WOMEN NOT SICK,

But Miserable, Weak, Nervous, Tired, Dyspeptic, Sleepless and Melancholy.

Mrs. D. FINLAY, PETOSKEY, MICH.

Miss MARY R. WIGHTMAN, EVANSTON, ILL. 1509 Maple Avenue, South Evanston, Ill.

The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio. Gentlemen—"About one year ago I suffered with frequent backache and dragging pains, added to general exhaustion from over-work. I tried two different tonics, highly recommended, but they did not help me any."

"One of my friends who had been greatly benefited by using Peruna, advised me to try it. I immediately procured a bottle, which helped me so much that I used a second one, which fully restored me to health. If I catch a slight cold now or feel unwell, I take a few doses of Peruna and it quickly relieves me."

MARY R. WIGHTMAN, Superintendent Loyal Temperance League.

Mrs. D. Finlay, 323 E. Mith street, Petoskey, Mich., says the following of the tonic and rejuvenating powers of Peruna:

"I never felt better in my life than I do now. Peruna has made a well worn man of me after five years of suffering and almost death. Now I can walk three miles in a day besides doing all my household work."

"I feel just as well as I did at twenty. I give all the praise to Peruna and always keep it in the house."

That American women are growing more slender and frail is too apparent to any observer for argument. Slenderness and fragility are the words that best describe the typical girl of today.

From an aesthetic standpoint, perhaps all this is an improvement on the more sturdy and buxom woman of two generations ago; but from any woman's standpoint it is rapid degeneration. These delicate creatures are easy to get sick, hard to keep well and very difficult to cure when sick.

Dr. Harman has given this subject special study and thought, and has done much toward remedying the matter. He makes an annual distribution of books devoted to the subject of the care and cure of women.

He conducts a prodigious correspondence, which covers all parts of the United States, giving advice, prescriptions, etc., etc. All the letters are given prompt and careful attention, and is regarded as strictly confidential. Dr. Harman will be a home body, prepared to treat these women for diseases peculiar to their sex during the summer months. Every letter will be answered giving the doctor's invaluable advice after forty-five years' experience in the treatment of women.

The doctor has now ready for the public a book for women only. This book shows how few women are really free from catarrh; how many have catarrh in some form or location. This book will be a home body, prepared to address the Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Clarence Simpson, of Scranton, visited his parents here last Tuesday.

The fifth annual picnic and clam bake of the Clark's Summit band will be held at Nichols' Grove, July 4th. There will be a home body game at 2 p. m.

The boys will undoubtedly be well patronized as they are deserving.

The bride was charmingly attired in a pearl gray gown with chiffon and satin trimmings. Her maid, Miss Nellie Loftus, wore a fowered silk gown of similar shade. Both wore white chiffon hats and carried bouquets of sweet peas. As the bridal party took their places at the sanctuary they presented a very handsome appearance. The groom was waited upon by Martin Buckley. A wedding reception was tendered a large number of invited guests at the home of the bride's parents last evening. The presence there was numerous and costly and embraced nearly all the requisites of house-keeping. Mr. and Mrs. Dunleavy will reside in a prettily furnished home in the North End.
