THEY BREAK EVEN.

Scranton Won on Home Grounds and So Did Wilkes-Barre-Burns Won Game for the Barons.

Scranton broke even with Wilkes-Barre yesterday and as a result still leads the league. The morning game, played at the city down the valley, was won by the Barons by a score of 8-5, a very yellow decision by Umpire Russell in the second inning giving the Luzerne noblemen three runs, and wretched work at short by O'Brien be- Burns, 2b ...... 4 ing responsible for several tallies. Kennedy pitched a fair game, but Schmidt was almost invincible and held Scranton's heavy hitters down to three singles and two doubles.

The afternoon game, played in this city, was witnessed by a crowd of nearly five thousand people, who saw a pitchers' battle, in which Kervin had the better of Goodwin and held the heavy hitting Wilkes-Barreans down to three hits.

The morning game was practically featureless, with the exception of Burns' home run in the sixth inning. The score stood 4-4, Ketcham and Nyce were on bases and two hands were out. Burns, who has been hitting like a fiend all the season and who has a batting average of some-his season, and the 1,500 Wilkes-Barre fans present with one voice.requested him to clear the bases. Wilkes-Barre, here came to the bat, and before the cheers caused by Burns' Goodwin, p ...... 2 drive had subsided started them up afresh by cracking the ball far beyond Dick Knox in center-field for an-

Harry Merrill rubbed his hands and gave a long drawn out ah-h, and the side was then retired by Messitt sending one to Jack O'Brien.

Scranton had the heart taken out from the first. In the second inning Burns sirgled, Colliflower made first on Jack O'Brien's error and Messitt sent a little one to center-field. With the bases full and one out Pitcher Schmidt came to the but. He lined an easy one to Pirate O'Brien, and Scranton's eaptain picking it up turned to tag Messitt, who was making for second. The latter dodged him, but ran out of line in doing so. O'Brien took it for granted that he was out and lined the ball to McIntyre, retiring Schmidt. Russell, however, sald that Messitt was safe, by so doing spoiling a double play and giving Wilkes-Barre three runs which came in on the play and Jack's O'Brien's wild throw to first. The Pirate rushed up to Russell, and striking his pugnacious attitude, showed his Teddy Roosevelt teeth and objected strongly to the play.

"Put him cut of the game!" "Send the kicker to the bench!" "Wut 'er yer fightin' about?" howled the crowd pleasantly, and Pirate at last went back to his bag.

The afternoon game was marked chiefly by Kervin's splendid pitching. up to the last inning he only giving one hit. Several embryo safe ones, however were changed into outs by the splendid ficiding of the entire outfield and Doherty and Jack O'Brien. This latter youth played a game in the morning which was of the hue of a distinctly yellow orange. In the afternoon his work was a splendid exhibition, he taking seven chances, several of which were difficult ones, with the greatest ease. In the fourth inning he made a great backward run and took a fly from Mercy Clymer's bat which looked like a sure safe one. In the fifth inning Catcher Messitt drove one to deep left, which looked a sure two baser at least. Little Knoll dashed into the crowd, however, and for a moment was lost to sight in the mob which was gathered on the field. He pulled in the ball, however, and

The old reliable outfielder dashed around right goes into second place, passing Wilkes- garden like a colt and pulled in several difficult flies, in the eighth pulling in a long high foul from Colliflower's bat in a manner which bordered the phenomenal.

Dick Knox also came in for his share of giory by spolling Wilkes-Barre's chances to score in the last inning. Ketchem was on first base, where a safe drive to left field had lodged him. Scott Stratton, who hadn't made a hit all day, came to the bat, and his big form loomed up ominous and forbidding. He waved his bat threateningly about and at last, getting one to his liking, banged it to deep left center. Knox took it on the run and lined it quickly to Pirate O'Brien. The captain flashed it over to McIntyre in time to catch Ketchem, who had strayed off the base, and the agony was

In the game here the largest crowd seen at Athletic park in several seasons congregated, the grand stand and bleachers being packed, and the crowd extending out on the field in such numbers that a ground rule had to be made that any drive into the crowd was good for two bases only. ## HOT FROM THE BAT.

At Willies-Barre today, Owen and Messitt.

Millican and Millerick.
Forty-five hundred people attended the afternoon game at Reading.

The Elmira outfield in yesterday's second game consisted of Bay, the regular left fielder and Pitchers Barnett and McDougall. It seems to be a race between News, of Allen-town, and Burns, of Wilkes-Barre, for the home run hitting honors. Both men hit the ball in an exceedingly victous manner. Jud Smith, the old Toronto third baseman, is being tried at short by Buffalo. In Tuesday's game with Cleveland he established himself a record by making seven errors.

The small darky who accompanies the Wilkes-Barre team in the dual capacity of bat-carrier and mascot made a big hit with the crowd yes-terday, which let out howls of delight every time he made his appearance.

"Mike Doherty," says Harry Merrill, of the Wilkes-Barre Record, "is the crack third base.

The Recherche club gave an enj man of this year's Atlantic league. Coughlin, Schaub and Doberty were last year the three stars at third, but this year Doberty leads them all." Allentown has made another shift in the team. Pitcher West was yesterday tried at second base the change worked well. In the two games West a made one run and four hits and accepted without an error ten chances.

Tomorrow is an open date, no game being schoduled for Scranton. Managers Burnham and Clymer have, however, come to an agreement by which the Barons will play here, one of the pares scheduled for later in the sesson being played. Kennedy will probably twirl for Scran-

Kervin's three-bagger yesterday afternoon was heauty. The chunky southpaw first drove out a dandy toward left field which seemed to nearly every one present to drop safe. Russell, how-ever, said it was foul, and the youngster then drove it high above Ketchem's head for three Manager Sharsig says he isn't finding fault with his players for losing games at present and the East park auction at Carbon-He says it is mighty hard to win a game dale proving the principal points of atagainst a local umpire. The last two games were lost on account of Tom Delehanty's finger seing knocked out. Allentown would have won had Tom been all right.—Allentown Daily Leader.

Judging from the number of persons who turned out at vesterday's games, base ball is not quite dead yet. The following are the National league figures: Morning games-At Philadelphia, 10,471; at New York, 3,000; at Brook-lyn, 5,900; at Boston, 4,500. Afternoon games-At Philadelphia, 18,531; at New York, 15,000; at Brooklyn, 11,000; at Boston, 8,000.

It's an odd thing that every one seems to taink Umpire Russell is a Scranton man. The Wilkes-Barre scribes had that impression and it now appears that the Allentown men labor under the same delusion. Russell hails from Reading and was last year a player himself. As for the assertion that Allentown would have won had Tom Delchanty's finger been all right, that's all bosh. In the two games Thomas played Scranton won as easily as the ones in which News subbed for him. The local boys played live, real hall, while Sharsig's men were like a lot of automatoms.

Memorial Day Observances-Died in Ohio-Personal News.

Memorial day was observed yesterday as a general holiday, all the collieries being idle and stores closed. A large number of people spent the day out of town, Lake Lodore, Crystal lake traction. The usual exercises were held in the morning, under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans, Revs. Maynard R. Thompson of the Bantist: Thomas Cook of the Primitive Methodist, and M. D. Fuller, of the Methodist Episcopal churches, being the speakers. At usual salute was fired over the graves by a squad of the Sons of Veterans, The attendance at the cemetery was not nearly as large as on former occasions.

Word was yesterday received of the death of John McNulty, a well-known young man, formerly of Mayfield, and who about a month ago went to Ohio. Particulars of his death are somewhat difficult to obtain, but it is understood he was either injured while playing ball or died suddenly from exhaustion at the conclusion of the game. His death is a severe blow to his parents and relatives. It is expected the remains will be brought home for interment. Dennis Sullivan, of the East Side, who a few months ago had his eye injured by a piece of flying coal while at work in Johnson's mine at Priceburg, underwent an operation in the Lackawanna hospital on Tuesday and had the eye removed, it having been found necessary to do this to save the sight of the other eye.

Mrs. Evans, of West Pittston, was a isitor here yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Willman and daughter, Mandane, spent yesterday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Woodward at Dunmore.

Mrs. Dr. Baker and two children, of Duryea, are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Thomas Champion, of Second street, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, at Dundaff.

The Women's Home Missionary society will hold their monthly meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Cudlip, of Fourth street.
