The fforal decorations were the most elaborate ever arranged. A fountain of water, constructed by J. T. Rendle, was the chief attraction. The fountain was surrounded by ferns and the bubbling water falling on them made a picturesque sight. The contributions to the cause of education were in advance of last year, and ten children were haptized by the pastor.

After an organ voluntary, a chorus was rendered by the school, and Arthur Bateman delivered the address of welcome. Clara Snow extended the Children's day greeting, and recitations were given by Eleazer Carey, Mary Parsons, Nellie House, Edna Parsons, Stanley Ross and May Nile. Several songs were rendered by the school and special exercises were given by the primary department. Hilda Parsons, Viola Rendle and Carrie Stephens also participated in the special exercises, Miss Hammit made the announcement for the Dalsy mission and Rev. Beninger made a short address, the various departments. The programme consisted of choruses, recitations and solos, and an address of welcome by Clarence Fraunfelter. Master D. Herbert Williams sang "Once in Bethlehem" and recitations were given by Eloise Thomas Lillian and Laura Wooler, Ethel Davis, Maud Wagstaff, Edith Morgan and others. Charles Godshall rendered a "Jesus Was Once a Little Child," and Master Williams also sang, "No Hope in Jesus" in excellent voice, Altogether the various exercises were credit to the pupils and displayed inusual talent and proficiency in the different departments.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

The residents in the vicinity of Robson and Ninth streets were startled shortly before 11 o'clock last night by the report of a pistol shot, but from whence it came is a complete mystery. A number of Italians were carousing in the vicinity and two of the number engaged in a quarrel, one of the partiipants pulling a revolver and firing shot at the other,

Immediately after the shot was fired he men disappeared. One of the rowd ran towards Main avenue and Jackson street, where he was halted by Patrolman Marker and locked in the station house.

Three Story Building on North Blakely Street Owned by Timothy Boland Almost Entirely Destroyed by Fire-Victor Burschell Meets with a Serious Accident While Fighting the Blaze-Dr. E. P. Carty's Narrow Escape-Children's Day Was Generally Observed Yesterday-Other Notes.

Smoke was discovered issuing from Timothy Boland's three-story frame building, located on North Blakely street, a few steps from the corners, yesterday morning about 3,30 olclock. An alarm was promptly turned in and in a few moments the Neptune company was on the spot and had a stream of water turned on the building. The fire was found to be in the top of the building near the roof and the firemen found the greatest difficulty in reaching it. No thirty-foot ladders are in the possession of the fire department and there seemed for awhile no possible way of scaling the

The Independent company soon arrived and upon the blowing of a second alarm the Electric company was oon on the scene. Through the efforts of the companies some progress was made in stopping the dense volumes of smoke when the roof was finally gained. It was nearly three hours, during which the firemen stubbornly fought the flames before the fire was virtually under control, and the building was then a wreck. The op portion is a charred black mass, the first floor remaining intact but badly damaged by water.

The building was empty and had The building was empty and had been unoccupied for nearly two years. Formerly the first floor was used as a store-room, while the second floor was used as a hall for various meetings. The structure presented a very good appearance and was located among other properties which would have suffered but for the prompt action of the firemen. The loss will amount to about $5.000, covered by insurance. The origin of the fire was surance. The origin of the fire was plainly incendiary.

Victor Burschell, while chopping through the tin roof of the building with an axe came down on a piece of ragged tin which struck his wrist and hand, fearfully cutting and tearing member. He was hurried to Ludwig's drug store, where Dr. Brown dressed the injury, which will disable Burschell for some time. Almost at the same time of Mr. Burschell's accident, Fireman Kraus staggered into Ludwig's pharmacy, apparently overcome from breathing the smoke. Upon reaching the entrance he fainti and it took the services of Dr. Brown and several assistants to bring him to.

The handsome wagon of the Nep-tune company was badly damaged while making the trip to the fire. When the permanent man of the hose rooms reached the plug at the corner of Bloom and North Blakely street, he stopped his team and leaving the driver's seat attempted to make the coupling. Just at this moment the team and fire wagon of the Independent company came dash the bell clanging. The horses of the Neptune company became frightened and made a dash down Bloom street Dr. E. P. Carty was trying to assist in coupling the hose, being directly in front of the scared animals, and for a moment it looked as though the horses and the heavy chemical wagor would pass over him.

The wagon, however, swayed to one ide and the heavy iron gearing struck the plug, bringing the horses to a step and giving Dr. Carty time to get out of the way.

As a result of the accident the Neptune company will be out of service for several days. The heavy tongue is broken off at the wagon and the fron step and springs on the right side of the wagon padly bent and sprained. Taking all the occurrences and accidents of yesterday morning's fire into consideration more excitement was caused in the borough than has happened in some time,

IN THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY. Yesterday was generally observed as Children's day at the various churches of the borough. The morning service was given over to the pupils of the Sunday school and excellently arranged programmes of recitations, readings was especially good. The decoration this year were most beautiful, artistic designs being followed out in decorating several of the churches, while everywhere sweet-smelling flowers mingled with palms and ferns made a pleasing background for the eye. Dr. A. J. Van Cleft preached last vening in the Methodist Episcopal church on "The Bells," a sermon intended for the little folks and which was highly pleasing to them,

Rev. J. B. Dabney preached his ins visiting his relatives and friends in Itial sermon in the Tripp Avenue Christian church yesterday evening. A large audience greeted him. Rev. Dabney is a pleasing speaker and will doubtless make his influence felt in the borough, "What and Where Is Hell" was the subject of Rev. J. L. Children's Day Generally Observed in the Various Churches Yesterday-Other Notes.

Children's day was observed in th Providence Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning. The edifice was cautifully decorated by Clarke, with palms, lilies and roses while wild flowers were also in profusion. The services were in charge of C. W. Dawson, superintendent of the Sunday school, W. D. Watkins, chorister of the school, had charge of the singing. He was assisted by the church choir, orchestra and Miss Mary Davies. The primary department, in charge of E. C. Benjamin, rendered many songs, recitations and dialogues, all of which showed that the children, about sixty-four in number, had been well trained. Miss Mary Davies sang a solo n a rich contralto voice and was much appreciated. Another main feature of the day was the presentation of about one hundred and fifteen palms to the girls of the intermediate department. These were given to the children to eare for and when the church is to be decorated these paims will be used. G. R. Clark gave a short talk on how nourish the plants so that they would flourish. During the evening a service of song was conducted. The pastor being absent, Mr. Dawson had the services in charge. He also made short address. The choir sang as an anthem "Ye Heavens Adore Him." The bass solo and quartette by Harold Norton, Mrs. Frank Morton and Professor and Mrs. J. H. Cousins was well
