, David Dodd, Martin Keegan, Joseph Kerrigan and George Gaughan.

GETTING A VACATION.

Police Officers Are Not Back on the Force.

From present indications it would appear that complications may arise out of the refusal of select council to concur in the removal of Lieutenant Spellman and Patrolman Jones. Neither of these two officers were back on duty yesterday and when Mayor Moir was asked if they would be re-instated he replied: "I don't very well see how that can be done." He would say nothing further on the subject than this: John Addyman, whose appointment as a patrolman was confirmed by council, reported, but the mayor refused to swear him in.

As the local court has decided that the mayor cannot remove without the consent of council it would appear that no other course is left open for him but to reinstate the officers. In the meantime the city is without the services of three officers and the salaries of two of these are running along.

Another petition is being quietly circulated in North Scranton by a number of the mayor's supporters commending his action in removing Lieutenant Spellman.

Pianos for Summer Homes

You don't have to have so good a piano as the Stieff for a house that is closed eight or nine months; yet you want it to hold its tone and quality and to look well besides. Some one who ought to know—but doesn't—said the other day that it's impossible to sell an honest piano for $175. If isn't, we have them here: $175, $200, $250, $300, and in mahogany, walnut, or oak cases, too. Liberal terms to such as desire them. It's no difference to us. Costs a little more on payments, but you have the use of piano and money. It's worth more. The opportunity is yours, it costs nothing to call and see for yourself how much you'll actually save by buying a piano NOW.
