FUNERALS OF THE WRECK VICTIMS

REMAINS WERE LAID TO REST YESTERDAY. Fireman Henry A. Cogilizer Was Interred in the Dunmore Cemetery, Brakeman George W. Davis in Washburn Street Cemetery and Brakeman Edward Ryan in the Catholic Cemetery—All of the Funerals Were Attended by Many of the Fellow Workmen of Deceased.

The funerals of Fireman Henry A. Cogilizer and Brakeman George W. Davis and Edward Ryan, the three men who were killed in the wreck on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road at Henryville, Wednesday, took place yesterday afternoon.

The funeral of Fireman Henry A. Cogilizer was held at 1.50 p. m. in the Catholic cemetery. The interment was made in the Dunmore cemetery. A very large number of friends of the deceased attended the services, there being an especially large representation of railroaders, between eighty and ninety attending the services at the home, and about sixty being present at the cemetery.

Rev. C. A. Spieker, of the Holy Trinity Lutheran church, officiated and spoke touchingly of the true Christian life led by Mr. Cogilizer and of his manifold virtues and beauties of character. The choir of the church rendered several selections finely and after the ceremony interment was made in the Dunmore cemetery, the pallbearers and flower-bearers being members of Acme Lodge, Brotherhood of Railroad Firemen, in which the deceased was an active worker.

There were many beautiful floral tributes, Acme lodge presenting a magnificent broken shaft and many other handsome remembrances being sent.

DAVIS FUNERAL

The funeral of the late George Davis was held from the family residence, on North Bromley avenue, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. Two hours prior to the services, hundreds called at the home to extend their sympathy to the heart-broken family.

Rev. Hugh Davis, pastor of the Welsh Calvinist Methodist church, officiated and paid a high tribute to the deceased. In conclusion, he spoke words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved relatives, and exhorted the fellow-workmen present to be prepared for the end, for death cometh like a thief in the night. His discourse was impressive. A quartette from the church sang.

The remains were placed in a casket in the front room and was covered with flowers, which bespoke the esteem in which the deceased was held by those with whom he came in daily contact. At the conclusion of the services the funeral cortege moved to Washburn street cemetery, where burial was made. A delegation of the Brotherhood of Railroad Firemen, in which the deceased was an active worker, accompanied the funeral procession to the Catholic cemetery and presented a striking appearance.

RYAN FUNERAL

The funeral of Edward Ryan, of Dalton, took place yesterday afternoon. The body being brought to this city on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train and arriving here about 2.30 o'clock. It was met at the station by a number of the members of the veterans of the Spanish-American war association, to which organization he belonged. All of the men were attired in their regimentals and as they accompanied the funeral procession to the Catholic cemetery presented a striking appearance.

At the cemetery a firing squad, composed of Privates Thomas Jenkins, Seldman, Posner, Colborn, Trombauer and Gaines, fired a volley over the grave.

Services were conducted at the late home in Dalton and were largely attended. Among those present were a number of members of the Veterans' association, who acted as an escort to the remains. They were Comrades Jones, Betran, Malott, Thomas Crommer and Williams.

Rev. J. J. B. Feeley, of Nicholson, conducted the funeral services, which were very impressive. He spoke of the excellent life of the deceased, and made a touching and eloquent address. There were many floral tributes, beautiful evidences of the florists art being in abundance. One very handsome piece was sent by the Veterans' association.

EVERHART TO TAKE APPEAL

So His Attorney, I. H. Burns, Announced Yesterday. I. H. Burns, attorney for the defense, announced yesterday that an appeal would be taken from the $1,000 award of the arbitrators in the $15,000 damage suit of City Assessor Phillip Rinsland against the Everhart for the alienation of Mrs. Rinsland's affections. Mr. Rinsland also declares himself dissatisfied with the award.

Attorney L. P. Wedeman, who, with Attorneys Russell Dinmick and John P. Murphy, comprised the board of arbitrators, stated to a Tribune reporter that the award was in the nature of a punitive verdict.

COUNTY TREASURER WILL SUE

Will Go Into Court to Collect Mercantile Tax. Beginning today County Treasurer Kelly will bring suits against all parties who have failed to pay the state mercantile tax. This is in conformity with the imperative directions of the law. Over two hundred merchants were still owing the tax at the close of business yesterday.

WILL WRITE FOR THE TRIBUNE.

Rev. Dr. R. F. Y. Pierce Leaves for a Trip to Europe. Rev. Dr. R. F. Y. Pierce, pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, left the city last evening for New York, where he will this morning take passage on the steamship Aller for a two months' vacation tour of points of interest in Europe. Dr. Pierce has kindly consented to contribute to The Tribune a series of letters descriptive of scenes and incidents of his travel, which will be illustrated from photographs.

Among the principal cities and features to be visited by him are: Southampton, Salisbury, London, Harwich, Antwerp, Brussels, The Hague, Amsterdam, Cologne, On the Rhine, Bingen, Heidelberg, Schaffhausen (Falls of the Rhine), Lake Constance, Lindau, Ober Ammergau, Munich (Brenner Pass), Venice, Florence, Rome.

As soon as the delegates and alternates to the Democratic national convention return to the city the work of formulating the ticket that will go before the voters in November will be taken up in earnest.

At the outset it must be understood that it will not be a poor man's ticket. In the last issue of the Sunday News, Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons, the chairman of the Democratic county committee, set forth in language that admits of no misinterpretation that no man need seek a place on the ticket who is not able to pay his campaign assessment and his legitimate share of other campaign expenses. The Democratic party, he said, will carry no dead timber—that is, dead so far as finances are concerned.

With the dollar idea in mind the work of moulding a ticket has already been taken up and C. G. Boland and Cornelius Conroy suggested for consideration, with Mr. Boland as the favorite, because of the generous size of his pile and the fact that he is on speaking terms with the Hon. W. J. Bryan.

Judge John P. Kelly will be tendered the nomination for judge, and Charles H. Schadt is the favorite with the slate-makers for sheriff. Mr. Schadt has a dollar or two laid away for political purposes and he is a good spender. It can be said on the best authority that Chester Butts' boom for sheriff has entirely collapsed and that it never had any greater support than that given by Chester to it.

For county treasurer the sentiment is in favor of nominating E. J. Lynett, who owns a newspaper, bank stock in abundance, real estate galore and other real and personal property of great value.

Fred Warnke, the present recorder and coal operator, real estate owner and capitalist in general, is to be given a renomination for recorder, and Registrar of Wills William Koch will also be renominated. Mr. Koch is a thrifty young German, who owns a clear manufacturing establishment and has other sources of income that will enable him to do what is right by the campaign fund.

The office of clerk of the courts is being given the slate-makers much trouble, and they are endeavoring to induce City Controller Eadras Howell to accept it.

Since the nomination of W. R. Lewis for district attorney there has been a distinct shrinkage in the number of candidates for the Democratic nomination. Some of the leaders are urging former Senator M. E. McDonald to accept it. He is a man of abundant means, and sizes up to the necessities of the occasion better than any other Democratic attorney who could probably be induced to accept the nomination.

There is no certainty about the prothonotary or jury commissioner nominations as yet. Some up-the-valley man, Carbontown preferred, will be nominated for prothonotary. The jury commissioner will not be a member of the Men's union. That much is certain.

It is Perfectly Reliable. "We have sold many different cough remedies, but none has given better satisfaction than Chamberlain's," says Mr. Charles Holzhauser, druggist, Newark, N. J. "It is perfectly safe and can be relied upon in all cases of coughs, colds or hoarseness. Sold by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents."

COMPANIES SEIZING LAND.

Entering Upon Water Sheds by Right of Eminent Domain. In Prothonotary Copeland's office, yesterday, Annette Reynolds, treasurer of the Pocono Mountain Water Supply company, filed a bond in the sum of $2,000 to indemnify the United States Fidelity and Casualty company, of Baltimore, which became surety for the water company in proceedings to condemn certain land in Tunkhannock township, the waters of Tunkhannock creek and parts of Long pond, in Monroe county, the property of the Provident Life and Trust company. Frank P. Becker and Catherine Miller, John Canavan, of New York, yesterday effected an amicable settlement with the Scranton Gas and Water company for twenty-five acres of land near Lake Scranton, which was seized for a water shed, under right of eminent domain.

CLEARING THE RUINS.

Men Engaged in Removing Debris from Coal Exchange. The work of clearing away the ruins of the recent Coal Exchange fire was begun yesterday in the basement of the Mercereau & Connell store. That firm have men engaged in gathering from the ruins all the valuable portions of their damaged stock.

The work of repairing the building will be begun as soon as the debris has been removed, the insurance men having already appraised the damage.

County Chairman F. J. Fitzsimmons Serves Notice That the Men Who Obtain Places on the Democratic Ticket Must Be Able to Pay the Freight—Constructing a Ticket with the Dollar Idea Constantly in Mind—Those Who Have Found Favor To Date.
