

LACKAWANNA COUNTY.

CARBONDALE.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Augustin Peterson Caught Between Locomotive and Roundhouse.

Yesterday morning shortly before 7 o'clock Augustin Peterson was caught between a locomotive and the Delaware and Hudson round house in this city and instantly killed. His neck was broken and the bones of his hips were fractured in many places. Coroner Roberts viewed the remains and then advised that an inquest was unnecessary. The remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker McHale and sent to Wilkes-Barre at 4 o'clock.

The unfortunate man met death in exactly the same way that Engineer Alexander Copeland sustained serious injuries a few weeks ago. The entrance to the round house is too narrow to allow the passage of some of the larger locomotives and a man at the same time and these men were caught in the trap.

Mr. Peterson was thirty-two years old and unmarried. He had resided here since last August, boarding at the home of M. C. Reardon, on North Main street.

Belmont Gets Silk Mill.

It has been decided that the new silk weaving mill shall be located on upper Belmont street, instead of on the South Side. The latter site had the preference, but the officials of the mill company were unable to get vent rights, and they objected to the possibility of being undermined.

Frost for Pugilist.

McGovern, the feather-weight champion, boxed four scientific rounds with his sparring partner at the Grand opera house Saturday night. The spectators were confined to the gallery and were not numerous. It was the most decided "frost" any champion pugilist has ever received in this city.

Fourth of July Celebration and Picnic—Coming Excursions.

The congregation of Sacred Heart church have decided to hold a picnic on July 4, near the cinder path, between this borough and Archbald. A number of patriotic orations will be delivered by prominent speakers, and the remainder of the day will be devoted to athletic sports, which will include bicycle racing and a tug-of-war. Several committees have already been appointed and have commenced making the necessary arrangements. The probabilities are that the congregation and their friends will have a splendid day's enjoyment.

Chief of Police McGinley had a busy time on Friday night making five arrests, upon his rounds. One of them, Milton Kinney, an old offender, was arrested for drunkenness and vagrancy. Three suspicious looking men were locked up for prowling around the neighborhood of the Ontario and Western depot, and the fifth, a colored man, was found on Main street, acting in a similar manner. The five were taken before Justice Swick Saturday morning. The squaw gave them all half an hour to clear out of the borough limits, and they went with considerable alacrity.

The local order of Junior United American Mechanics will, in conjunction with the Carbondale members of the order, run a joint excursion to the new popular resort at Lake Lodore on Wednesday. It is expected quite a number from Jermyn will go.

Attorney Carey is attending the national Republican convention at Philadelphia.

BASE BALL.

LOCAL TEAM DISBANDS.

Scranton's Fine Aggregation of Ball Players Are Now Scattered All Over the Country.

Darkness has fallen on the hearts of the few true base ball enthusiasts of the vicinity and the man who follows the game is sad, for Saturday night the crack aggregation of ball players who have been representing this city on the diamond as it never before was represented, are rapidly scattering to all parts of the country. It was Scranton's misfortune this year to enter a league in which the other teams were so utterly outclassed by the local players that all contests seem a flat and uninteresting affair. In addition there were mistakes in the league management from the start which rendered its existence unstable and uncertain from the very beginning.

One thing must be said, however. The unfortunate condition of affairs in Scranton was in no way the fault of the manager, Walter W. Burnham. Never in the history of local base ball has Scranton had a man at the helm of the team who in such an incredibly short time gathered together such a splendid team, who governed them with such excellent executive ability and to whose foresight and shrewd headness more than anything else can be attributed the fine place that the team attained in the league. The board of directors, who were so completely held up by their utter satisfaction at the way he managed the team, and declared their willingness to re-engage him at the next opening for a Scranton ball nine.

It was his misfortune that the league proved such a failure as a base ball organization, as it is also the misfortune of all local lovers of the game. After the Atlantic league broke up a determined effort was made to secure an Eastern league franchise, in spite of the fact that the proposed circuit would entail far greater expense and would require a very large sum of money to be advanced at the very outset.

All of the players are in receipt of offers from teams, but the best of them, Mike Doherty, is the most ambitiously fixed, inasmuch as he will break into the National league. He has accepted New York terms and will report for duty Wednesday, and take Hickman's place at third base. Doherty's many friends here wish him good luck in the big league, and his work will be carefully followed by them all.

Knoll was considering an offer from Cleveland, of the American league, but at the last moment had a disagreement with the Cleveland manager, and signed with the Springfield Eastern league team. Kevin goes to Buffalo in the American league, and Milligan, who was farmed to Scranton by the Buffalo team, has been recalled by Manager Dan Shinnon. Mortimer, Irwin, of the Syracuse Eastern league team, was in town Saturday and would be very much pleased to have the heavy hitting southpaw on his staff. In case Shannon does not take him, he may be farmed there. Kennedy will pitch for Albany. "Old Red" Sheffer will go to Bristol, in the Connecticut State league, and Catcher Miller may go to that league.

Pirate—Brien has several good offers and may go to Oswego. Dick Knox is also in a better pecuniary position and may go to Youngstown. O. Short stop O'Brien will probably find a berth in the New York State league, and Roemer McIntyre is in receipt of communications from teams in the Southern league and the New York State league.

WILKES-BARRE SHUT OUT.

Big Crowd Saw Pitchers Battle Between Owen and Milligan—McGovern's Lively Bout with Daly.

Saturday afternoon's game at Athletic park was notable for two things, the presence on the grounds of Terry McGovern, champion bantam and featherweight pugilist of the world, and the fact that the contest itself was one of the greatest of the year.

Owen, the crack Wilkes-Barrean, twirled for the Barons, and Milligan, our Buffalo farm hand, did the honors for Scranton. With magnificent support both pitchers did grand work, and in the course of the entire game, but two clean hits were made, both these being banded out by Hub Knoll.

The little outfielder was the only local player that had his eye on the ball, and made both of our hits, a grand and a corking three-bagger. Nicol and Clymer are credited with the Wilkes-Barre hits, but neither of them were clean. Nicol came at the very start of the game and was an awkward bouncer, while Doherty and Jack O'Brien both handled rather poorly. O'Brien's hit wasn't of the pure variety, either.

A remarkable feature of the game was the fact that in the entire nine innings but twenty-eight men faced Milligan, in all but one inning the Wilkes-Barreans going out in order. Four men were left on bases on both sides, three Scrantonians dying on the bags and one Barons. The fielding feature of the game was contributed by Knoll, Clymer and Shinnon. They made a great catch of a little fly over short stop, and Shoch made a magnificent catch of a terrific line drive from Old Boy Sheffer's bat which looked good for at least two bases. The aggressive "Merry Derby" Danton, who was full of ginger and tobacco smoke, usual, and raised strenuous objections to every decision of the umpire. Clymer played a fine game, in the first inning retiring all three batsmen.

At the end of the fifth inning the diamond was cleared and Terry McGovern, accompanied by his sparring partner, Andy Daly, of Boston; Samuel Harris, his manager, and Jack Scully, of this city, appeared upon the diamond. They were all wearing their respective bantam weights and were introduced to the crowd by Daly, and then, after shaking hands, proceeded to spar. The bout was far different from the very tame exhibitions recently seen in this city. The little fellows went at each other with a ferocity which looked as though they meant business. They pummeled each other for all they were worth, and after they had been at it awhile, both began to show signs of wear, and Daly began to emit a series of snorts and wheezing sounds, which could be heard throughout the entire grandstand. In the third round Terry opened the cut in his opponent's left ear by a vicious jab, and at the conclusion of the round, Twilley, Milligan, who was according to Mr. Daly, had his hands busy taking care of his principal. The entire four rounds were full of ginger, and the big

THE CIRCUS IS HERE.

Welsh Brothers Tents Erected on the Ash Street Grounds.

The show is greatly enlarged for this season, and presents many distinct novelties, and all the way through is refreshingly new and up-to-date. There is a diversity of amazing male and female acrobats, expert jugglers, extraordinary gymnasts, a big herd of cleverly-trained ponies and dogs, a first-class band and orchestra, and general specialties of every description. There is nothing of a tiresome nature in the entire show.

Seats are provided for 3,500 persons, and the best of order is preserved about the exhibition. Another commendable feature is the absence of fakirs and people with catch-penny devices, everything being legitimate and moral. The engagement in Scranton will continue until Wednesday night. A free balloon ascension and parachute jump is a promised feature each afternoon before the opening of the main show doors.
