IN MOSCOW SCHOOLS.

Interesting Commencement Exercise Held Tuesday Evening. On Tuesday evening the commence ment exercises of the Moscow graded school was held in Independent Orde son, after an illness of a number of of Odd Fellows' hall. At 8 o'clock the weeks, passed away. Dr. Maxson was orchestra opened the exercises with an prominent citizen of Forest City, overture that was very pleasing and naving practiced his profession here was loudly applauded. "O'er Billows for the past twelve years, and his Our Light Boat Is Dancing" was sung by the school, and without exception with his family in their bereavement. the programme was carried out as printed, and though space forbids us giving a detailed account of every number, yet the fine work of many of the scholars called forth loud applause. Among these the well-rendered songs of Miss Cordelia Pyle, Mary Depew. and the Masters Frank Noack and Harold Martin, the sweet singing of "We're Always Wishing," by six girls, and the chorus work of the tots in "Old-Time Plays" was greatly apprecinted:

The dialogues were good, especially "Hoy Talk," by four boys; "The Morning Call," by the Misses Elizabeth Lyman and Mae Hornbacker; "Eight O'Clock," by Lou Travis and Helen Dixon, and "The Heroes in Blue and Gray." in which several from the grammar department took part.

Among the declaimers the impressveness of Mr. John Campbell, the earnestness of Misses Helena Hollister, Lena Sayer and Valedictorian Nellie Campbell, and the Masters Jesse Gardner and Howard Teager; the evident appreciation of refined comedies exhibited by Mabel Chubb, Edna Maone and Laura Chubb were the features that merited special mention.

Another special feature of the enter tainment was the parasol drill by the intermediate department. The diplomas were presented to the graduating class by the president of the school board, Mr. Dings, who made a very interesting speech. The several selections by the orhestra were very well rendered. The entertainment was closed with a ong by the school, "Last Night in the Gloaming," and thus closed an entertainment that not only afforded a pleasurable evening, but emphasized the possibilities of the American free
