FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF MR. AND MRS. J. B. SNYDER.

Fittingly Observed at Their Home on Washburn Street Yesterday Afternoon and Evening-Young Man from Carbondale Slightly Demented-Death of a Former Resident at Pen Argyl-Entertainment at No. 14 School-Other News Notes and

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Snyder, of 1219 Washburn street, was fittingly observed yesterday afternoon and evening, and from 3 to 11 o'clock upwards of five hundred invited guests visited their home and extended congratulations, renewed acquaintances and participated in the festivities incidental to the celebration.

Among the guests were representatives of the Lackawanna bar, county officials and municipal officers, toegther with relatives and friends from far and near. Letters of regret, due to absence, and congratulatory messages were received from friends in distant places, and evidences of the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Snyder are held were apparent in the shape of costly presents and sums of gold.

congratulations, and the well wishes for a long and prosperous life were extended by the callers throughout the day. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder were seated in the reception room and greeted their friends as they passed through the spacious rooms. They were assisted in receiving by their three sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Spyder, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder. In the adjoining rooms the guests were entertained, and in the front room on the second floor could be seen the many gifts received. Among the countless tokens were noted contributions of gold and silver, brie-a-brac, linen, furniture, etc., which were greatly admired by all who were privileged fully $200 in gold coins and upwards of $300 worth of presents. The Ladies' Aid society, of the Simpson Methodist Episcoral church, and others identified with the church, sent a glass case containing $77.50 in gold, there was another purse containing $11 from near neighbors, and the members of the Lackawanna bar presented Mr. Snyder with a purse containing five ten dollar gold pieces, and a goldheaded cane, containing the inscription, "To J.
