THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1900.

Comrade F. A. Adams, and the address was delivered by Rev. E. J. Schmidt, of the Hickory Street Pres-byterian church. At St. Mary's Cath-oile cemetery the address was by Rev. Peter Christ, rector of St. Mary's Ger-man Catholic church.

THE AFTERNOON PARADE.

Organizations That Participated in the Demonstration.

The big feature of the afternoon and of the day, for that matter, was the usual Memorial Day parade, which started at 2 o'clock. There have been larger parades in this city on Memorial Day, but never, as to personnel, any better ones. The Thirteenth turned out in force, as did also the several posts of army veterans, and all made a splendid appearance. A conspicuous feature was the absence from line of the patriotic civic societies.

Dense throngs of people were in evi-dence on the streets from 12 w'clock up to the time of starting. The largest crowds were gathered on Lacka-wanna and Wyoming avenues, and in front of the municipal and government buildings. The parade was a lit-tie late in starting, but finally swung into line at 2 o'clock as several salutes were fired from a brass cannon on the court house lawn, manned by a squad of boys from the Harford Sol-diers' Orphans' school,

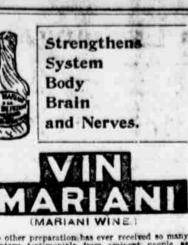

One division of the parade formed on Jefferson avenue, right resting on Spruce street: the second formed on Wyoming avenue, right resting on Mulberry street, while the third division formed on Spruce street, right resting on Jefferson avenue. The start was made at the corner of Jefferson avenue and Spruce street, and the line of march extended out as far as Pine street and thence back through the principal streets of the central city and disbanded at the corner of Wyoming avenue and Linden street.

MAKE-UP OF PARADE.

First in line rode Colonel Ezra H. Ripple, grand marshal, his staff, E. L. Buck and the following aides, all on horseback: Major C. E. Mink, Colonel H. A. Coursen, W. T. Simpson, E. L. Walter, Thomas Sprague, Fred Stark, F. W. Martin, William L. Nash and Dr. Russell. Then came forty policemen in two lines of twenty each. headed by Chief Robling and marching with soldierly precision. They were followed by Colonel

Watres, of the Thirteenth regiment, and his staff officers, all mounted and forming a remarkably even line all during the line of march. Bauer's Thirteenth Regiment band of thirtyfive pleces came after in their new military uniforms, and behind them Cooper. followed the light home companies of the regiment in full uniform with leggings. It is safe to say that the regiment never presented a better appearance than it did yesterday, even before it was disrupted and then reorganized. Each company had nearly a full quota been carefully arranged by Professor of men in line and the military swing Watkins and was successfully and adand dash to their marching betokened the result of long and constant drilling. The companies appeared in the "The Chimes of Normandy," by the following order, B, D, C, K, F, L, G Scranton Mandolin club, who played and H, and it would be useless to at- with especial taste and discretion. When the head of the parade, just before disbandment, reached the middle of the block on Linden street, between Adams and Washington avenue, Colonel Ripple and his aides dropped out and reviewed it. When the Thirteenth reached Linden street, between Washington and Wyoming avnues, the companles were formed in company formation along the northerly curb and stood at "present" as the old soldlers passed by. There were tears in the eyes of many of the latter as they passed the line.

OTHER FEATURES OF THE DAY.

Memorial Exercises in the Afternoon and Entertainment at Night.

Holding fast to their annual custom the members of Ezra Griffin post, No. 139, Grand Army of the Republic, conducted a memorial service yesterday afternon at 3.30 o'clock in their rooms on Lackawanna avenue, in devout commemoration of their deceased comrades of the past year.

The exercises were commenced with the singing of the "Vacant Chair" by the Schubert quartette. Prayer was then offered by Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. The ritualistic memorial services were next performed, after which brief addresses were made by Commander A. B. Stevens and Rev. Mr. Sweet. The exercises were closed with the singing of "In the Sweet By and By," by the quartette.

The following are the comrades who have passed away since last Memorial Day: Joshua R. Thomas, David R. Davis, Rudolph Winebrake, Charles Mellick, Samuel G. Brader, John S. Short, John Anneman, Egerton J. Sinnon, George Forrest and John P.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

In the evening a concert and entertainment was given in the Lyceum by the John T. Watkins Concert company, before an audience which nearly filled the theater. The programme had mirably carried out. It opened with an overture from "The Chimes of Normandy," by the

LIVE NEWS OF THE' INDUSTRIAL WORLD BUILDING FOR SMALL MANU-FACTURERS.

Colonel F. L. Hitchcock Believes the Dickson Pattern Shop on Vine Street Is Admirably Adapted for That Purpose-Work Was Suspended Yesterday in the Mines and Shops of This City-Make-up of the D., L. & W. Board for Today. Increase of Wages.

Colonel F. L. Hitchcock, one of the most active members of the board of trade, has interested himself in the plan suggested by Secretary Atherton at the last meeting of that body re garding the establishment of a man ufacturers' building in this city, for the convenience of a number of small industries now desirous of locating here.

Secretary Atherton's plan at first was to have such a building constructed, but Colonel Hitchcock avers that the building is already constructed, namely-the pattern shop of the Dickson Manufacturing company on Vine street, which is soon to be vacated by the company for a more conveniently located structure to be erected immediately adjoining the muin works. The pattern shop has accordingly been placed on the market, and it would appear to be especially adapted for manufacturing purposes. It is 145x 168 feet in size, four stories high and is built of brick. It is so substantially constructed, Colonel Hitchcock says, that four stories more might be added if necessary. It is fitted throughout with electric lights and has water on all the floors.

Another advantage is that it has an alley on the side, thus insuring excellent light under all conditions. Steam power might be installed in necessary, or it could be obtained from the Dickson plant. Another advantage is that the Delaware and Hudson railroad and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western roads are only half a block away. This would insure almost perfect shipping facilities. Colonel Hitchcock's plan is to interest local capitalists sufficiently in the scheme to have them subscribe liberally to a stock company to be formed for the purpose of purchasing and maintaining the building. The building can be bought ouright, he says, for between $50,000 and $50,000, and he believes that a paid up cap-Ital of the latter amount would be amply sufficient. "It's a twenty per cent. investment," said he yesterday to a Tribune man, "to anyone who has money to lay out." Secretary Atherton says that he will guarantee to fill the building with small manufactures in a month's time, "There are numbers clamoring to locate here," he says, "if they could only secure suitable quarters."

Work Suspended.

The industrial and business interests throughout the city were generally suspended yesterday, and the employer of shops, mines, mills, factories and stores enjoyed the day in various WAYS.

All of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western offices, mines and shops were closed, and the Delaware and for the day. The north and south well. SECOND DIVISION.

After the Thirteenth came the Second division, marshaled by Post Commander S. B. Mott, of Post 139. This division was headed by the South Scranton Patriotic Order, Sons of America drum corps, which was followed by Ezra Griffin post, No. 139, the largest post in the city. The grand army men grow older year by year. but, even the oldest and the grayest seem to take the keenest delight in marching on Memorial Day. The majority carried canes and did not seem to be fatigued by the long march. Behind the Griffin post marched the Colonel Monies' post, No. 319, and after them came Lieutenant Ezra Griffin camp, No. 8, Sons of Veterans, in full uniform and carrying guns,

After the Sons of Veterans followed the drum corps belonging to that organization and then came some forty members of the Spanish-American War Veterans' association in the khaki uniforms and campaign hats worn by them while in service during the late war. Immediately following them came another drum corps and then the Harford boys with their can-

The last division was entirely composed of carriages containing several of the city officials and a number of the older veterans unable to walk.

A SORRY SIGHT

It is, to see a strong man shaken like a reed by a paroxysm of coughing, which leaves him gasping for breath. People leaves him gasping for breath. People have suffered with bronchial affections for years, with obstinate, stubborn cough, and growing weakness. They have tried doctors and medicines in vain. At last they have been induced to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, with the general result experienced by all who put this wonder ful medicine to the test-help at once, and a speedy cure. For coughs, bron-chial affections, weak lungs, spitting of blood, and other diseases of the or-gans of respiration, "Goldon Medical Discovery" is prac-tically a specific. It always helps; it al most always cures.

Professor Watkins rendered the solo with that wonderful deep and sonorous baritone of his and the choir joined in he chorus Miss Pauline Cogswell Hart next gave a reading from Ouida's "Under two Flags," which was well received. David Stephens gave an illustrated ballad and a trio composed of Miss Matthews and Messrs. John and Jones rendered "The Mariners." After the quartette had given two concluding numbers the programme was brought to a close with the singing of "America" by the audience.

LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Judge Simonton Decides Against Bicycle Sidepaths.

At Harrisburg, Judge Simonton, of he Dauphin county courts, has handed down an opinion declaring unconstitutional the law providing for bicycle sidepaths. In his opinion, he says:

The making and maintaining of street, roads, sidewalks or sidepaths of whatever kind are certainly municipal functions; one of the most important duties of municipalities is to make important duties of municipalities is to make and maintain these, and if the commission pro-vided for in the act in question should exercise the powers delegated to them by the act, they would unquestionably be performing a "munic-ipal function." We cannot doubt, therefore, that the act is repugnant to the section of the con-stitution shows owned.

the act is beginner to the section of the con-stitution above quoted. We are by no means satisfied that it is not also repugnant to other clauses of the consti-tution, but do not consider it necessary to de termine this. We rest our decision on the even clusion we have just stated.
