PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL.

At 3.45 this afternoon the Scranton and Wilkes-Barre base ball clubs will play at Alumni park and a large attendance is anticipated. This city has had an ungratified taste for professional base ball since the days of the state league club. The game today will doubtless he a good one, as the old time rivalry between the capitals of Lackawanna and Luzerne still exists and glory in victory will be as strong an incentive to hard play as advancement in the league from which the clubs recently withdrew.

COLORED MAN IN TROUBLE.

The colored man who drives for Dr. J. J. Thompson was locked up by Chief McAndrew yesterday on complaint made by Patrolman Carden. It seems that on Tuesday night defendant and Thomas Monk were driving on Cemetery street, when the former discharged a revolver several times. As the policeman approached the offender jumped from the wagon and fled. After a few hours in fail his release was secured by his employer.

Wilkes-Barre Takes the Second Game of the Series-It Was a Hoodoo Contest.

To any one so perverse and obstinate as to refuse to believe in omens of ill fortune, hoodos in general, and the unlucky number 13 in particular, the story of yesterday's game between Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, which resulted in a victory for Clymer's men by the score of 7 to 3, will come as a revelation and eye-opener.

When Manager Burnham came out on the field with his men and took his seat on the bench with his pets he found that including himself there were just thirteen representatives of Scranton on the seat. The Scranton manager gave an uneasy shudder and just then happened to reflect that the day was June 13. "It's all up with us," he remarked philosophically, and then it On Friday last the following mem- dawned upon him that if Scranton wor bers of the Clark's Green chapter of it would be the locals' thirtsenth straight victory. And when the ninth inning had drawn to a close the omen of evil had proved a sure winner, and Scranton tor, Rev. H. Parlatt East, attended the had met the second defeat in the last nineteen games played. James J. Corbett was the stellar attraction of the day, the big heavy-weight playing first base during the first five innings and then sparring three rounds with Jack McVey. Scranton, fighting against the hoodoo, put a crippled team in the field, through Doherty's inability to play on account of the Charley-horse he is suffering from, Jack O'Brien went to third base, Knox to short and Kervin to center field, while the place of Mc-Intyre at first base was filled by Corbett, who played a very fair game, and in his first appearance at the bat cracked out a pretty single to right field. Knox played poorly at short field, Scranton's crack center field*r felling out of place at shortstop and giving a very sad exhibition. Wilkes-Barre, on the other hand, had a stronger team on the field than in any game they have played this season, Beaumont covering first base capitally and making two hits, while the veteran Shoch was stationed at third base and celebrated his becoming a Baron by a beautiful and timely two base drive in the fourth inning.

There were no fielding features with the exception of a pretty catch by Nicol. Pirate O'Brien was the first man to bat in the ninth inning. He smashed at the ball and raised a twisting hot drive to center field. It lookst like a sure two-baser, but Nicol was after it and pulled it down beautifully. Wilkes-Barre opened the game in a way which caused the eighteen hun-champion bantam weight pugins; of the world. ing hot drive to center field. Sheff stationed himself at third and Jim Corbett came to the bat. He was heartily cheered and drove a beauty to right field, scoring the Old Boy. Scranton's last run came in the fifth After Kennedy had gone out, Knoll cracked out a great three-bagger to right field and scored on Jack O'Brien's single. Owen, who pitched for Wilkes-Barre,
