HOUSE WEDDING ON JACKSON STREET

MISS YOST AND CHARLES H. HALL MARRIED.

Ceremony Was Performed at the Home of the Bride by the Rev. Dr. Moffat, of the Washburn Street Presbyterian Church-Funeral of the Late Charles Swartz-Services the German Presbyterian in Church-Miss Connors Won the Watch at St. John's Church Picnic.

A pretty, but quiet, home wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Yost, 1314 Jackson street, when her daugh-ter, Grace Mabel, was unlied in marriage to Charles Herbert Hall, by Rev. Dr. Moffat, pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, of which the contracting parties are both active members.

Precisely at the appointed hour, 8.30 o'clock, the bride and groom, unattended, entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's march, played by Miss Anna Kennedy, and took their place under a large canopy of dalsie and the American flag, where Dr. Moffat awaited them and tied the knot. according to the ritual of the Presbyterian faith. In the centre of the canopy were the letters "H, and Y.," worked in dataies and tled by white ribbon. The parlor was quite prettily decorated with paims, ferns and potted plauis, presenting a unique scene.

The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white silk mousseline de soie trimmed with real lace; She carried bridal roses, tied with white ribbon, Only the immediate friends and relatives of the family and the teachers of No. 19 school, of which the bride was a former instructions, were in attendance. At the conclusion of the cere
