DUNMORE DOINGS.

Marriage of John Lynch and Miss Margaret Biglin - Coming Musicale in M. E. Church.

A pretty wedding ceremony was performed Wednesday evening at 4 o'clock St. Mary's Catholic church, on Chestnut street, when Miss Margaret Biglin, of this borough, became the wife of John Lynch, of Scranton. At the appointed hour Rev. M. B. Donlan met the couple at the altar and tied the nuptial knot. Miss Lena Cooligan, of Scranton, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Patrick Sweeney, of South Scranton, acted as best man. After the ceremony the newly married couple took a pleasant carriage ride.

Later a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother in this borough, where numerous congratulations were given the couple. Many costly and useful gifts were presented to the happy young people. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch took the midnight train for New York city, and will be gone on a bridal tour of several weeks, visiting some of the principal cities of the east. Upon their return they will make their home for Attacking War Office. Paris, May 31 .- The first measure of the new minister of war, General Andre, on taking over the war office, is an order for the prosecution of the Dreyfusard paper, the Aurore, for an article printed yesterday by Urbain Gohier, violently attacking the headquarters staff, in connection with the Captain Fritsch affair.

"These officer detectives," said M. Gohler, "In case of war would sell to the enemy our forts, armies and provinces, as they sold them before in time of peace. They engage in Jobbery in army contracts, sell crosses of honor and all sorts of documents. they do not possess authentic documents they manufacture forgeries, for the military trade is the school of treason, as it is of lying, stealing and murder."

M. Gohler is the author of the book, "The Army Against the Nation," which created such an outery on account of its denunciation of the army, and for which he was prosecuted. On the reassembling of the chamber of deputies this afternoon the opposition attempted to raise a debate on the resolutions of the Marquie De Galliffet's resignation as minister of war, but an interpellation to that effect by M. De Grandmaison (Republican), got short shrift from the chamber, which, at the request of the premier, M. Waldeck-Rousseau, adjourned its consideration for a month.

Prince D'Arenberg, Radical Republican, however, selzed the opportunity to affirm that the former minister of war was in perfect health, and, amid nationalist cheers and laughter, he added: "We wish as much health to M. Waldeck-Rousseau and his minis-

Ex-Queen Liliuokalani May Sue the United States for Them. San Francisco, May 31 .- The Call says that ex-Queen Lilliuokalani has decided to bring suit against the United States government for the restoration of the crown lands and revenues. Colonel G. W. MacFarlane, her confidential advisor, said in reference to the matter:

"I have advised the queen to consult Joseph O. Carter, her private agent, before bringing suit. A syndicate was formed last winter, which offered to employ the best attorneys in the United States to press her claims, and briefs and other papers for her case have been prepared.

"There is nothing to prevent her assigning her claim to the crown lands to whoever she may please, and the case may be tried in foreign courts; but, in any event, it is likely that action will be brought before the next session of congress."

PLAGUE IN AUSTRALIA.

Disease Under Control in Sidney and Dying Out.

Chicago, May 31.-Bubonic plague, which has been epidemic in Sidney, Australia, is under control there and lying out, according to a private cable nessage received by Charles Oliver, ead of the commission in charge of the New South Wales rallways, who is visiting Chicago.

"Sydney is one of the healthlest cities in the world," said Mr. Ollver. "The authorities have fought the plague from the start and although there have been a number of deaths from the disease, it has been at no time beyond control. The plague was brought into Sydney by a vessel early in March. It spread from the wharves and broke out in different parts of the city, among those who had business around the wharves. Some cases occurred twenty miles from the source of the disease, but the cases were promptly cared for by the authorities, who sent special trains out in the country to
