Drs. F. C. Hall and L. H. Raymond vere quickly summoned and bandaged the wounds of the child as quickly as possible. Her life was despaired of at first, but the physicians now have strong hopes of her ultimate recovery. At a late hour last night the child was resting easily, and no apprehension is felt for her safety.

Several of the children who were in the street at the time of the accident had a narrow escape. The explosion was heard several blocks away, and caused a tremendous sensation in the Young Peckins was later arrested by Lieutenant Williams and placed in the station house. He was given a hearing before Alderman John, who held him without ball to awalt the extent of the child's injuries. The boy is a son of Robert Peckins, a well-known conductor on the Lackawanna raffroad, and did not seem to realize the the station house.

He shouldered the responsibility willingly, however, and does not attach any blame on his companions.

Fourth of July Attractions.

The members and friends of St. Brendan's council, Young Men's Institute, will spend the Fourth in the quaint and pretty town of Montrose, yesterday one of the workmen turned as the guests of Rev. A. This is the season when the good qualities of your Furnishings are best tested. Ill-fitting garments produce misery. Badly cut collars and clumsy cuffs are a source of everlasting trouble. Unbecoming neckwear spoils appearance, while badly finished or poorly dyed hosiery has produced more profanity than most men are aware of.

The Moral==

If you buy your Furnishings at the Globe Warehouse you'll always get garments that fit, collars and cuffs that are comfortable and hosiery that is properly finished and will not stain the feet.

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

HIGH SCHOOL.

Class of Twenty-Seven Graduated Last Night in Manley's Hall Before a Large Audience-Diplomas Presented by President A. T. Irvine, of the School Board-Tomorrow's Services in the Various Churches - Pupils of Several Schools Have an Enjoyable Day.

Last evening was an evening of triumph for the boy and girl graduates of the High school, who at the close of an elaborate programme of commencement day exercises, seated in a semi-circle on the stage in Washington hall, received their well-earned diplomas, showing they had completed the courses of study of the Dunmore High school and had merited the generous words of praise which President A. T. Irvin said, prior to the distributing of the diplomas.

The class was an unusually large one numbering twenty-seven, and efforts were made by Superintendent E. D. Boyard and the instructors to have the exercises as interesting to pupils, parents and friends alike as it would be possible to make them.

The spacious hall in the Manley block was filled with the parents and friends by 8 o'clock and presented a pretty appearance, gaily decorated with palms, ferns and flowers, while class motto worked in daisies, "Ending, Yet Beginning." The programme was opened by the orchestra, which played Bartlett's "Commencement March," and at the close Miss Mabel Kelley, in behalf of the class, gave the salutatory, welcoming the parents and friends to the evening's exercises. Miss Lucy Heal aroused the good humor of the audience with her reading of "Budge's Version of the Flood." The essays by Misses Loretta Mc-Lane on "Self-Reliance," and Miss Anna McGuire on "Patriotism" were also well received and showed careful preparation. Miss Blanche Kellam's reading, entitled "Mr. Brown Has His Hair Cut," formed another diversiment from the more serious papers. After the rendition of the chorus, "The Battle Eve," by the class, Mr. Leroy Swingle the valedictorian of the class, stepped to the front and, in a well-prepared President of the School Board A. T. Irvin then appeared with an armful of diplomas, and in a few words presented each graduate with the coveted parchment as a reward for the hard hours and days of work in mastering the studies of the curriculum. Later, as the orchestra played the "High School March," and the graduates stepped down from the stage, many surged up to give them the praise well merited, while the faces of the parents wore a most happy look. It was a fitting end to the school year passed, and again places the Dunmore schools on a still higher plane in educational mat-

Without Cost No matter how Blemished the Skin, Face Bleach will make it perfect

Madame A. Ruppert says:

"I know there are many ladies who would rike to try the merits of my Face Bleach, but on account of the price, which is $2.00 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.00, have had some hesitancy in spending that amount to convince themselves of ite great value. Therefore, during this month, I will depart from my usual custom and offer to all a trial bottle, sufficient to show that it is all that I claim for it, for 25 cents per bottle. Any reader of this can send me 25 cents in stamps or silver, and I will send them a trial bottle of my world-renewsed Face Bleach, securely packed in plain wrapper, scaled, all charges prepaid. An opportunity to test so famous a remedy at so slight a cost is seldom offered, and I trust that the readers of this will take advantage of it at once, as the offer may not be repeated.

Madame A. Ruppert has now been before tage of it at once, as the offer may not be repeated.

Madame A. Ruppert has now been before the public for over twenty years as the greatest Complexion Specialist.

She is the pionner in her art, and stands pre-eminent at the head; she has had thousands of imitators, but not a single competitor. Face Bleach is not a new untried remedy, but has been used by the best people for years, and for dissolving and removing tan, sunburn, moth, freckles, sallowness, blackheads, exzems, pimples, roughness or redness of the skin, and for brightening and beautifying the complexion, it has no equal.

brightening and beautifying the complexion, it has no equal.

It is Absolutely Harmless to the most Delicate Skin

The marvelous improvement after a few applications is most apparent, for the skin becomes as nature intended it should be, SMOOTH, CLEAR AND WHITE, free from every impurity and blemish. It cannot fall, for its action is such that it draws the impurities out of the skin, and does not cover them up, and is invisible during use. This is the only thorough and permanent way.

For the present I will, as stated above, send a trial bottle of my Face Bleach to anyone who will remit me 25 cents in stamps or silver. Madame A. Ruppert's book, "How to Be Beautiful," which contains many points of great interest to ladies, will be mailed free upon application. Address all communications to.
