Uneeda Biscuit

The biggest and best legacy from the old century to the new. Packed in the only biscuit box absolutely air tight and moisture proof—the only box that preserves the biscuit with all its crispness, just as it comes from the oven's mouth. Insist on getting the genuine Uneeda Biscuit. 5 cents a box. Take no imitations.

National Biscuit Company.

He was accused of non-support. Patrick Coyle was also directed to pay $10 per month to his wife for her support.

MANY FINES IMPOSED.

Inmates of Disorderly Houses Were Arrested by the Police.

Yesterday morning was a busy one in police court. Besides the regular batch of drunks and disorderlies there were twenty women and six men arrested in disorderly haunts of the city early yesterday morning, who were arraigned before Mayor Mohr. Houses at 211 Center street, 215 Center street, 217 Center street, 219 Center street, 221 Center street and 209 Center street, were raided, and the proprietresses fined $25 apiece, while the inmates escaped by paying $5 fines.

The raids were all made after 11 o'clock Saturday night. Chief Robling and a squad of officers then quietly descended upon the various houses in the alley and within an hour the Center street police station was crowded.

Mrs. May Colborn, proprietress of the house at 211 Center street, was fined $25. Gene Gray and Clarence Smith, who were arrested in her place, were fined $5 apiece.

Grace Cattan, Mary Salade and Theresa Aquila, arrested at 215 Center street, were fined $10 apiece.

Kate Knudler, proprietress of a place at 217 Center street, and Mabel Surrow, Mattie Hines, Maud Metz, and Kate Sterling, inmates of the house, were fined $5 apiece.

Elsie Miller and Laura Nearing, who were picked up at 219 Center street, each paid $5.

Jessie Williams, proprietress of 221 Center street, paid Mayor Mohr $25 and a batch of $9 fines was paid by the following inmates of the place, Ruth Flowers, Madge Hart, Daisy Gallagher, Kitty Reagan and Jennie Mitchell. The raids were all made after 11 o'clock Saturday night, and were both taken into custody and were punished with $5 fines, neither of which were paid yesterday.

Joe Wood, Frank Vale, Max Welles and Frank Roman, who were found in various of the raided houses, paid $5 fines, and William Kallada, who was fined $10, or given the alternative of going to the county jail for twenty days, could not pay his fine, and spent the day in the station house.

LIVE NEWS OF THE INDUSTRIAL WORLD

PRESENT STATUS OF THE ANTHRACITE COAL TRADE.

Reports of Further Consolidation in the Coal Carrying Trade—The D. L. & W. Board—Efforts That Are Being Made to Settle the Strike at Mt. Pleasant Colliery—Reading Is Pushing the Work of Double Tracking Little Schuylkill Branch as Rapidly as Possible.

The hard coal trade is almost featureless. The amount of coal going forward is, if anything, slightly in excess of the average for this season of the year. Shipments up the lakes to June 1, as shown by the tonnage passing the Sault, are in excess of last year. This is largely due to the earlier opening of lake navigation, but the movement is heavier than it seemed likely to be. In Chicago territory business shows an improvement and the outlook for the second half of the year is good. At Boston, New York and Philadelphia the market is very quiet indeed. The real determination of what the year's business is to be will not be made before next month. If, as everything indicates, producers get through July without any open cuts being made, fall trade is fairly certain to be very good.

Reports of further consolidations in the coal carrying trade are heard and denied. Everything indicates that Vanderbilt interests are likely to have a dominating influence in controlling the management of the anthracite trade, while Pennsylvania interests will control the southern bituminous trade. It is even said that considerable Reading stock is already held by the Vanderbilts and that a controlling interest may be secured.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

Arbitration Differences.

The special committee appointed by the employees of the Mt. Pleasant colliery to arbitrate the existing differences between the men and the company, met Superintendent Neale at an adjourned meeting Saturday evening and accepted a schedule of wages which was submitted by the company, the contents of which the officials do not care to make public until it is submitted to the employees for consideration.

A meeting of the Mt. Pleasant employees will accordingly be held at 7 o'clock this evening in Co-operative hall, North Main avenue, for the purpose of accepting or rejecting the schedule submitted by the company. If the company's proposals are ratified, the strike will be declared off, and the men will return to work. If the schedule is rejected the mines will be operated by new hands.

J. Beavers will go out on Train 48 Monday in place of Deamer. R. Stark will take his own run Tuesday. A. C. SALISBURY, Supt.

This and That.

Blacksmiths and horseshoers in South Bend, Ind., have secured an advance of twenty-five cents a day in wages, and a decrease in the hours of labor.

During the recent street-car strike in Berlin, Germany, now terminated by a compromise, 487 arrests were ### made and fifteen policemen were seriously injured.

The strike of the Sterling Boiler works, at Barberton, Ohio, has been compromised. An increase of wages and some other gains were made by the men. A correspondent says this company occasionally supplies the Cramp Ship Building company with boilers.

At its recent convention in Pittsburgh, the Tin Workers' International Protective Association accepted the report of its wage committee. The new scale averages a 20 to 25 per cent. increase in wages. This will not be enforced, however, until after a conference with the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers' association.

The Reading railway is pushing forward the work of double-tracking the Little Schuylkill branch as rapidly as possible. The section between New Ringgold and Reynolds is about completed, and the swinging in position this week of one of the new bridges and the connecting up of the tracks will finish the work on that section. This leaves the section between Dreher'sville and New Ringgold about three miles long, and upon which work has just been started, still to be completed, when the entire line between Tamona and Port Clinton will be double tracked.

M'GRADY GIRL ESCAPED AGAIN

Broke away from the United Charities Rooms in Wilkes-Barre.

Nellie McGrady, the young girl who recently escaped from the House of the Good Shepherd, but who was recaptured and placed in the United Charities rooms in Wilkes-Barre, escaped from the latter place on Friday morning by means of the fire escape.

Rose Gilmore, a girl picked up by the police of Wilkes-Barre while attired in men's clothing, escaped with the McGrady girl. Neither of the two girls have as yet been apprehended.

SPEAKEASY KEEPERS WERE SENTENCED

pay a fine of $100 each and one year in the county jail, Judge Archbald remarking that it wasn't necessary to waste words on the case of Charles S. David S. Davis, of Moose, who shot Robert Allen, his next door neighbor, in a dispute over a fence, was given a sentence of one year in the county jail. Constable Stephen A. Bibby, of the Fifth ward, Carbonade, who was convicted of adultery in two cases, was let off with a sentence of thirty days upon his allegation that he had paid a lawyer $55 to defend him and that said lawyer had deserted him on the eve of the trial. Judge Edwards stated that he would inquire into this charge. Gilbert Colborn, also convicted of adultery, was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

John Kerrigan, convicted of assault and battery, was sentenced to pay a fine of $15. Louis Rosar, convicted of feloniously wounding Thomas Irving, was sentenced to six months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $20.

The jury in the case of Charles S. Lowery, charged by his wife, Nellie, with assault, returned a verdict of not guilty. A verdict of not guilty was also returned in the cases of John Avenue and John Chaspe, charged with malicious mischief by P. F. Lynott, of North Scranton. All three defendants were accordingly discharged.

In the case of Miss Phoebe Shaffer, of North Scranton, charged with theft, a verdict of not guilty was returned, and the costs placed on the county.

Court Saturday directed Charles Lowery, of North Scranton, to pay $20 per month for the support of his wife, Nellie Lowery. This is the conclusion of the case in which she charged him with non-support. H. B. Frank was directed to pay his wife $10 a week.
