DYNAMITE WAS USED.

The people of the South Side were very much startled Sunday evening by and beyond hope of recovery. an explosion which occurred about 11 o'clock. It was caused by the touch-ing off of three sticks of dynamite, which were placed under the porch of the Arnold residence, on lower Archbald street, by some person who, it is thought, was prompted by spite to commit the dastardly deed. The explosion could be plainly heard all over Constable Moran has been engaged on the case, and it is to be hoped that will run down the guilty ones. The house is owned by W. E. Kirby.

GAS PLANT ASSURED.

Some of the material for the new gas plant, which is to be erected here, has arrived and is being unloaded near the old gas house on Eighth avenue. The contractor who has control of the work is from Philadelphia, but as he will employ some local men, and buy most of the material from local dealers, the project will be of considerable benefit

District Meeting of the Congregationalists-Children's Day Services-Personal News.

The quarterly meeting of the Congregational church of the Northeastern district was held in the Congregational church on Saturday afternoon and on Sunday, when the following churches represented: Providence, Mrs. Timothy Evans; Rendham, Rev. J. J. Jenkins; Pittston, Rev. D. M. George and John Gravel; Plymouth, Rev. William Jones, Thomas E. Cute; Taylor, William Harris; Warrior Run, Rev. James Jenkins; Miners, Rev. Theodore Davis; Forest City, Rev. Jona-than Davis and Mrs. David W. Thomas: Scranton, First church, Rev. David Jones and Messrs, S. R. Jones and D. J. Evans. At the first session reports were made by the visiting representatives and an interesting paper on "Echoes of Ecumenical Council" was read by Rev. David Jones, of Scranton. A resolution of sympathy to the missionaries of China was also adopted. There was preaching on Saturday evening by Rev. William Jones, of Plymouth, and H. W. Jones, of South Dakota. On Sunday morning Rev. Peter Roberts and Rev. Theodore Davis conducted services the former preaching a most eloquent and forcible sermon. The services were continued in the afternoon, when Rev. J. Jenkins and Rev. Jonathan Davis conducted service and in the evening, when two sermons were delivered, the first in English, by Rev. Mr. George, of Pittston, and the other in Welsh, by Rev. David Jones. A feature of the evening service was the presence of the Forest City choir, which sang several beautiful anthems and whose excellent sing ing aroused the spiritual feeling of the large congregation to a high pitch. All three sessions were largely attended and the congregation was much impressed with the excellent sermons and addresses delivered. This year's children's day exercises on Sunday, were on a scale never before attempted by the energetic congregation and will be pleasantly remembered by pastor, scholars and congregation for a long time to come Both on Sunday afternoon and at night when the services were repeated the church was so filled that many had to stand and others were unable to gain admittance. Through the efforts be left at Martin Bold's barber shop. of the musical director, Mr. John Martin, the service of song rendered by the children, assisted by the choir and orchestra, was to those who attended an enjoyable treat and the children are to be complimented on their suc cess. At the afternoon service Mr. J D. Stocker delivered an address, and at night Attorney Colborn, -- Scranton, presided and made an impressive ad
