PICKPOCKETS' HARVEST.

They Gather Shekels Right and Left at Stroudsburg.

Special to the Scraston Tribune Stroudsburg, June 7 .- A rich harvest was reaped by pickpockets, burglars and "other crooked gentlemen" Wednesday, during the parade of the Four County Firemen's association. It is thought that nearly four thousand about two miles. dollars was stolen. Some of the heav!est losers were those who came here to witness the parade. No arrests were made by the police, showing that the invaders had things pretty much their own way. F. B. Hildebrand, of near Columbia, N. Y., was the largest loser, the pickpockets getting away with a small fortune. Early on Wednesday evening Chief of Police Welter received [nesday. the following telegram: "My pocket picked getting on train tonight at 6 Large pocketbook, two fivehundred dollar bonds, two hundred dollars in cash. Warren county bankbook eight hundred in notes. (Signed) F.

B. Hildebrand."

Hildebrand is wealthy and can stand the loss without inconvenience. He had checks to the amount of $125 cashed at the East Stroudsburg National bank, The bonds are not registered and are easily negotiable. Among others who suffered at the hands of the pickpockets are the following: John Widman a Bethlehem brewer, lost purse containing $20; Thomas Slack, of Portland, pocketbook with $22; John Woodling, of Mt. Pocono, fine silver watch; John S. Osborne, of South Sterling, had his pocket picked of about $25, and a note against A. E. Gilpin; Rev. J. W. Heintz, paster of Grace Lutheran church, of East Stroudsburg, wallet containing $25, and two clerical tickets for Philadelphia; L. H. Burnett, of East Stroudsburg, pocket picked of $7; Oscar Stemple, of East Stroudsburg, fine gold watch; Thomas Altemose, of Cilberts, $40, while viewing the parade; Jesse Euch, of Portland, $50; Dr. Bird, of Ogdensburg, N. Y., between $50 and $60; Councilman Fred Fable, $4; E. T. Smith, residence entered and $200 in cash stolen; George Brotzman, of East Stroudsburg house, robbed and pockets picked of $4.

BATTLE BETWEEN A BUZZARD AND A RATTLESMAKE.

Mormon Elders Claim to Have Made Three Converts in Susquehanna County-A Promising Railroad Project Gives Up the Ghost. Present Location of the Private Car of the Late Jim Fiske-A Few Stray Thoughts.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, June 7 .- A Susquehanna teamster was on Tuesday a witness to a singular encounter between a buzzard and a rattlesnake. While driving his team to a rocky point near Starucca he heard a peculiar shrick given by an eagle engaged in contest with one of its kind. Alighting from his wagon, the teamster discovered, nearby, an eagle battling with a rattlesnake fully five feet in length. The carcass of a dead lamb evidently been feeding on it when it discovered the snake, which, no doubt, had been basking in the sun on a rock. The eagle, with its large, bloodred eyes almost dilating from its sockets, and wings half extended, would walt for the snake to coil and strike, and then cluding its stroke with wonderful dexterity, would dart at its antagonist, and batter it with wings and talons before it could recoll again, and would then retract and wait for another opportunity to attack. The fight was waged in this manner until the snake, torn and lacerated, stretched out lifeless, but the eagle seized it with its claws, and, with a shrick of victory, flew away w'th its prize.

WHERE THE MONEY WENT. When the accounts of a Susquehanna county township treasurer were found short, there was the usual excitement and the usual number theories were advanced as to how he had used the money. 'Gentlemen," said the supervisor, "I know where the money went to, and I have no plty in my heart for such rascal. "Did he gamble?" "Oh. no.

The Mormon elders claimed to have made quite a number of converts in Susquehanna county, but none of the fools have yet departed for Utah. It may not be generally known, but the fact is nevertheless true, that the man who will beat a carpet in the back yard is greater than he who stays down town until midnight talking politics.
