SALARIES OF HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

HIGH SCHOOL COMMITTEE CANNOT AGREE ON THEM.

Mr. Gibbons Last Night Succeeded in Having Messrs. Barker and Jennings Appointed on the Committee—Bids for Supplying Coal and Wood Received—Mr. Jennings Says Assessors Are Not Correctly Enumerating Children—Salary of R. J. Jennings Increased by Board.

It has been a well known fact in the inner circle, that the members of the high and training school committee of the board of control have been at loggerheads during the past few weeks over the appointments at the high school for the coming year, but this fact didn't come to the surface until last night's meeting of the board, just before the committee's report was to have been read.

Just as Mr. Jayne called for the report of the committee, Mr. Gibbons rose and moved that the committee be increased by two members and that Messrs. Barker and Jennings be added to it. This took everybody by surprise and the motion was adopted, without any opposition.

Mr. Gibbons then moved that the report, which had not yet been read, and which Chairman Francis admitted was not complete, be referred back to the committee for consideration, and this, too, was carried.

The report, which the committee had ready to present, was signed by three members only, Messrs. Evans, Schwab and Neely. It provided for the appointment of Prof. W. E. Schimpf as instructor in mathematics to succeed Miss Mattie H. Gregg, and for the retention of all the other high school teachers. No provision for salaries was made.

MATTER OF SALARIES.

A member of the committee stated that he has just learned that the committee could not agree on salaries at all. Some favored increasing Vice Principal Wagner's salary by $200 a year, he said, while others were unalterably opposed to this. Others wanted Professor Grant's salary raised, while those who are opposed to this want Miss Mary Niland's salary increased.

Just where Mr. Gibbons stands on these questions he would not state, but he intimated that with the addition of Messrs. Jennings and Barker to the committee, the controller from the Twentieth could have things his own way. The next report of the committee will undoubtedly cause a deal of argument.

The bids for furnishing coal and wood to the district for the coming year were opened, read and referred to the supply committee. The coal bids were as follows:

Michael Gibbons and company—For second district; sizes larger than pea, $2.43; pea, $1.75. Third district, sizes larger than pea, $2.50; pea, $1.75.

Hugh Gilmore—First district, sizes larger than pea, $1.57. Third district, sizes larger than pea, $2.45; pea, $1.74.

James Flynn—Fourth district, sizes larger than pea, $2.58; pea, $1.85.

Clarke Tunnel Coal company—Third district, sizes larger than pea, $2.42; pea, $1.70. Fourth district, sizes larger than pea, $2.35; pea, $1.45.

John O'Horo & company—Fourth district, sizes larger than pea, $2.75; pea, $2.00. Buckwheat, $1.11.

James Kearney—First, First and Third districts, sizes larger than pea, $2.75; pea, $1.75; buckwheat, $1.00.

J. M. Murray—Second district, sizes larger than pea, $2.38; pea, $1.40; buckwheat, 39c.

The bids for wood were as follows:

James Flynn—Kindling wood, $2 for a one-ton wagon and $3.50 for a two-ton wagon. Slab wood, $1.75 for a one-ton wagon and $2.50 for a two-ton wagon.

James Kearney—Kindling and slab wood, $2 for a one-ton wagon and $3.50 for a two-ton wagon.

WANT CORRECT ASSESSMENT.

Mr. Jennings announced that he understood that some of the assessors believed that a rule exists in the county commissioner's office that the assessors will be paid only for registering the names of only 600 children in each ward. Therefore, he said, many of them were making a point of stopping when they had registered that number.

He moved that the truist officer be instructed to compare the returns of last year with those already turned in this year, for the purpose of ascertaining if this state of affairs really exists. This motion was adopted, and the board also decided to instruct the teachers' committee to wait upon the assessors and see if any such rule exists.

Captain May, of the kindergarten committee, recommended that the board, during the coming year, but three kindergarten teachers in addition to Miss Underwood and Miss Grace Peck, these three to be selected by the former and recommended for appointment. The committee also recommended that no bills for kindergarten supplies be passed by the board unless such supplies were ordered by the committee or by the superintendent.

Both recommendations were adopted. Mr. Gibbons suggested that four more kindergartens be opened to utilize the four teachers who will have to walk the plank. Captain May stated that the committee had considered this question and had decided that the appropriation this year is insufficient for any such extra expenditure.

As nearly every teacher hired by the board except the teachers who have had their salaries recently raised, it was decided, upon the recommendation of the supply committee, to increase the salary of R. J. Jennings, in charge of the supply room, from $65 to $75 a month.

GUARD MOUNT CONDUCTED.

On Court House Lawn, Under Direction of Adjutant Atherton.

A regulation guard mount was conducted yesterday afternoon on the northwest corner of the court house lawn by Adjutant Delph B. Atherton, of the Thirtieth regiment, assisted by several of the officers of that command. A large throng of spectators witnessed the tactical evolutions, it being a novel sight to those not accustomed to camp life.

Forty volunteers from the various city companies took part, about ten representing the old guard and thirty the new guard. For the benefit of those who may not understand what a guard mount is, it may be explained that it is the ceremony of changing and stationing a guard around a camp, and takes place every morning about 9 o'clock.

Bauer's regimental band assisted in the ceremony, which was witnessed by Major W. S. Miller, inspector of the Third Brigade, who appeared much pleased at the showing made by the men. The idea in conducting the mount was to give some of the men from each company a chance to receive, which will come in handy at camp.

Captain W. A. Raub acted as old officer of the day, while Captain John W. Kambeck was the new officer of the day. Lieutenant David J. Davis was in command of the old guard, and Lieutenant Pross was supernumerary officer of the guard. Adjutant Atherton, as mentioned above, was in command.

SCRAGG WAS ANGRY.

Told His Client to Keep Bothering People Who Had Him Arrested.

Four worthy citizens of the Nay Aug Falls region appeared before Mayor Moir yesterday afternoon and testified that they had been greatly perturbed and disturbed on several Sundays past by a certain brand of music which has come floating on the breeze from a merry-go-round organ, situated just outside Nay Aug park.

This testimony was offered at a hearing in the case of James L. Robinson, the proprietor of the merry-go-round, who had been arrested upon the complaint of the above-mentioned citizens for maintaining a nuisance on Sunday. Mayor Moir, after hearing the evidence, fined Robinson $5, which was paid.

When the five dollars had been turned over, Mr. Robinson's attorney, John F. Scragg, turned to him and said:

"You go back up there now and just bother the life out of these people all week, if they won't allow you to run on Sundays. Play your organ all you want to."

"Well, if he does," retorted Chief Hobling, "we'll have him up here again, for a man can maintain a public nuisance on a weekday just as well as on Sunday." Whereat Mr. Scragg was silent.

IMMENSE ROCK STRUCK HIM.

David Thomas Severely Injured at the Bellevue Slope.

David Thomas, aged twenty, a company hand at the Bellevue slope, sustained a painful injury, as the result of a fall of rock, yesterday morning.

He and a number of other company hands were dispatched to clear away the debris of a fall that occurred the night before. On arriving at the scene of the fall they found the roof still "working," and decided to withdraw. Just as Thomas was turning to leave, a slab of rock, weighing 300 pounds, fell and struck him a stunning blow on the head and shoulders, cutting a four-inch gash in his scalp and inflicting painful bruises. Another workman, standing at his elbow, escaped injury.

Dr. J. J. Roberts treated Thomas at his home, 902 Ebyon street. It required ten stitches to sew up the wound on his head.

TROLLEY COMPANY OFFERS A $200 REWARD.

General Manager Silliman Announces That That Amount Will Be Paid for Information That Will Lead to the Arrest of the Guilty Party—Motorman Newcombe Claims He Did All He Could to Stop His Car—Coroner Begins Investigation—Condition of the Injured.

It is now a practical certainty that Sunday's trolley wreck at Old Forge, by which Motorman Westbrook lost his life and at least a dozen others were injured, resulting primarily from the switch signals having been tampered with.

After a thorough examination as time and circumstances would permit, General Manager Frank Silliman adopted this theory of the cause of the accident, and in the hope of ferreting out and bringing to justice the guilty party, he has offered a reward of $200 for information that would lead to his detection. The offer of the reward will be found in the advertising columns of this morning's Tribune.

Residents of the neighborhood of the switch at the Muddtown end of the block, in which the accident occurred, all tell of it being a not uncommon practice of boys of that place to change the signals after a car has passed, and the crews on that line say they have had to back up to one or more times on the other account of two cars being brought into the same block by the changing of the signals after they had set them.

OFTEN CHASED BOYS.

Mrs. Joseph Brown, whose home faces the switch signal at Muddtown, says she has frequently chased boys away who were evidently bent on turning the lights on and off. She says, in total, she says, not over nine or ten years of age, attempting to turn the signal lever by reaching up to it with a stick.

There is a standing reward of $10 for information that will lead to the arrest of any person tampering with any of the lights. The company will exhaust the forces of the law to make an example of any one caught in this devilish act.

The conduct of Motorman Newcombe, of the incoming car, was the subject of a discussion yesterday, and it would appear from the later investigations that his compliance with the company's strict edict against discussing accidents with outside parties, has subjected him to some undesired censure.

Whether or not he did all that was possible to avert the collision, he alone knows. In his statement, made to General Manager Silliman, he says that he reversed the power and put on the brake as hard as it could be applied before he jumped.

In this he is corroborated by Master Mechanic Thomas Mullen. When he and his men attempted to draw Newcombe's car out of the wreckage they found the brakes on so tightly that it could not be started with the power lever at the highest notch. They attempted to let off the brake, but the brake rod had been bent and would not work, and to release it they found it necessary to chisel away the pin which held the brake-chain to the bottom of the rod.

CORONER TO INVESTIGATE.

This matter, however, will be cleared up, it is expected, by the coroner's report about the investigation yesterday by an empaneling a jury consisting of M. E. Sanders, M. A. Raifer, Thomas E. Reynolds, D. C. Powell, James Leysch and Daniel Harris, who after viewing the remains of the dead motorman adjourned to give the coroner time to look up the witnesses.

Motorman Westbrook's body was taken from the hospital yesterday morning to Cusick's undertaking establishment, where it was prepared for burial. The coroner's office was removed to his parents home in Brooklyn, Susquehanna county. The funeral is to take place tomorrow.

Unless present symptoms are misinterpreted by the attending physicians, the list of casualties will not be increased.

Mrs. Mattie Lewis, whose condition is the most serious among the injured, will escape without permanent disability, it is thought. Her physician, Dr. Adam Steger, can find no more serious hurt than a fracture of the lower end of the spine, a quarter-inch of the lowermost vertebra being broken. The spinal cord is not affected, as was at first feared, and the fracture is of such a nature that it will likely heal without the necessity of a surgical operation. Mrs. Lewis is still at the home of her friend, Mrs. Pascoe, in Rendham.

Mrs. Daniel Morgan, of the corner of Price street and Van Buren Avenue, who was reported to be Sunday night by Dr. Reynolds to be in a serious condition, is now thought to be out of danger of death. Unless the internal injuries develop to be more serious than yesterday's symptoms indicated, she will recover.

IN A NERVOUS STATE.

Mrs. James Williams, of 1932 Washington street, who was violently shaken up and who fainted away after being assisted to Lally's drug store, continues in a highly wrought nervous state and several times yesterday had spells of fainting. The others are all reported to be doing well.

The list of slightly injured has been increased by four. John Lewis, husband of the woman whose spine was injured, found his ankle badly swollen yesterday morning, and an examination showed that it has been sprained. His infant daughter, who was being carried in its mother's arms also sustained injury. To save the child, the mother, in her excitement, shoved it out of the car, and the little one's feet were run over on both sides. James Williams, husband of one of the injured women, also complains of a sprained wrist.

Miss Crane, of New York city, who is a guest of Storekeeper O'Connor, of Lackawanna street, sustained painful bruises and a severe shaking up that resulted in her being affected with nervousness all of yesterday.

ACCUSED OF FORGERY.

E. M. Quackenbush Arrested by Two Patent Medicine Companies.

E. M. Quackenbush, of this city, was yesterday arraigned before Alderman John T. Howe, and in default of $2,000 bail, committed to the county jail on the charges of counterfeiting and forgery, preferred by the Lydia Pinkham Medicine company and the Peruna Drug company. The latter discovered about six weeks ago that some one in this city was selling a medicine in bottles enclosed in wrappers similar to those they used. Quackenbush was suspected and Mr. Grady, the company's agent, lodged information against him before Alderman Howe. A warrant was issued, but before it could be served Quackenbush left town.

The Pinkerton Detective agency then took charge of the matter and last week Quackenbush was arrested in Columbus, O., by Detectives H. B. Krusen and H. H. Herney. Requisition papers were taken out and yesterday morning he was brought back to the city. James T. Wetherald, agent for the Lydia Pinkham Drug company, also swore out a warrant for Quackenbush's arrest, charging him with counterfeiting their drugs, and selling a preparation which he claimed was made by the company. Quackenbush was fined $1,000 and committed to the West Side, but more recently a peripatetic "Mexican" doctor, was arrested with Quackenbush and taken to Wilkes-Barre to be tried. It is alleged he operates here as well as in Wilkes-Barre, but the case against him in the Luzerne capital is considered the stronger.

CONFIRMATION MEETING.

Local Democrats to Celebrate on Saturday Night.

The first confirmation meeting to be held in Northeastern Pennsylvania will be conducted by the Democrats of this city next Saturday evening, on the Orchard grounds in South Scranton, when William Jennings Bryan and the Democratic platform will be glorified. Among the speakers will be those three celebrated Tammanyites, Congressman William Sulzer and State Senators Timothy Sullivan and Thomas F. Grady. The first-named of this trio started a Vice-presidential boom for himself at the recent Kansas City convention, but his hopes were soon dashed.

NINTH WARD ELECTION.

H. E. Paine, the Republican Nominee, Is Unopposed.

Ballots and election paraphernalia for today's election of a common councilman in the Ninth ward, were distributed yesterday by the county commissioners to the judges of election in the three districts.

GORDON HELD IN BAIL.

He Is Charged with Selling Liquor at Heart Lake.

Anthony Gordon, of the central city, was arraigned before Alderman Kayson yesterday and held in $500 bail on the charge of selling intoxicants at the Letter Carriers' picnic at Heart Lake, on July 4, C. E. Roberts, one of the cottagers at the resort, preferring the charge, Saturday, William Campbell, a local letter carrier, was arrested on the same charge, but yesterday the complaint was withdrawn, as it was found that Campbell was merely acting as a waiter in the booth.

A warrant was then sworn out for Gordon and he was arrested yesterday. Michael O'Malley became his bondsman.

GROCERS AT LAKE ARIEL.

They Will Have an Outing There on July 16.

Every grocer store in the city will close on July 16—Grocers' day—this being the first celebration of a set day for the grocers of Scranton. Four hundred storekeepers, cash and credit stores, have decided to close. Out-of-town buyers will please remember the date.

All grocers go to Lake Ariel with their friends on that day. Grocers from Wilkes-Barre to Carbondale will participate. Tickets, adults, seventy-five cents; children, forty cents. Trains leave Erie and Wyoming Valley station at 8:30. Ball race, polo, foot race, fat man's race, lean man's race, also a prize for the handsomest and homeliest man there. Full band and orchestra.

Patrolman Slote Breaks Up Party of Young Fruit Snatchers.

Patrolman Slote last night discovered several small boys at work noiselessly committing a depredation upon the premises of Judge H. W. Archbold, by robbing several fine apple trees of their fruit. On the Patrolman's approach, the boys scattered, but one, Thomas McElroy, was captured and taken to the central police station.

It was there learned that the other boys were Henry Williams and Edward Devers. The McElroy boy was released from custody on promising to appear at the hearing at 9 o'clock this morning, and the other boys were summoned to also appear.

CHANGES AT THE PARK.

The Coal Mine Soon to Be Ready for Inspection.

Many changes at Nay Aug park are contemplated by the park commissioners. The Brooks coal mine will be opened in a few days for the inspection of the public. It will be lighted by electricity, and bird ways, have been placed all along the interior.

The zoological collection is to be moved across the Roaring Brook, where more room is obtainable than in its present location. The cages are also in the way of the present improvements being made on the western side of the park, so that for this reason, also, their removal is made necessary.

They attempted to let off the brake, but the brake rod had been bent and would not work, and to release it they found it necessary to chisel away the pin which held the brake-chain to the bottom of the rod.

CORONER TO INVESTIGATE.

This matter, however, will be cleared up, it is expected, by the coroner's report about the investigation yesterday by an empaneling a jury consisting of M. E. Sanders, M. A. Raifer, Thomas E. Reynolds, D. C. Powell, James Leysch and Daniel Harris, who after viewing the remains of the dead motorman adjourned to give the coroner time to look up the witnesses.

Motorman Westbrook's body was taken from the hospital yesterday morning to Cusick's undertaking establishment, where it was prepared for burial. The coroner's office was removed to his parents home in Brooklyn, Susquehanna county. The funeral is to take place tomorrow.

Unless present symptoms are misinterpreted by the attending physicians, the list of casualties will not be increased.

Mrs. Mattie Lewis, whose condition is the most serious among the injured, will escape without permanent disability, it is thought. Her physician, Dr. Adam Steger, can find no more serious hurt than a fracture of the lower end of the spine, a quarter-inch of the lowermost vertebra being broken. The spinal cord is not affected, as was at first feared, and the fracture is of such a nature that it will likely heal without the necessity of a surgical operation. Mrs. Lewis is still at the home of her friend, Mrs. Pascoe, in Rendham.

Mrs. Daniel Morgan, of the corner of Price street and Van Buren Avenue, who was reported to be Sunday night by Dr. Reynolds to be in a serious condition, is now thought to be out of danger of death. Unless the internal injuries develop to be more serious than yesterday's symptoms indicated, she will recover.

IN A NERVOUS STATE.

Mrs. James Williams, of 1932 Washington street, who was violently shaken up and who fainted away after being assisted to Lally's drug store, continues in a highly wrought nervous state and several times yesterday had spells of fainting. The others are all reported to be doing well.

The list of slightly injured has been increased by four. John Lewis, husband of the woman whose spine was injured, found his ankle badly swollen yesterday morning, and an examination showed that it has been sprained. His infant daughter, who was being carried in its mother's arms also sustained injury. To save the child, the mother, in her excitement, shoved it out of the car, and the little one's feet were run over on both sides. James Williams, husband of one of the injured women, also complains of a sprained wrist.

Miss Crane, of New York city, who is a guest of Storekeeper O'Connor, of Lackawanna street, sustained painful bruises and a severe shaking up that resulted in her being affected with nervousness all of yesterday.

ACCUSED OF FORGERY.

E. M. Quackenbush Arrested by Two Patent Medicine Companies.

E. M. Quackenbush, of this city, was yesterday arraigned before Alderman John T. Howe, and in default of $2,000 bail, committed to the county jail on the charges of counterfeiting and forgery, preferred by the Lydia Pinkham Medicine company and the Peruna Drug company. The latter discovered about six weeks ago that some one in this city was selling a medicine in bottles enclosed in wrappers similar to those they used. Quackenbush was suspected and Mr. Grady, the company's agent, lodged information against him before Alderman Howe. A warrant was issued, but before it could be served Quackenbush left town.

The Pinkerton Detective agency then took charge of the matter and last week Quackenbush was arrested in Columbus, O., by Detectives H. B. Krusen and H. H. Herney. Requisition papers were taken out and yesterday morning he was brought back to the city. James T. Wetherald, agent for the Lydia Pinkham Drug company, also swore out a warrant for Quackenbush's arrest, charging him with counterfeiting their drugs, and selling a preparation which he claimed was made by the company. Quackenbush was fined $1,000 and committed to the West Side, but more recently a peripatetic "Mexican" doctor, was arrested with Quackenbush and taken to Wilkes-Barre to be tried. It is alleged he operates here as well as in Wilkes-Barre, but the case against him in the Luzerne capital is considered the stronger.

CONFIRMATION MEETING.

Local Democrats to Celebrate on Saturday Night.

The first confirmation meeting to be held in Northeastern Pennsylvania will be conducted by the Democrats of this city next Saturday evening, on the Orchard grounds in South Scranton, when William Jennings Bryan and the Democratic platform will be glorified. Among the speakers will be those three celebrated Tammanyites, Congressman William Sulzer and State Senators Timothy Sullivan and Thomas F. Grady. The first-named of this trio started a Vice-presidential boom for himself at the recent Kansas City convention, but his hopes were soon dashed.

NINTH WARD ELECTION.

H. E. Paine, the Republican Nominee, Is Unopposed.

Ballots and election paraphernalia for today's election of a common councilman in the Ninth ward, were distributed yesterday by the county commissioners to the judges of election in the three districts.

H. E. Paine, the Republican nominee, is the only candidate. The Democrats have not even spoken of a man to oppose him.

GORDON HELD IN BAIL.

He Is Charged with Selling Liquor at Heart Lake.

Anthony Gordon, of the central city, was arraigned before Alderman Kayson yesterday and held in $500 bail on the charge of selling intoxicants at the Letter Carriers' picnic at Heart Lake, on July 4, C. E. Roberts, one of the cottagers at the resort, preferring the charge, Saturday, William Campbell, a local letter carrier, was arrested on the same charge, but yesterday the complaint was withdrawn, as it was found that Campbell was merely acting as a waiter in the booth.

A warrant was then sworn out for Gordon and he was arrested yesterday. Michael O'Malley became his bondsman.

GROCERS AT LAKE ARIEL.

They Will Have an Outing There on July 16.

Every grocer store in the city will close on July 16—Grocers' day—this being the first celebration of a set day for the grocers of Scranton. Four hundred storekeepers, cash and credit stores, have decided to close. Out-of-town buyers will please remember the date.

All grocers go to Lake Ariel with their friends on that day. Grocers from Wilkes-Barre to Carbondale will participate. Tickets, adults, seventy-five cents; children, forty cents. Trains leave Erie and Wyoming Valley station at 8:30. Ball race, polo, foot race, fat man's race, lean man's race, also a prize for the handsomest and homeliest man there. Full band and orchestra.

BOY THIEVES ARRESTED.

Patrolman Slote Breaks Up Party of Young Fruit Snatchers.

Patrolman Slote last night discovered several small boys at work noiselessly committing a depredation upon the premises of Judge H. W. Archbold, by robbing several fine apple trees of their fruit. On the Patrolman's approach, the boys scattered, but one, Thomas McElroy, was captured and taken to the central police station.

It was there learned that the other boys were Henry Williams and Edward Devers. The McElroy boy was released from custody on promising to appear at the hearing at 9 o'clock this morning, and the other boys were summoned to also appear.
