CARBONDALE.

MANY WEDDINGS.

Invitations have been issued to the wedding of Miss Mary E. Duffy, of Fallbrook street, to James E. Campbell, of Church street. The ceremony will be performed at St. Rose church next Wednesday. At that time and place will also occur the marriage of Miss Theresa Durkin, one of the popular teachers of the public schools, and John B. Brennan. Another nuptialistic announced for the near future is that of Miss Elizabeth Morrison, of Fallbrook street, and Edward Krantz, of Findlay, Ohio, formerly of this city.

MISSING FOR SEVEN MONTHS.

Little Hubert Brennan, of South Main street, is still missing from home and his parents are nearly distracted over the uncertainty as to his whereabouts. It is now seven months since he left the city and no trace of him has been had. They have by no means given up the search, but are using every effort that their modest means will allow to find their boy. They ask that the neighborhood papers copy this notice and assist them in their anxiety. Any information will be most thankfully received by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Brennan, South Main street.

The annual Children's Day exercises were held in the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday and were witessed by a congregation that filled the church to the doors, many others not being able to get inside. The Mary and Lizzie, of Scranton, were the subject of the exercises was "The Crown of the Century," and the young people carried out the various parts assigned them very creditably. The musical part of the exercises was very fine, the Sunday school orchestra, which was augmented for the occasion assisting the singers in making this part of the service most enjoyable, A feature of the day was the pretty floral decorations, the church seldom looking prettier than it did vesterday.

The Fourth of July usually is one of the dullest days in Jermyn in the whole year. Mr. Johns, of the Sweeney House, is endeavoring to have a few attractions here on that day and has arranged a base ball match between the Starlights, of Jessup, and a picked local nine. Another attraction he 6s arranging is a quoit match between the local champion and another well known player of the valley.

trasts and the contradictions. Pekin is by first intention a permanent Tartar encampment; a fortified garrison of nomad bannermen surrounding Paiching, the northern palace of the con-quering khan of khans. The Tartar ruler of four hundred millions of subject Chinese is closely surrounded by his faithful Manchu clansmen from 209 beyond the great wan, who have the masses of Chinese more than any outer enemy; who have thrown themselves into the arms of Russia through fear of the Chinese; who have bargained that Russia shall send soldiers to their aid Russia Sidney connections. Trains Not. 203 and 205 make Main Line connections on Suddey connections. For the Russia shall send soldiers to their aid Russia Sidney connections. Trains Not. 203 makes connection for points Not. 203 makes and Not order would relegate them to poverty change in the climate of this earth and extinction. Every Manchu is borne on the rolls as a bannerman, and receives his stipend, even if he never bends a bow or hurls a stone in military drill. But the Manchu bannermen are no longer the flerce warriors their ancestors were, nor khar even a hardly huntsman like the early Manchu emperors. There had been three cities there be ore Kublai Khan did his 'stately pleasure-dome decree,' and

So twice five miles of fertile ground With walls and towers were girdled ro o make the splendid capital Marco Polc first described. The plan, the palaces, the walls, all date from Mongoi times, the thirteenth century. The same quaint military customs of the middle ages are observed. The soldiers are drilled in archery and quoits, and the nine city gates are clanged to at sunset, shutting Chinese subjects character, and distinguishes it from out in a separate city by themselves, the other cities of the empire, are the as if their conquest were just accomthings that are not Chinese, the con- plished.
