RAINES CONVICTED ON TWO CHARGES

HIS FATHER WAS EXONER-ATED BY THE JURY.

Son Was Found Guilty of Selling Liquor on Sunday and Without a License-Charles S. Lowry Charged with Assault and Battery by His Wife-Miss Phoebe Shafer Tried on a Charge of Having Stolen Articles from the House Where She Was Employed-Court Notes.

When court opened yesterday morning the jury in the case of the Raines, father and son, brought in a verdict that followed the lines of Judge R. W. Archbald's charge, The father, Charles Raine, was acquitted and the son, John Raine, was found guilty of selling on Sunday and without a license, but was acquitted on the charge of selling to minors.

Adam Wasner was convicted before Judge Archbald of selling liquor without a license at 513 Pittston avenue. Robert Wilson and James Reid, agents of the Men's union, testified that they bought beer and whiskey at Wasner's place on April 18. He offered no de-

John Clark pleaded gullty to selling without a license on Scranton street, and John Cavanaugh pleaded guilty to committing the same offense at Penn avenue and Mulberry street. The case against Michael J. Burke, charged with selling liquor without a license, was continued until the next term.

AGAINST HER MOTHER.

A dramatic feature of the trial was the testimony of the Lowrys' eightyear-old daughter, who championed the cause of her father most heartily. She said she never wants to live with Gidik, of Old Forge, was arraigned before Al- her mother again. "She used to go for father as if she would chew his head off," said the little girl, with a considerable show of feeling. The jury was out at adjourning hour.

John Cheese and Jacob Venus were charged with cutting the cloth off a pool table owned by P. F. Lynott, of Providence. They denied the offense and said it was someone else who was guilty of the lawless act. A jury was wrestling with the case at adjourning

An effort was made by Attorneys A A, Vosburg and John R. Edwards, who appeared for the defense, to have the indictment quashed, but it was unsuccessful.

Judge Cameron yesterday morning, Nicholas George was returned guilty of selling liquor without a license. His son-in-law, Anthony B. 1034 Wester avenue, was taken to the Lackawanna hospital yesterday afternoon with a cut on his head and his one ankle injured as the result of an accident while at work. CHARGED WITH THEFT. Miss Phoebe Shafer, aged twentywo, who lives at North Scranton, was tried on a charge of stealing a breastpin, three scarf pins and a piece of ribbon from the house of Thomas B. Birtley, where she was employed. A piece of ribbon, which Mrs. Birtley identified as hers, was found at Miss Shafer's home. There was no evidence to connect the accused with the theft of the pins. Miss Shafer went on the stand and said she bought the ribbon in this city last September. She thought she got it at Jonas Long's Sons. She denled stealing any of the articles of which she stood accused.

Miss Keeley, who has charge of th ribbon department at Long's, testified that they have had no ribbon of the kind produced in court, and that it could not have been purchased there A number of witnesses were called to prove the good character of the ac-cused. One of them was Mrs. Myrs Reese, for whom Miss Shafer worked for a time.

"I suppose I'm here to tell the truth," said Mrs. Reese, as she settled herself in the witness chair, She was assured that she was. She had never seen anything out of the way with Miss Shafer herself, but she had heard her accused by several persons of being light-fingered. The jury had not returned a verdict at adjourn-

WALSH SOLD LIQUOR, Walsh rented a place from Karolon at Priceburg and started to sell liquor there without a license. From this flowed a series of difficulties, out of which grew the cases tried yesterday. Walsh was found guilty of selling liquor without a license in the case in which Barron was prosecutor, and Karolon was found guilty of pointing a pistol at Fred C. Jordan. In all of the other cases verdicts of not guilty were returned. Walsh was sentenced to pay a fine of $500, costs and spend three months in the county jail. Paul Melefski was charge i by Stephen Harwilchok with pointing a pistol. One lives at the Ridge and the other at Olyphant, and the trouble occurred one Sunday while they were drinking together. The jury was out at adjourn ing hour. Winans Hull, who was charged with did not appear yesterday for trial, and his hall was forfeited and a capins issued for him. William Bowman, who some time ago was acquitted of the charge of killing John Kneirim, yesterday pleaded guilty to committing an aggravated assault and battery on Kneirim and was sentenced to spend six months in the county jail. Mary Kneirim, widow of the deceased, was the prosecutrix. John Minorkee was returned not guilty of pointing a pistol at Anthony Wiorkowski. The latter was directed to pay the costs. Anthony Wiorkowski, charged with malicious mischief by John Minorkee, was returned not guilty and the costs placed on the prosecutor.

Compromise Was Effected. The injunction in the case of the Young Men's Temperance and Benevolent society, of Dunmore, against Pat-rick Moran, was dismissed yesterday by Judge John P. Kelly, by agreement of the parties.

Moran was a member of the society and collected sick benefits at the rate of $5 per week, alleging that he was ill of miner's asthma. An investigating committee found that he had violated certain of the by-laws by attempting to collect benefits after he had recovered, as was alleged, and by action of the society he was expelled. At the end of seventeen weeks Moran brought suit for $85 before Justice of the Peace Krotzer and recovered judgment. The society took an appeal.

Five weeks later he sued again and recovered judgment for $25, from which another appeal was taken. After six months clapse the by-laws provide that only $2.50 per week shall be paid in sick benefits. The Pennsylvania statutes provide that a judgment before a justice of the peace for less than $5.33 is not subject to appeal. With the presumed purpose of preventing the society from taking an appeal, Moran brought suit weekly, and each time recovered judgment for $2.50 at the cost of the society. threatened to keep this up for the whole twenty-six weeks of the six months period, and to estop this alleged vexatious litigation the society se cured a preliminary injunction and a rule to make it permanent. When the hearing on the rule came up before Judge Kelly, yesterday the attorneys got together and came to an agreement that the suits should cease the injunction be dismissed and the dispute settled once and for all on the appeal from the first judgment of $85. By special order of court the case was advanced to the head of the common pleas list for the September term. Hon. John P. Quinnan and T. P. Hoban represent the society. Frank E. Boyle and Major Everett Warren are
