COUNCIL MEETS.

Select council met last night and disposed of a raft of routine business. Among other things the corrected bill of the Lackawanna Valley Electric Light company for $470.03 was ordered publ.
The requisitions of the hose companies were granted and Chief McNulty was instructed to buy supplies. New resolutions instructing city engineer to raise hydrant at Wayne street and Salem avenue and granting E. Rolls permission to connect cellar drain with surface sewer were

INSURANCE HAD JUST EXPIRED

The loss by fire which destroyed George Bry ant's house, on Drummend avenue, early Sunday morning, falls heavily upon Mr. and Mrs. George Dow, who occupied the second floor. Insurance on their furniture expired about a week ago and absolutely everything with which they startted housekeeping about a year ago was lost.
Even their pet dog was hurned and they barely escaped with their lives, saving only such clothes as they could seize while making a hasty exit through fire and smoke. They descended
