Base Ball

Allentown yesterday, secured Burnham's men a better grip on first place, and as Barnett pitched fine ball at Elmira and held Wilkes-Barre down to a few scattered hits, the local team is now seventy-four points ahead of Kervin, of Section 6 wilkes-Barre, while Reading, by taking P. O'Brien, 2b two games from Jersey City, makes a Toft, a 4 big jump in percentage and is now led Milligan, p 4 by Wilkes-Barre by only four points. Elmira and Allentown are now tie for last place and today meet in two games.

Judging from the listless work of the crowd, Bottenus' men ought to be soon out of their present lowly position. Atlantic League.

SCRANTON WON AGAIN.

Defeated Allentown in a One Sided Game by Score of 11-7-Milligan Did Our Twirling.

Scranton took its fourth straight game from Allentown yesterday in a dull, listless contest, brightened by only a few features. Among these latter, however, was the batting of Pitcher Milligan. In the hard-hitting southpaw's four turns at the bat he landed on Boyle's curves for a single and two doubles. Jack O'Brien also batted well for Scranton, clouting out a double and two singles. At the end of the ninth inning the score stood 11-7, Allentown being outclassed from the first.

Today we meet a foeman worthy of our steel. At $.30 o'clock this morning the team and a large number of local enthusiasts will leave for Wilkes-Barre via the Jersey Central, and there battle for supremacy with Billy Clymer and his band of aristocratic Barons. A rugged lad by the name of Kennedy will twirl for Scranton, and Kervin will do the pitching in this city.

Yesterday's game was begun with a rush. After Jim Delehanty had gone out to Kervin, who was playing center field in the place of Knox, who supplanted McIntyre at first on account of the latter's hand being hurt Monday, best of support. The visitors played without er-Henry singled. Tom Delehanty forced the big centerfielder at second, and Joe Delehanty cracked out a hot one. News came to the bat and hit a beauty to left field, on which the Delehantys

Scranton, however, showed up strongly also. Hub Knoll drew a base on balls. Jack O'Brien singled, "Old Boy" Sheff made first on an error of Kuhn, which scored Hub, and then becoming festive, stole second. Knox's out and Kervin's single scored both.

Milligan singled in the second, Knoll sent a beautiful three-bagger to right and Jack O'Brien and Sheffler doubled, O'Brien's out at first advanced him to McGuire, rf second and Toft's single scored him. The catcher came in on Milligan's double to the right field fence.

Boyle, then took a brace and for the next three innings didn't give a hit. In the seventh, however, Burnham's men decided to make the game sure. Doherty, the first man up, received a base on balls. Pirate O'Brien magnanimously sacrificed him to second, and Toft electrified the crowd by making another hit, a hot drive to right field. Milligan stepped to the bat and Boyle, who had fanned him out in his umphantly, described a parabola with his right leg and sent in a real nice one. He got two strikes on his opponent, and his smile grew almost as expansive as that worn by his colleague, Stimmel, who was getting in loading around the coaching line when hear game. Score: O'Brien was doing his coaching act.

Well, it proved that Boyle's smile was a little previous, as Milligan banged out another two-baser, and Toft scored the second run of the inning. Milligan was run down between second Tate. If and third on Knoll's force. The little Congan, c centerfielder stole second and scored on Jack O'Brien's third safe one.

Allentown, after the first inning, took Feitsch, p rest and did not score until the sixth, when Joe Delehanty's third single. News' force hit, Doherty's error and West's out brought in two more. the seventh, Boyle's hit, errors by Pirate O'Brien and Toft, and outs by Battam, 2b 0 Henry and Tom Delehanty brought in two more tallies. In the eighth, the last run came in on McManus' force hit, of West, who had made first on Knoll's excusable muff of his fly, and Kuhn's beautiful two-bagger to deep
