HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

The High school commencement exercises will be held in the Grand Opera House Wednesday evening, June 27, 1900. In addition to the salutatory and valedictory essays and the oration there will be a vocal solo by Miss Mina Frank; a violin solo by Miss Marie Graham; piano duet, Misses Glennon and Rolls, and music by a double quartette and the High School orchestra.

The principal feature of the evening's entertainment will be an address by M. F. Conry, esq., of Scranten, a grad-uate of the University of Michigan. He will speak on "The those of the Republic." Mr. Conry is acknowledged to be the most eloquent speaker in the Electric City. He is also prominent among the lawyers there.

Mayor Kipatrick will award the prizes offered by several citizens at the beginning of the term and Superintendent Elmer E. Garr will confer

MOON-COLE NUPTIALS.

At half past four yesterday afternoon Rev. Rollin A. Sawyer, of Trinity Episcopal church, united in marriage Miss Martha J. Cole and Albert J. Moon. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, on Brook street. Miss Delia Vandermark of Lexington, Ky., was maid of honor and Frederick Moon, best man. A collation was served and the young people left for the sea shore. They will reside with Mrs. Cole.

A JUNE WEDDING.

A very pretty June wedding occurred vesterday morning at 9 o'clock, when Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison, of South Main avenue, was led to the altar by John N. Nealon, the deputy postmaster. The pair were united by Father James Moffit, an uncle of the groom, and Mrs. James P. Loftus, an aunt of the groom, presided at the organ. The bride was prettily attired in a traveling gown of dark blue broadcloth, with braid trimmings, and hat to match.

DEMANDED MORE PAY.

E. M. Powers, the contractor, who is engaged in clearing up the big tract of land south of Park street, is having troubles of his own. Some of the men employed at cutting away the underbrush struck for an increase of salary on Tuesday. They were receiving $1.50 per day, but as they had to work in a swampy place, where snakes were sometimes found, they asked for $2 per day. The request was not complled with and a number of Italians were put to work in their places.

A Day of Weddings-Entertainment by Miss Stearns' Pupils Tomorrow Evening.

That June is still the favorite month for nuptials was evidently manifested in this town, there being no fewer than four weddings celebrated here yesterday. One of the prettiest was that of Miss Evelyn Wheeler and Grant L. Bell, which took place last evening in the Methodist Episcopal church, in the presence of several hundred invited guests. The church was tastefully decorated with potted plants, ferns and palms, and suspended over the heads of the bridal couple during the ceremony was a true lover's knot of hydrangia. At the door the bridal party were met by Usners William McCulloch, Ernest W. Dolph, Henry Hemelright and Julian S. Morss, who led the way down through the aisles, followed by the bridesmaid,

Miss Elsie Tucker, and the groomsman, Raiph E. Wheeler; next came the two little flower girls, Ethel Bell and Vida Snover, the bride and groom following Widmayer's orchestra, of Scranton, furnished the music, and as the bridal party entered the church the orchestra played the well-known bridal chorus from Wagner's Lohen-grin. At the altar rail the bridal party was met by Rev. M. D. Fuller, D. D., pastor of the church, who performed the ceremony and thus united them in holy wedlock. As the bridal procession left the church the orchestra played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was attired in an exceedingly pretty costume of cream landsdowne, with rennaissance lace and liberty silk trimmings. The bridesmald were a dress of white organdie with lace and insertion. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's parents' Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wheeler, of Secfor their summer outing at Ocean ond street, and was attended by a large concourse of friends of both families. An elegant repast was served, the waitresses being the members of and Hudson train at 11 o'clock for a ten days' wedding trip, and upon their return will take up their residence in this borough. Ther have the wishes of a host of friends for a happy and prosperous future Another pretty wedding was that of Charles F. Gannon, of this borough, and Miss Mary Brudy the well-known daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brady of Mayfield, which took place at 7.3) o'clock yesterday morning in Sacred Heart church, Rev. James Morrison, of Carpondale, officiating. The bride wore a proffy dress of white organdic as did her sister, Miss Celia Brady, the bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother, George Gannon. A nuptial mass was afterwards celeprated, and after the bride and groom had received the church's blessing they repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding breakfast was served, and later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Garnon left for New York, Philadelphia and other points of interest, and upon their return they will commence housekeeping in Olyphant, where the groom is for the Prudential Insurance company. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the this borough, and Mr. Daniel Jones, of Carbondale, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mason, of Second street. The bridal ouple were unattended, the bride heing attired in white satin with mouselne de sole trimmings. The ceremony was performed underneath a floral arch, Rev. M. D. Fuller, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. After the ceremony a breakfast was served. and the happy couple were busy for some time receiving the congratulations of their many friends. Shortly after noon they left on a brief wedding tour, and upon their return they will reside in this borough. At 6.30 o'clock last evening a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jones, of Fourth street, when their well-known daughter, Miss Martha Jones, and Mr. J. B.

Seigle, of Priceburg, were made one. The wedding was a quiet one and was witnessed by a number of the friends and relatives of both families. Rev. D. P. Jones, of Scranton, performed the interesting ceremony. A repast was afterwards held and throughout the evening a reception was held, in which many of the bride's numerous friends gave their congratulations and wished
