The only game in the Atlantic league on Saturday was played in this city, in which Scranton defeated Wilkes Barre, winning out in the twelfth inning with one run to the good. TWELVE INNINGS PLAYED

Garone Fought Desperately for Victory but Were Outclassed by Burnham's Band of Base Ball Batters.

Had Reading's pennant chasers been permitted to perform at Athletic park the fact that the team which repre- van. Umpire-Emslie. sents Scranton is not only the real thing in the way of base ball, but that they are also some pumpkins when it comes to performing in extra inning contests. Invariably whenever teams of former years were called upon to play more than nine insings, the spectators would begin to whistle and hum that familiar strain of "It's all over now" and make a break for the exits and street cars. But on Saturday the fans lighted fresh clgars, dropped back in their seats and prepared to root themselves hoarse and take chances on partaking of cold sup-

A prettier and more even game up to the ninth inning was never wit-nessed anywhere, both pitchers being affective and the fielders straining every nerve to give proper support. Kerwin pitched a masterly game and Schmidt succeeded in fooling Scranton's heaviest hitters, but the former allowed two hits up to the ninth, a single by Stratton and a triple by Clymer in the fourth netting an earned run for Wilkes-Barro. Scranton tailled one in the second on a single by McIntyre, a sacrifice by Doherty and P. With two balls and a strike called on him, the scrappy shortstop smashed grass-cutter into right field and landed safely on the initial bag. Charley Nyce, the next man up, was threatened with his release if he didn't bring Clymer home, and with the swing of a Delehanty lit on the ball victously, sending a scorcher into Sheffler's territory. Little Johnny Burns was the next man up, and after Captain Clymer took him one side and whispered something in his ear, the Avoca boy sent a line drive over second base, scoring Myce. That put the Barons one run to the good and incidentally brought the spectators to their feet.

In Scranton's half of the minth P. O'Brien flew out to center and Burnham sent Milligan up to bat in place of Millerick. The heavy-hitting southpaw banged a terrific hit into the Friday night. with Principal Bryden. The factional fight caused by the elected principal of the high school about a year ago has been watched with keen interest. Last winter he hired the opera house and denounced his enemies. Then he appealed to the people at the February election and was elected to the school board by an overwhelming majority over the most popular Republican in a normally Re-publican district. OUR ITALIANS.

Eighty Per Cent. of Them Unskilled Laborers.

J. G. Speed, fn Ainslee's.

The Italians, who have taken the place in the field of labor formerly oc-cupied by the Irish, constitute a very building, 125 Washington avenue, Scranton. important part of our foreign populadays ago, is in a very critical condi- tion, and as they are still coming in great numbers, their presence with us is the cause of much interesting speculation. In 1890 the Italians were only 182 580. Of these 118 106 were in the North Atlantic states: 4.894 in the South Atlantic; 21,837 in the North Central; in the South Central 12,314, and in the Western 24.914. There is a general impression that these Italians, most of them men, come here to work very hard for a few years and then to go back to live in easy idleness on their savings. There may be something in this, for they do go back and forth a great deal. For instance, in 1897, there were 59,431 Italian arrivals, and of these 10,913 had been in the United States before. It may be depended upon that most of those thus returning come to stay permanently. In the nine years since the census was taken 554,072 Italians have come into this country as immigrants and re-immi-

If half of these who were here in 1890 have gone back, and one-fourth of those who have since arrived have also returned, then the Italian population may bet set down as 511,844. however, is mere guesawork and has no statistical value. But from what I am told by the officials of the bureau of immigration, I fancy that the guess is pretty accurate, and that the Italian opulation in American is not far on either side from half a million. They do not bring as many women as other immigrants, so it is only natural for those who mean to make permanent homes to go back for their sweethearts and their families. Of the 78,740 Italians who came last year only 23,400 were females. They are more illiterate than any other immigrants that we have, as only about half of them can read. The Russians (Hebrews) crowd the Italians pretty closely in this regard, as 41 per cent, of them are illiterate. These Hebrews, however, about learning to read very quickly when they are still young enough. while comparatively few of their children are suffered to grow up without going to school. The Italians, as I have said before are the public works laborers of the time. They work diligently with the pick and shovel, and the Irish bosses make them perform prodigious tasks with these implements which the Irish have in great measure discarded. Probably eighty per cent. of the Italian immigrants are unskilled laborers. But they take to other things very kindly. They have actually driven th negroes out of the bootblacking field. and even the Irish porters now at the best hotels no longer have a monopoly of polishing the boots of the guests. They are amiable people, and very apt to be law-abiding. They are hottempered, if is true, or rather quicktempered. Their fights, however, are generally smong themselves, and in nearly nine cases out of ten these are the result of jealousy. It may be that when there are women enough to go round they will leave off using the stiletto entirely. In New York, at least, they are no longer extensively in the fruit business, which they one menopolized. The itinerants who now polish apples and carry them about in parts are nearly all Greeks. At any rate, the Italians are new doing very useful work in America, work that it would be difficult to find others to de unless we crened the doors to the Chi-
