A NEWSPAPERMAN WEDS.

Last evening, at St. Mary's parochial residence, Rev. R. W. McAndrew united in marriage Richard A. Ward, city editor of the News, and Miss Rose M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W.

Kalser, of Wanamie. The groomsman was Thomas J. Walker, of the News staff, and the bride cas attended by Miss Alice Richards, Wanamie. Mr. and Mrs. Ward will it once go to housekeeping at 392 South River street.

The news of the marriage is somewhat in the nature of a surprise to their many friends, as no previous an nouncement had been made of the approaching nuptials, but no couple of the many that yesterday entered into the nuptial state will receive heartier or more earnest congratulations than they. Mr. Ward is one of the best known newspaper men in Northeastern Pennsylvania. He is a hustler in the line of news, a hard worker generally, and the "boys" of the various offices hold him in high regard. His bride is a young lady of many accomplishments. She is a graduate of the Bloomsburg State Normal school, and has taught in Newport township. They start out together under auspices that
