CHILD TERRIBLY BURNED.

Distressing Accident to Rose Locher, 4 Year Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Locher.

Little four-year-old Rose Locher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Locher, of 119 Penn avenue, while playing with several little companions yesterday morning, tried to build a fire, as result of which her clothing caught fire, and she was taken to the Lackawanna hospital, suffering from terrible burns all over her body and face. SPECIAL SERVICES IN A NUM BER OF THE CHURCHES.

CHILDREN'S DAY

The Service at the Penn Avenue Baptist Church Was Arranged by the Pastor, Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce and Was Especially Elaborate, Including a Beautiful Electric Display-Services at the First and Second Presbyterian Churches and at the Grace Lutheran.

Children's day was generally observed yesterday in a large number of the city churches, the exercises in many instances being exceedingly elaborate and in all cases largely attended, the weather being almost ideally per-

Perhaps the most elaborate service of all was that given at the Penn Ave-Scranton and Carbondale High nue Baptist church under the direction of Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce, D. D., the pastor. This service was especially arranged by Dr. Plerce for the American Baptist Publication society for use in all of the Baptist churches throughout the country and is called "Gospel Bells."

The church was elaborately decorated. On the organ was a large electrical device representing the first bars of "Joyous Gospel Bells." The notes and numerals were composed of incandescent lights. At the front of the platform was arranged another claborate device, which was used in illustrating the emblematic piece, Water of Life," which was the feature of the service.

This device consisted of a life size epresentation of an old-fashioned well, with its long pole and other accoutrements, the pole resting on a cross instead of on a forked branch. The whole was studded with over 150 incandescent lights.

The various characters represented n the illustration of this emblematic piece were as follows: Leader, Miss Julia E. Hay; Wealth, Miss Mabel Hanis; Pleasure, Miss Jennie Burns; Fame, Miss Phoebe MacQuaw; Fash-ion, Miss Ethel V. Grant; education Miss Della M. Moore; Burmah, Miss Evelyn D. Gates; India, Miss Minnie Powell; China, Miss Mary Davis; Africa, Miss Dora Griggs; Islands of the Sea, Miss Minnie Kiefer; Errors' Chains, Miss Lillian Bates; Mercy, Miss Louisa Rought.

The leader stood near the well, and at her side stood Mercy. Each of the characters advanced wearing crowns bearing their names upon them. Each told of their seeking after something beyond the mere pleasures of this life and each were in turn permitted by the leader to drink of the "Water of Life," which is Christ. As each quaffed the cup their crowns were removed by Mercy and replaced with others bearwords "Immortality" and

"Eternal Life." The other part of the programme was also very attractive and was participated in principally by the primary children, who were seated upon the platform to the number of 200 or more. Superintendent Luther Keller acted as participated were John Harlow, Dickson Horton. Hattle Estelle, Ethel Burns, mass of flames. Her young compan- Alex. Compton. The singing of the First Presbyterian Church.

The Children's Day exercises at the First Presbyterian church were conducted in the afternoon at 4 o'clock in lieu of the usual evening service, were largely attended by the members of the congregation and were most interesting and enjoyable.

The programme or order of worship used was prepared by Rev. Dr. James A. Worden, of the Presbyterian board of publication and Sabbath school work. The pulpit and surrounding rostum were plentifully and tastefully decorated with laurel and the church presented a most beautiful appearance, the children, full of youthful enthusiasm, being seated in the front pews. The exercises were opened with the singing of "Forward Be Our Watchby the congregation, after which the pastor, Rev. James Mc-Leod, D. D., offered prayer. After the singing of "Raise the Song of Triumph." by the congregation, there was a responsive Scripture reading, followed by the singing of the hymn,

'Looking Upward Every Day." Several little children, prettily and recitations, Among these were Margaret Connell, Marguerite Barker and Harry Pruemer, The recitations, all which were cleverly given, were followed by the singing of "We Sing a Loving Jesus." The exercises of the primary department were then given, under the direction of Mrs. Smith. The little children sang several hymns in pleasing manner, led by William Myers, and recitations were given by [LETTER TO MES. PINEMAN NO. 64,492] "DEAR MRS, PINKHAM-I think it is my duty to write to you expressing my sincere gratitude for the wonderful relief I have experienced by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried different doctors, also different kinds of medicine. I would feel better at times, then would be as bad as ever.

Mrs. Pinkham's Medicine Made

"For eight years I was a great sufferer. I had falling of the womb and was in such misery at my monthly periods I could not work but a little before I would have to lie down. Your medicine has made a new woman of me. I can now work all day and not get tired. I thank you for what you have done for me. I shall always praise your medicine to all suffering women." -MRS. E. E. KUHN, GERMANO, OHIO.

"I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used two packages of your Sanative Wash, also some of the Liver Pills, and I can say that your remedies will do all that you claim for them. Before taking your remedies I was very bad with womb trouble, was nervous, had no ambition, could not sleep, and my food seemed to do me no good. Now I am well, and your medicine has cured me. I will gladly recommend your medcine to every one wherever I go."-Mrs. M. L. Shears, Gun Marsh, Mich.

Carr. After the primary exercises, Dr. Worden's letter of congratulation and encouragement, addressed to all the Presbyterian Sunday schools in the ountry, was read and then the pastor emeritus, Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan, gave a brief address, in which he told the children of Christ's wondrous love for them. A collection for the establishment of Sunday schools in the far west was then taken up, after which the congregation sang "Put on the Armor of Our God." Before the singing of the Doxology, which marked the closing exercises, Dr. McLeod, at the request of A. W. Dickson, the superintendent of the Sunday school, who presided during the services, offered a fervent prayer for the safekeeping of the Christian missionaries now in danger in far-off China.

Second Presbyterian Church.

"The most attractive Children's day exercises ever conducted in this church," was the general verdict of all of the members of the Second Presby terian church who witnessed the splendid programme presented in that church yesterday morning by the children of the primary department of the Sunday school, under the direction of Prof. J. M. Chance and Miss Me-Gaughey.

At the Grace Lutheran church the day was appropriately observed in the morning. The church itself was prettily decorated, roses, palms, ferns and wild flowers giving the place an air symbolical of the summer season. The primary school went through exercises, under the teacher, Mrs. Clara Wilcox, and "The Child of Nazareth" was recited by Irene Lorenz, and "The Little Prayer" by Irene Siebecker.

Clara Haas read "A Scrap of a Story," and the pastor, Rev. Waring, then gave an interesting address. He chose his text from John 21: 15, and spoke of the benefits brought to the world by Christ and Christianity, speaking particularly of the great charitable institutions, such as orphan asylums, homes for the infirm and aged and other like institutions, to which the heathen paid no attention. He spoke of the great Francke's orphanage at Halle, Germany, where in two hundred years one hundred thousand young people have received their educations. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publica-tion, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not responsibility for opinions here expressed.]

The Drawing of Jurors.

Editor of The Tribunefir: The sharp arraignment by Judge Savage one of the juries drawn before him last week, reported in the daily papers, should make ears of every self-resp inty tingle. In effect Jodge Savage charged pdering a false verdict. That a comparative rendering a laise vertice. That a comparative stranger, who would naturally shrink from making such a charge, was moved by his just indignation to do so, speaks volumes as to the character of men who are selected for jurors in

Our own judges have over and over again in recent years condemned in a similar and even more emphatic manner, the unwarranted verdicts of juries. Every honest and self-respecting member of the bar will confirm the judgment of the courts, thus expressed, that to a large ex-tent the character of the names selected for jury duty is not such as to inspire any confi-dence on the part of persons practicing in the courts that verdicts will be rendered in acrdance with the law and evidence. The re-onsibility for this condition of afflairs rests imarily with the people, who have heretofore en too indifferent as to the character of jury ommissioners selected. One-third of the names placed in the jury wheel each year are chosen by one of the n bers of the court, and the rames so chosen have always constituted a redeeming leaven in the make-up of the juries, but they are utterly over-whelmed by the other two-thirds which are selected by irresponsible, and to use no stronger expression, unreliable jury commissioners. This raignment of our jury panel by a capable non-sident jurist like Judge Savage, comes at a calliarly fitting time, when the voters of the unty are upon the point of selecting new jury mmissioners to serve them for a term of three cers. The voters of the county have now a opportunity to root out this abuse, and the epublican voters are especially fortunate in uring for a candidate E. B. Sturges, esq., whose name is a synoym for uprightness, honor and fair dealing; who is a cambidate for the office, ot for what is in it, either legally or illegally ut solely in the interests of the honest admin stration of justice; who has pledged himself f elected, to make selection of jurors not from ny particular class, creed or nationality, but ith a sole view to the selection of men who will regard the sanctity of their oath when called upon to pass upon the question involving the dearest property and personal rights of the citiens; and whose position as a candidate ha been approved by the practically unanimou voice of the press of the city and county. The Keystone Republican club has labored indefatigably to place one of your number upon the city police force without success. The Hon, Will-iam Connell's record is cogently set forth in a circular, now undoubtedly read by every sional district, the data of which no one will gainsay.

That record is not one of a jawsmith, but rath er that of the blacksmith, the ring of whose anvil has been heard during the past around the globe. This congress and the last one, unlike ta predecessors, have signalized the new cer-tury both by becoming the legislators whose Solomon's wisdom must sooner or later ranterialize and modernize the purposes and policies of all races of men now and to come into these extensive fields of the earth.

Colonel Ezra H. Both our church and our club are indebted to the gallant celonel for his many deeds of charity. What is thus true of Colonel Ripple is almost true of both T. P. Daniels and John Copeland. Then it follows that your few friends who may aspire for positions should be cordially support-ed while your enemies should be sternly re-buked. The charge is boldly made that you are not as harmonious as you ought to be, To which I reply that you are not only haronious, but more so than any people in ity and that it is impossible for you to be therwise. To you I deem it my duty to say you must not expect one man to do all the sighting without your showing or rendering some assistance. DYNAMITE BOMB FOUND.

Effort Made to Blow up the Building on Providence Road Occupied by John Hawks.

An attempt was made some time Friday night to blow up the residence of McGann and Josephine Geary, Edward John Hawks, on Providence road, between Court and Philo streets. One of the young lady members of the family on Saturday morning found a nitro-glycerine cartridge about ten inches long on the roof of the porch, which is used as a balconv. The cartridge had a fuse attached and this fuse was burned to within a quarter of an inch of the cartridge itself. Had it exploded it is terrible to think of the consequences which might have resulted. It is believed that the intention was to throw it into the building through one of the windows.
