THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1900.

EVENTS OF DAT 1.5 WEST SCRANTON

BOARD OF TRADE STANDING COMMITTEES.

Named by President Daniels at the Meeting Last Evening -Two Morning Weddings at St. Patrick's Church-Fair and Festival at Jackson Street Baptist Church. Funeral of James Gibney-Recital in Mears' Hall-Social Events and Other News Notes and Personals,

Owing to the warm weather and a small attendance, a short meeting of the West Side board of trade was held last evening. The branch postoffice to be established on Main avenue, July 1, was discussed, but nothing definite was learned, as the blds for the location have not yet been opened. It is understood, however, that four store rooms have been offered, three on Main avenue and one on Jackson street. The former are at 124 South Main, 106 and 226 North Main, and 1110 Jackson street.

A. M. Morse and A. B. Holmes reported that a new viaduct scheme is under way, but that nothing definite can be given out at this time, owing to the plans being held in the background for specific reasons. The secretary was instructed to call the street commissioner's attention to the condition of the asphalt pavement and sidewalks on South Main avenue, between Division and Luzerne streets, caused by the settlings in the old Oxford mine Workings

President Daniels appointed the following standing committees for the ensuing years

Streets and Bridges-A. B. Hebmes, chairman; Structs and Bridget A. B. Holmes, chairman;
B. D. Jones, B. G. Morgan, D. D. Evans, Joseph P. Phillips, A. M. Morse, E. M. Chube,

Mrs. Parry was assisted in receiv-ing by her nicce, Miss Rachel A. Evans, of Olyphant, who rendered several participants in the international drill usical selections during the evening.

FAIR AND FESTIVAL

The fair and festival at the Jackson Street Baptist church was opened last evening under very favorable circumstances. In the auditorium a short programme was rendered, which included a piano duet by Mrs. D. B. Thomas and Miss Elizabeth Hughes; cocal solo, William Long; recitation, Bertha Williams; solo, Edwin Bowen; violin solo, William Allen, and vocal do, John W. Jones.

In the lecture room several attractive booths have been arranged, in which the ladies of the church look after the wants of the patrons. The decorations are particularly attractive and in addition colored incandescent Richards. lamps shed their rays over the booths, rendering a pretty effect. Ice cream, soda water, candy and other palatable things are for sale, In the basement the patrons of the efreshment tables were looked after by the ladies, who provided an excelent supper from 5.20 to 10.30 o'clock. There was a large attendance last evening, which augurs well for the undertaking. The affair will be continued this evening and tomorrow evening, and musical and literary entertainment will be provided each evening. The socceds will be devoted to repairing and painting the church building.

FUNERAL OF J. J. GIBNEY.

Many friends and relatives attended he funeral of the late James J. Gibney at St. Patrick's Catholic church yesterday morning, and expressed such sympathy for the aillicted family of the deceased. A solemn high mass was sung by Rev. Frances Canavan, an uso preached an eloquent sermon long the line of consolation and comort to the bereaved family. Rev. P. A. Fricker and Rev. J. J. Lavelle asisted in the services.

A large representation of the Maser Plumbers' union were in attendance, and the pallbearers werg selectd from among the number. They vere James B. Doyle, Lincoln H. Williams, Thomas Meehan, Peter Howley, Louis Schumacher and Thomas Devine. Burial was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

PUPILS' CLEVER RECITAL.

A large gathering assembled at Mears' hall last evening and witnessed the literary and musical recital given by the pupils of Miss Sadie E. Jones and Miss Sadie M. Edwards. The participants had been carefully trained for several weeks for the affair and did credit to themselves and their instructors. The programme consisted of plano and vocal solos, drifts, recitaion and dialogues, and were eleverly mastered by all the pupils. Miss Beatrice Perry rendered a piano selo, which was followed by an international flag drill by sixteen girls. Miss Lilian La-Barr recited and responded to an encore. William Jones sang a tenor solo which was very effective. "Why Mrs. Caskill Did Not Hire a Cook" was WEDDING AT ST. PATRICK'S. William F. McGee, of 534 North Recca avenue, and Miss Mary E. Mitchell, of 207 Meridian street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Mitchell, were united in marriage at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Patrick's Catholic church. The nurtial knot was tied by Rev. Francis Canavan.

The bride was very becomingly attired in an old rose mousseline de sole, trimmed with black ribbon and velvet. she wore a large black picture hat and carried white lillies. Rogan, the bridesmaid, wore light blue mousseline de sole with black ribbon and velvet trimmings. She also wore old schoolmate of Mr. Gibney, and he a large black picture hat and carried a bunch of pink roses.

The groom was attended by Frank Morris, and Miss Mame Johnson, the church organist, played the marches. Following the ceremony the wedding

[LETTER TO MRS FINKHAM NO. 12,733] "I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. For years I had female troubles and did nothing for them. Of course I became no better and finally broke down entirely. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb and inflammation of ovaries. "I underwent local treatment every day for some time; then after nearly two months the doctor gave me permission to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and their medicine alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effects of it. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of her Sanative Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine. "The first remark that greets me now is 'How much better you look!' and

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Four-Year-Old Stanley Bilkanski Kicked by a Horse-An Unlucky Italian-Other News Notes.

Stanley Blikanski, the 4-year-old child of A. Bilkanski, of Schimpff's court, was dangerously kicked in the abdomen by one of Hand's brewery horses on Monday evening while playing about the animal. Dr. Webb was summoned and upon examination found that he had sustained a rupture Last night the only chance to save the boy's life lay in an operation and was accordingly taken to the Scranton Private hospital, where he was operated upon by Dr. Webb, assisted by several other physicians. The boy is in a critical condition.

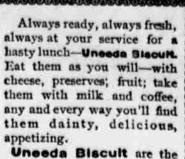

UNLUCKY ITALIAN.

There is an Italian laborer on the South Side who is employed by Contractor Coons to dig trenches, who don't believe in dreams, signs or unlucky numbers, yet his simple faith was rudely broken on Monday afternoon in blasting rocks while digging the sewer trench on Willow street. On account of an unpronounceable name, he was known on the pay-roll as No. 12, but he continued to draw his pay regularly. He thought the time-honored hoodo connected with the number 13 was nothing but a myth, but his faith is now cracked as is also his head.

While blasting rock on Willow street a large stone was thrown by the explosion in John's direction, but for some reason John did not move out of the day and now he is suffering from a severe scalp wound. Hereafter on Contractor Coon's pay-roll No. 13 will be blank, and John will be seen carrying the left hind foot of a rabbit "this evening, instead of the for safety.
