

EXTRAORDINARY CONTEST

The Tribune Offers Unusual Inducements for Earnest Efforts on the Part of Active Young Persons.

SPECIAL REWARDS FOR THE MOST ENERGETIC

Those Who Secure the Greatest Number of New Subscribers for the Tribune Will Be Well Paid for Their Services—An Excellent Opportunity Is Afforded the Ambitious to Use Their Summer Vacation Period in Earning Money and Perhaps Securing One of the Several Valuable Rewards.

SPECIAL REWARDS.

- Scholarship in Wyoming Seminary (4 years) including tuition and board ..... $1,000
- Scholarship in Keystone Academy (3 years) including tuition and board ..... 504
- Scholar 5-B Piano, including stool and scarf ..... 485
- Course in Piano Instruction at Scranton Conservatory of Music ..... 75
- Columbia Bicycle, Chainless, 1900 model ..... 75
- Scholarship in Scranton Business College, commercial course ..... 60
- Scholarship in Scranton Business College, shorthand course ..... 60
- Solid Gold Watch, lady's or gentleman's ..... 50
- Tele-Photo Cycle Pico B Camera, 4x5 ..... 40
- Gold watch, lady's or gentleman's ..... 40

Each contestant failing to secure one of the special rewards will be given ten (10) per cent. of all the money he or she turns in.

On Thursday, July 5, The Scranton Tribune will inaugurate an Educational Contest, open to every ambitious person, not only in Scranton, but throughout Lackawanna and other counties in Northeastern Pennsylvania. This Educational Contest will be of unusual magnitude and will be carried out in strict accordance with the rules of fairness and justice.

Unlike all other plans that have been furthered by newspapers in order to increase their circulation, there will be a compensation for every participant, and those who are not successful in attaining a share in the first ten great special rewards will be suitably remunerated for their interest and endeavor to help themselves in a manner that cannot fail to prove satisfactory. The object of The Tribune in promoting this enterprise is two-fold. It aims to largely increase its circulation during the next few months in the city of Scranton, and also in the outlying boroughs and townships in Northeastern Pennsylvania, which it regards as its field for future effort, in view of Scranton being the metropolis and great business center of a territory many miles in radius. Its second object is the meritorious one of placing within the grasp of ambitious young men and women a thorough and practical education. To do this it has decided to use only the best scholarships, classical, commercial or musical, and with that end in view has made contracts with the leading institutions of learning in this section of the state, including such well-known schools as the Wyoming Seminary, Keystone Academy, Scranton Business College and Scranton Conservatory of Music. In addition to scholarships in these foremost institutions, it has also decided upon other prizes for which it may not care or will not have time to take the full courses. These include a Sohmer Cabinet Grand Piano, a Columbia chainless bicycle, 1900 model; gold and silver watches, and a tele-cope camera. In addition to these special rewards, ten in number, which will go to the most successful contestants, every other person who applies to them, but fails to be one of the ten fortunate ones, will be suitably rewarded for his or her trouble, in a manner explained further on.

Our Aim.

As stated above, The Tribune aims to largely increase its circulation during the next few months. It is the best and clearest paper published in Northeastern Pennsylvania, and if it could find its way into a family its merits will enable it to remain permanently. In order to introduce it we seek the cooperation of ambitious, intelligent young men and women, and to gain their help have put into execution a plan that will interest every one.

We are going to give the scholarships and other special rewards to the ten persons who will be most successful and attain the highest number of points in our Educational Contest. By free scholarships we mean a full course of study, paying the tuition charges in each, and in the cases of the two leading scholarships, namely, those of the Wyoming Seminary and the Keystone Academy, The Tribune will not only pay all tuition charges but will also pay the board of the fortunate winners during the life of the scholarship, covering four and three years respectively.

The Special Rewards.

1.—A full scholarship at the Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa., consisting of a four years' course, the winner having the option of either a Classical, Latin-Scientific, Scientific or Technical course, with tuition fees, books and stationery and board absolutely without cost to the winner, during his or her term of attendance at the school. There are three terms a year and the studies are of a very advanced grade. This seminary was established to provide means for the thorough education of young men and women in all the branches of learning necessary to their usefulness. It has a large and increasing faculty and its lecturers are from the best college and business institutions in the United States. The winner of the first reward will be entitled to tuition in this seminary absolutely free of expense to him or herself. The value of this reward is $1,000.

2.—A full scholarship in the Keystone Academy, Factoryville, Pa., under the same conditions as above, viz: tuition and board at the Academy for three years. This preparatory academy is so well and favorably known all through this section of Pennsylvania that it would be superfluous to add words of praise in describing its standing in the ranks of educational institutions. The student who goes there as a result of his or her success in working for The Tribune will do so absolutely without expense to himself or herself. Value of this reward, $500.

3.—Value $485. A Sohmer Cabinet Grand Piano, scarf and stool. This high-class instrument, beautiful and symmetrical in design and of the very highest excellence in workmanship, may now be seen at the music rooms of J. H. Griesmer, 214 Washington avenue, Scranton. It is handsomely finished in walnut, and is not only pleasing to the eye, but well and harmoniously proportioned; as follows: Height, 4 feet 6 inches; width, 5 feet 2 inches, and is 7-1/3 octave, has a swing board and length of piano and a double hinge fall board. The scarf is silken and the stool is finished to harmonize with the piano. This special reward will be delivered complete at the home of the winner, whether in Scranton or elsewhere in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

4.—Value $75. Full year's course in the Scranton Conservatory of Music. This scholarship, known as Course D, is for the school year of forty weeks, according to calendar. Pupils in this course receive three lessons each week—two hours per week in pianoforte in class of four, and one hour in general training class, sight playing, keyboard harmony, technique, transcription, etc. Frequent public recitals are given during the year as an important part of the Conservatory curriculum. During the coming school year the Pianoforte method of piano instruction will be taught in this conservatory, and will be under the supervision of Miss Mabel A. French, of Boston, a pianist of exceptional ability, and a member of the faculty of the Faelien Pianoforte School of Boston.

5.—Value $75. A Columbia chainless bicycle, 1900 model. The very excellent standard of this make of wheel is universally recognized all over the civilized world, and we have selected it as one of the special rewards for this reason. The Columbia Chainless Bicycle, selected for this contest is now on exhibition at Conrad Bros., 243 Wyoming avenue, Scranton, and will be furnished either in a lady's or gentleman's model.

6.—Value $60. A full scholarship in the Scranton Business College—short-hand course—with privileges as above. The shorthand course embraces the following studies: Shorthand, typewriting, manifolding, penmanship, practical grammar, capitalization, punctuation, business correspondence, filing letters, spelling and press copying. As stated in the above paragraph there is no restriction placed upon the length of time to attain proficiency, these two scholarships being unlimited.

7.—Value $50. The Tele-Photo Cycle Pico B Camera, 4x5, with scarf, on exhibition in the windows of the Griffin Art Company, 295 Wyoming avenue, the latter part of the week. It is positively the king of all hand cameras and is the product of the Rochester Camera and Supply Company. It fills the demand of up-to-date camera photographers, and every adjustment that can be applied to a camera. All wood parts are made of highly polished mahogany and all brass parts are polished and lacquered. It has two fine rack-and-pinion focusing attachments, rising and falling front, spring-actuated, and a double viewfinder and level and takes a photo 4x5 inches. It is fitted with high-grade Rochester symmetrical lens and Calcium shutter, with iris diaphragm, hand and pneumatic release bulb and lens attachment, and furnishes all accessories for the amateur. This first-class camera can be carried on a bicycle without inconvenience.

8.—Value $20. A solid Gold Watch, in lady's size, now on exhibition at the jewelry store of Eugene Schimpff, 217 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton. The watch is of the Illinois Watch Company and is fitted with fine Springfield movement. The case is of solid 14-karat gold, with handsomely chased design, and is warranted. If the winner is a gentleman and prefers, he may have a gold-filled case instead, warranted for two years, and of the same value, or a solid silver watch.

Every person who wishes to engage in this contest will be furnished with a book of credit blanks, wherein will be set forth the rules of the contest and a list of the special rewards. It must be borne strictly in mind that credit will only be given for new subscribers, and after the points have been credited to any contestant they will not be transferred to any other. These books of blanks can be had by application to The Tribune, on and after Thursday, July 5, or will be sent by mail to those residing outside of the city. Where the points have been credited in Scranton, application in person is required. Each book of credit blanks consists of ten leaves, giving spaces for ten names of new subscribers. Each contestant must fill out one of these books entirely before being entitled to the points, but each one may apply for and receive as many of these books of credit blanks as he or she desires and can use, but only one at a time will be furnished. The Tribune will also furnish all applicants with sample copies of the paper, and all inquiries for more information will receive prompt and courteous attention.

How to Begin. The first necessary step, of course, is to secure one of the credit-blank books and read carefully the rules governing the contest, which are printed on the cover of the book. Logical reasons why the friends of the contestants should subscribe are also set forth in detail in the book, giving the contestants the assurance that their friends who they should subscribe for The Scranton Tribune. Read these carefully and it will pay you to commit them to memory, so that you will be well equipped with material for gaining their interest and convincing them to subscribe to the paper.

Not a Gift Enterprise. The Tribune wishes to emphasize the fact that this is in no sense a gift enterprise or a scheme to swell its circulation books at the expense of outsiders. It is a bonafide business offer, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and it will be carried out with equity and justice to all. Every young man or woman who participates will receive a share of the proceeds, even if successful in securing but one subscription. The Tribune takes this means of securing new subscribers in lieu of the old-fashioned way of employing regular canvassers and solicitors, and neither the price nor the quality of the paper has been cheapened in any way. We will continue to charge the same rate for subscriptions during the course of this Educational Contest as we have in the past. The special rewards will represent remuneration for services performed, and those who can show the best results for their work will be entitled to the most pay. It is also a grand opportunity for aspiring young men and women who desire to be better equipped to face the future, and it is a chance to see the world in view of encouraging worthy ambition that the chief rewards were decided upon. During the summer vacation there will be an opportunity for these young persons to earn a right to an advantage they would not otherwise secure, and it was with this service in view of the benefits which the successful competitors will receive will be lasting.

There is not the slightest question of the great possibilities that the future may have in store for the successful ones in this campaign of knowledge in addition to the above ten rewards, and in order to compensate those who may enter upon this work and not be successful in obtaining one of the ten special rewards, The Tribune will give to every one who succeeds in obtaining subscribers under the terms of this contest ten (10) per cent. of all the money from subscriptions that may succeed in winning for it. This extra inducement is intended to satisfy and pay those who labor for it, as The Tribune does not expect its friends to exert themselves for its benefit without remuneration. We feel confident that this will meet the views of all fair-minded persons, who in this way will come in for a share of the benefits, even if not in the ranks of the first ten.

Not a Gift Enterprise. The Tribune wishes to emphasize the fact that this is in no sense a gift enterprise or a scheme to swell its circulation books at the expense of outsiders. It is a bonafide business offer, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and it will be carried out with equity and justice to all. Every young man or woman who participates will receive a share of the proceeds, even if successful in securing but one subscription. The Tribune takes this means of securing new subscribers in lieu of the old-fashioned way of employing regular canvassers and solicitors, and neither the price nor the quality of the paper has been cheapened in any way. We will continue to charge the same rate for subscriptions during the course of this Educational Contest as we have in the past. The special rewards will represent remuneration for services performed, and those who can show the best results for their work will be entitled to the most pay. It is also a grand opportunity for aspiring young men and women who desire to be better equipped to face the future, and it is a chance to see the world in view of encouraging worthy ambition that the chief rewards were decided upon. During the summer vacation there will be an opportunity for these young persons to earn a right to an advantage they would not otherwise secure, and it was with this service in view of the benefits which the successful competitors will receive will be lasting.

There is not the slightest question of the great possibilities that the future may have in store for the successful ones in this campaign of knowledge in addition to the above ten rewards, and in order to compensate those who may enter upon this work and not be successful in obtaining one of the ten special rewards, The Tribune will give to every one who succeeds in obtaining subscribers under the terms of this contest ten (10) per cent. of all the money from subscriptions that may succeed in winning for it. This extra inducement is intended to satisfy and pay those who labor for it, as The Tribune does not expect its friends to exert themselves for its benefit without remuneration. We feel confident that this will meet the views of all fair-minded persons, who in this way will come in for a share of the benefits, even if not in the ranks of the first ten.

Not a Gift Enterprise. The Tribune wishes to emphasize the fact that this is in no sense a gift enterprise or a scheme to swell its circulation books at the expense of outsiders. It is a bonafide business offer, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and it will be carried out with equity and justice to all. Every young man or woman who participates will receive a share of the proceeds, even if successful in securing but one subscription. The Tribune takes this means of securing new subscribers in lieu of the old-fashioned way of employing regular canvassers and solicitors, and neither the price nor the quality of the paper has been cheapened in any way. We will continue to charge the same rate for subscriptions during the course of this Educational Contest as we have in the past. The special rewards will represent remuneration for services performed, and those who can show the best results for their work will be entitled to the most pay. It is also a grand opportunity for aspiring young men and women who desire to be better equipped to face the future, and it is a chance to see the world in view of encouraging worthy ambition that the chief rewards were decided upon. During the summer vacation there will be an opportunity for these young persons to earn a right to an advantage they would not otherwise secure, and it was with this service in view of the benefits which the successful competitors will receive will be lasting.

There is not the slightest question of the great possibilities that the future may have in store for the successful ones in this campaign of knowledge in addition to the above ten rewards, and in order to compensate those who may enter upon this work and not be successful in obtaining one of the ten special rewards, The Tribune will give to every one who succeeds in obtaining subscribers under the terms of this contest ten (10) per cent. of all the money from subscriptions that may succeed in winning for it. This extra inducement is intended to satisfy and pay those who labor for it, as The Tribune does not expect its friends to exert themselves for its benefit without remuneration. We feel confident that this will meet the views of all fair-minded persons, who in this way will come in for a share of the benefits, even if not in the ranks of the first ten.

Not a Gift Enterprise. The Tribune wishes to emphasize the fact that this is in no sense a gift enterprise or a scheme to swell its circulation books at the expense of outsiders. It is a bonafide business offer, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and it will be carried out with equity and justice to all. Every young man or woman who participates will receive a share of the proceeds, even if successful in securing but one subscription. The Tribune takes this means of securing new subscribers in lieu of the old-fashioned way of employing regular canvassers and solicitors, and neither the price nor the quality of the paper has been cheapened in any way. We will continue to charge the same rate for subscriptions during the course of this Educational Contest as we have in the past. The special rewards will represent remuneration for services performed, and those who can show the best results for their work will be entitled to the most pay. It is also a grand opportunity for aspiring young men and women who desire to be better equipped to face the future, and it is a chance to see the world in view of encouraging worthy ambition that the chief rewards were decided upon. During the summer vacation there will be an opportunity for these young persons to earn a right to an advantage they would not otherwise secure, and it was with this service in view of the benefits which the successful competitors will receive will be lasting.

seeking. There is no voting for the most popular person in any walk of life and no coupon scheme attached, but a just and generous award of merit for those who beat themselves, and the ones who strive with the greatest ardor will reap the greatest good. This is as it is and should be in all departments of labor.

Educational Rewards.

Of the ten special rewards for the ten highest competitors in this contest, there is not one in the selection of which discrimination and favoritism has not been exercised. The aim has been kept steadily in view to give rewards that will be of lasting benefit. The special rewards of an educational nature, of which there are five, are of the very highest class, and the young man or woman who secures one of these five educational rewards will have just cause for elation at his success, for independent of the feeling of victory worthily indulged in by the first of those who compete in a contest so great and so widely advertised as this, the Scranton Tribune's Educational Contest will be the substantial fruits of victory will be well worth garnering. The results of three months' earnest effort will be lifelong, and any one of these scholarships awarded to a contestant upon its winning an advantage that would possibly not otherwise be within his reach. Of the other rewards, viz: the Sohmer Cabinet Grand Piano, the Columbia Chainless Bicycle, the Tele-cope Camera, the Gold Watch and Solid Gold Watch, all have been selected from the viewpoint of utility, and the ones who come within the first ten and prefer an immediate bestowal of their rewards will have a valuable list to choose from. Some may prefer the scholarships in the various educational institutions; others may choose the rewards that are exhibited in the windows of Scranton's business houses.

The Plan of Action.

Every person who wishes to engage in this contest will be furnished with a book of credit blanks, wherein will be set forth the rules of the contest and a list of the special rewards. It must be borne strictly in mind that credit will only be given for new subscribers, and after the points have been credited to any contestant they will not be transferred to any other. These books of blanks can be had by application to The Tribune, on and after Thursday, July 5, or will be sent by mail to those residing outside of the city. Where the points have been credited in Scranton, application in person is required. Each book of credit blanks consists of ten leaves, giving spaces for ten names of new subscribers. Each contestant must fill out one of these books entirely before being entitled to the points, but each one may apply for and receive as many of these books of credit blanks as he or she desires and can use, but only one at a time will be furnished. The Tribune will also furnish all applicants with sample copies of the paper, and all inquiries for more information will receive prompt and courteous attention.

How to Begin. The first necessary step, of course, is to secure one of the credit-blank books and read carefully the rules governing the contest, which are printed on the cover of the book. Logical reasons why the friends of the contestants should subscribe are also set forth in detail in the book, giving the contestants the assurance that their friends who they should subscribe for The Scranton Tribune. Read these carefully and it will pay you to commit them to memory, so that you will be well equipped with material for gaining their interest and convincing them to subscribe to the paper.

Not a Gift Enterprise. The Tribune wishes to emphasize the fact that this is in no sense a gift enterprise or a scheme to swell its circulation books at the expense of outsiders. It is a bonafide business offer, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and it will be carried out with equity and justice to all. Every young man or woman who participates will receive a share of the proceeds, even if successful in securing but one subscription. The Tribune takes this means of securing new subscribers in lieu of the old-fashioned way of employing regular canvassers and solicitors, and neither the price nor the quality of the paper has been cheapened in any way. We will continue to charge the same rate for subscriptions during the course of this Educational Contest as we have in the past. The special rewards will represent remuneration for services performed, and those who can show the best results for their work will be entitled to the most pay. It is also a grand opportunity for aspiring young men and women who desire to be better equipped to face the future, and it is a chance to see the world in view of encouraging worthy ambition that the chief rewards were decided upon. During the summer vacation there will be an opportunity for these young persons to earn a right to an advantage they would not otherwise secure, and it was with this service in view of the benefits which the successful competitors will receive will be lasting.

There is not the slightest question of the great possibilities that the future may have in store for the successful ones in this campaign of knowledge in addition to the above ten rewards, and in order to compensate those who may enter upon this work and not be successful in obtaining one of the ten special rewards, The Tribune will give to every one who succeeds in obtaining subscribers under the terms of this contest ten (10) per cent. of all the money from subscriptions that may succeed in winning for it. This extra inducement is intended to satisfy and pay those who labor for it, as The Tribune does not expect its friends to exert themselves for its benefit without remuneration. We feel confident that this will meet the views of all fair-minded persons, who in this way will come in for a share of the benefits, even if not in the ranks of the first ten.

Not a Gift Enterprise. The Tribune wishes to emphasize the fact that this is in no sense a gift enterprise or a scheme to swell its circulation books at the expense of outsiders. It is a bonafide business offer, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and it will be carried out with equity and justice to all. Every young man or woman who participates will receive a share of the proceeds, even if successful in securing but one subscription. The Tribune takes this means of securing new subscribers in lieu of the old-fashioned way of employing regular canvassers and solicitors, and neither the price nor the quality of the paper has been cheapened in any way. We will continue to charge the same rate for subscriptions during the course of this Educational Contest as we have in the past. The special rewards will represent remuneration for services performed, and those who can show the best results for their work will be entitled to the most pay. It is also a grand opportunity for aspiring young men and women who desire to be better equipped to face the future, and it is a chance to see the world in view of encouraging worthy ambition that the chief rewards were decided upon. During the summer vacation there will be an opportunity for these young persons to earn a right to an advantage they would not otherwise secure, and it was with this service in view of the benefits which the successful competitors will receive will be lasting.

There is not the slightest question of the great possibilities that the future may have in store for the successful ones in this campaign of knowledge in addition to the above ten rewards, and in order to compensate those who may enter upon this work and not be successful in obtaining one of the ten special rewards, The Tribune will give to every one who succeeds in obtaining subscribers under the terms of this contest ten (10) per cent. of all the money from subscriptions that may succeed in winning for it. This extra inducement is intended to satisfy and pay those who labor for it, as The Tribune does not expect its friends to exert themselves for its benefit without remuneration. We feel confident that this will meet the views of all fair-minded persons, who in this way will come in for a share of the benefits, even if not in the ranks of the first ten.

Not a Gift Enterprise. The Tribune wishes to emphasize the fact that this is in no sense a gift enterprise or a scheme to swell its circulation books at the expense of outsiders. It is a bonafide business offer, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and it will be carried out with equity and justice to all. Every young man or woman who participates will receive a share of the proceeds, even if successful in securing but one subscription. The Tribune takes this means of securing new subscribers in lieu of the old-fashioned way of employing regular canvassers and solicitors, and neither the price nor the quality of the paper has been cheapened in any way. We will continue to charge the same rate for subscriptions during the course of this Educational Contest as we have in the past. The special rewards will represent remuneration for services performed, and those who can show the best results for their work will be entitled to the most pay. It is also a grand opportunity for aspiring young men and women who desire to be better equipped to face the future, and it is a chance to see the world in view of encouraging worthy ambition that the chief rewards were decided upon. During the summer vacation there will be an opportunity for these young persons to earn a right to an advantage they would not otherwise secure, and it was with this service in view of the benefits which the successful competitors will receive will be lasting.

There is not the slightest question of the great possibilities that the future may have in store for the successful ones in this campaign of knowledge

Not a Gift Enterprise. The Tribune wishes to emphasize the fact that this is in no sense a gift enterprise or a scheme to swell its circulation books at the expense of outsiders. It is a bonafide business offer, conceived in a spirit of fairness, and it will be carried out with equity and justice to all. Every young man or woman who participates will receive a share of the proceeds, even if successful in securing but one subscription. The Tribune takes this means of securing new subscribers in lieu of the old-fashioned way of employing regular canvassers and solicitors, and neither the price nor the quality of the paper has been cheapened in any way. We will continue to charge the same rate for subscriptions during the course of this Educational Contest as we have in the past. The special rewards will represent remuneration for services performed, and those who can show the best results for their work will be entitled to the most pay. It is also a grand opportunity for aspiring young men and women who desire to be better equipped to face the future, and it is a chance to see the world in view of encouraging worthy ambition that the chief rewards were decided upon. During the summer vacation there will be an opportunity for these young persons to earn a right to an advantage they would not otherwise secure, and it was with this service in view of the benefits which the successful competitors will receive will be lasting.

HEALTHY WOMEN.

Mary J. Kennedy, Manager of Armour & Co's Exhibit at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha, Neb., writes the following of Peruna as a cure for that common phase of summer catarrh, known as indigestion. Miss Kennedy writes: "I found the continual change of diet incidental to eight years' traveling completely upset my digestive system. In consulting several physicians they decided I suffered with chronic catarrh. Their prescriptions did not seem to help me any, so, reading of the remarkable cures effected by the use of Peruna I decided to try it and soon found myself well repaid."

"I have now used Peruna for about three months and feel completely rejuvenated. I believe I am permanently cured, and do not hesitate to give unstinted praise to your great remedy, Peruna."

The causes of summer catarrh are first, chronic catarrh; second, derangements of the stomach and liver; third, impure blood. It is very rare indeed to find any case of summer catarrh which is not the result of one or more of these causes.

Such being the case anyone who knows anything whatever about the operation of Peruna can understand why this remedy is a permanent cure for summer catarrh. It eradicates chronic catarrh, purifies the system, invigorates the stomach and liver, cleanses the blood of all impurities, and therefore permanently cures by removing the cause—a host of maladies peculiar to hot weather. The cause being removed the symptoms disappear of themselves.

That "tired feeling" gives place to exuberance of youth; the dizzy head and trembling hand subside and a clear brain and steady nerves appear in their stead; in the place of a coated tongue, sour stomach, dyspepsia, constipation and despondency, comes a clean tongue, sweet breath, keen appetite, good digestion, regular bowels, and existence becomes a pleasure. The bloom of health returns to sallow cheeks and roundness to the wasted form. Life is worth living again. All things have become new.

J. B. Allen, Petoskey, Mich., writes: "We keep Peruna constantly on hand as an ever ready household remedy. During last summer and autumn we had a granddaughter with us, who was quite poorly, and quite sickly with us, and she was quite ill. We at once commenced administering Mannin and after the use of one bottle all the sallowness disappeared, her appetite returned, and when she went to her home in the bloom of perfect health, her parents were most happily surprised at her restoration and her improved condition, her cheeks glowing with the bloom of perfect health."

A very interesting treatise on "Summer Catarrh" is sent free to any address by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, July 2.—With the exception of a brief period of depression at the opening in sympathy with the London market, the stock market was consistently strong throughout the day and closed with the gains well maintained. In nearly all cases, the high water mark was pretty well diffused the Grangers and Pacific were the chief favorites of the market, in view of activity and strength. The bidding up of prices today represented the effort by professional investors to anticipate the coming price movement. In fact the whole movement was largely in professional hands, the advance being accompanied by a volume of volume, and with the obvious intention of improving the level of prices. The steel stocks were among the early leaders, the closing prices of the new issue of continued decline in price of products and the widespread closing down of mills resulting in a general depression of the market. There was also a reaction in the price of pig iron. The total sales generally did not reach their former high level. The market was closed at 10:30 a. m. Total sales today, 297,000 shares. A long list of new issues was announced, including many of them made good progress towards recovering the amount of the interest. The following quotations are furnished The Tribune by M. S. Jordan & Co., room 705-706 Meigs building. Telephone 600.

Stock	High	Low	Close
American Sugar	115 1/2	115 1/4	115 1/4
Amalgamated	100	99 1/2	100
Am. S. & W.	20 1/2	20 1/4	20 1/4
Atchafalpa	60 1/2	60 1/4	60 1/4
B. & O.	70 1/2	70 1/4	70 1/4
Brooklyn Traction	34 1/2	34 1/4	34 1/4
Ches. & Del.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & Ohio	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & Pot.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & Va.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & W.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & York	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & Z.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & A.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & B.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & C.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & D.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & E.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & F.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & G.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & H.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & I.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & J.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & K.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & L.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & M.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & N.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & O.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & P.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & Q.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & R.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & S.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & T.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & U.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & V.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & W.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & X.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & Y.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4
Ches. & Z.	25 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/4

To Contestants in Outside Towns.

Any young man or woman in the boroughs outside the city of Scranton will have an equal opportunity with those in the city in this Educational Contest. The territory they may reach in will offer as good chances as in the immediate center of the Electric City, for this reason: Although there may be fewer residents in their locality, yet there will also be fewer participants in the contest. Their circle of friends and acquaintances will be proportionately as large as those in the city, and they will have a chance to solicit their friends in the suburban towns, there will be no restrictions placed upon any one. All participants are free to go where they please to canvass. No one will have exclusive rights to any territory. Those who live in the city may go into the country, or residents of the country may come into the city to work. The expediency of their doing so is left entirely to their own judgment. The Tribune intends this to be a fair, open contest, and no undue favor will be shown to anyone. Out-of-town contestants can find much of value to point out to their friends in the columns of The Tribune, among the special features of the newspaper being its splendid local news service and its correspondence from forty-eight towns in Northeastern Pennsylvania. From town or village within a radius of fifty miles of Scranton is overlooked. Nearly all residents of outside towns have friends and relatives in surrounding villages or in Scranton, and if their attention is called to the fact that The Tribune has a regular correspondent from the place, the first step is made, and that frequent letters are published from there their interest will be at once secured, and probably their subscription. If the contestant, in addition, presents his personal interest in the contest.

Written Inquiries. All letters of inquiry must be addressed to the "Editor of the Educational Contest, Scranton Tribune, Scranton, Pa." The Tribune will be pleased to answer any inquiries for additional information and urges those interested to write, if in doubt upon any point. Contestants must be careful to write their names and those of subscribers plainly, and if a name is unusual, to print it, so that there will be no confusion or mistake on the books. Great care should be given to these very important details, so that all may receive full credit for their work.

Spent a Good Farm Doctoring.

Mr. A. N. Noel, of Asherville, Kan., says he spent a good deal of money for doctors for chronic diarrhoea, but got no relief and was afraid that he would die. He happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was permanently cured by it. For sale by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

NEW YORK HOTELS.

WESTMINSTER HOTEL,
NEW YORK.
Cor. Sixteenth St. and Irving Place.
American Plan, $2.50 per day and upward.
European Plan, $1.50 per day and upward.
I. D. CRAWFORD, Proprietor.

HOTEL ALBERT

NEW YORK.
Cor. 11th St. & UNIVERSITY PL.
Only one block from Broadway.
RESTAURANT
Rooms, $1 Up. Prices Reasonable.

Low Rates West