

WEST SCRANTON

NEW OFFICERS WERE INSTALLED

MEN NOW AT THE HEAD OF DEWIL SANT LODGE.

Past Master Thomas Jefferson Reynolds installed the new officers of Enterprise Lodge, Loyal Knights of America—Two Well-Known Young People Were Married in Binghamton—St. Patrick's Church Fair Reopened—Number of Mishaps of Yesterday—Boys Arrested for Stealing Milk.

Dewil Sant lodge, No. 59, American True Lovers, met in regular session last evening in Co-operative hall and installed the following officers: President, Theophilus Bowen; vice-president, J. S. Jenkins; recording secretary, Evan L. Evans; financial secretary, R. Samuel; treasurer, Thomas Carson; steward, David J. Davis; leader, W. Lewis; inside guard, W. Davis; outside guard, J. Samuel; William Lewis conducted the installation exercises.

The lodge is preparing to conduct a monster elstidoff on Labor day. The committee in charge will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock sharp at the home of Evan L. Evans, at 412 Thirteenth street.

Past Master Thomas Jefferson Reynolds installed the officers of Enterprise lodge, No. 21, Loyal Knights of America, last evening in their rooms, over Jenkins' drug store, on South Main avenue. Those installed were as follows: Worthy master, David Anthony; worthy deputy master, J. J. Price; recording secretary, Joseph Oliver; assistant, J. Hayden Oliver; financial secretary, R. J. Griffiths; treasurer, William A. Phillips; chaplain, David Harrel; conductor, J. Whaley; assistant, R. Booth; inside Tyler, D. R. Jones; outside Tyler, W. J. Jenkins; trustee, Walter Wilkins.

Reports read at last evening's session from the various departments of the lodge show it to be in first-class condition and places it among the strongest in the state. A smoker followed the ceremonies.

Mishaps of a Day.

Ray, the young son of Merchant John Williams, sustained a broken leg yesterday afternoon. He was playing in his father's glove, when he accidentally bumped into a large roll of cloth, which fell on his right leg, with Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success, It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest.

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

Warm Weather Dress Stuffs.

The season for cool, dressy apparel is now at its height, and we invite attention to our still very complete line of Dress Fabrics designs for mid-summer wear. There never was before in this city such an attractive line of tempting and comfortable elegance, and as today marks the first cut in prices on these charming zephyr weaves, the opportunity is one that you can ill afford to miss, unless you are more than provided for already.

These Price Reductions

Cover the entire range of new materials and includes everything in stock intended for Summer Suits or Dresses for Ladies, Misses and Children, and as

Many Exceptional Bargains

Have been laid out for early comers that cannot stand long under the rush that is soon to follow the announcement of sweeping reductions so early in in the season.

The Sale Begins This Morning.

Grain-O is not a stimulant, like coffee. It is a tonic and its effects are permanent.

A successful substitute for coffee, because it has the coffee flavor that almost everybody likes.

Lots of coffee substitutes in the market, but only one food drink—Grain-O.

names of his companions, and warrants were immediately sworn out. A hearing will be held this morning.

A hearing was held in the case last evening, before Alderman John. Each were fined $2. Barry paid his fine. The rest spent the night behind the bars.

Fair Reopened.

The fair and festival of the St. Patrick's church, which closed during Lent, reopened last evening in the basement of the parochial school, on South Sumner avenue, and was largely attended. The basement was profusely decorated with the American colors. Many costly and valuable articles were sold and changed off. A number of contests will terminate during the week. The contest for a safe, between the Father Mathews and St. Brendan's Young Men's Institute, is attracting much attention.

The drawing for the ten-dollar gold piece will also be held. An interesting and attractive programme has been arranged for every evening during the week. A refreshment booth has been on sale. Where ice cream and cake is on sale.

Annual Trolley Ride.

The members of St. Cecilia's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society and their gentlemen friends will enjoy their annual trolley ride on Thursday evening, the weather permitting. This event is looked forward to by all as one of pleasure and enjoyment. The cars will leave the intersection of Main avenue and Jackson street at 7:30 o'clock. After the ride, the party will repair to the parlors of the St. Leo's hall, Jackson avenue. A social, where a bountiful repast will be served.

The regular monthly meeting of the society will be held tonight. President, Mrs. Lasher, is desirous of the attendance of every member.

Farewell Reception.

The headquarters of the Salvation army, on Price street, was crowded last evening by the friends and members of the local corps, who assembled to say good-bye to Adjutant Yates and family, who leave tomorrow for Lyncoming, N. Y. The junior members were in charge.

An elaborate and entertaining programme was rendered, at the conclusion of which a social was held. Ice cream and cake were on sale. The proceeds were turned over to Adjutant Yates to defray his expenses in moving. Captain and Mrs. Grumshaw have been appointed in charge here and will enter on their new duties on Sunday.

Married in Binghamton.

Frank Fry of Landis street, and Miss Martha Pfeiffer of Archbold street, were united in marriage on Saturday at Binghamton, N. Y. The young couple took advantage of the excursion to the Bellevue Slope fund on Saturday to Binghamton and had a justice of the peace marry them for life.

Both are well-known young people of Bellevue, and are receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends. Mr. Fry is an employe of the Bellevue mine. They will reside at the home of the bride's parents.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Miss Margaret Powell, of North Everett avenue, entertained a number of friends on Friday evening at her home.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Martin Brennan, of Hampton street, a son.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Blackman, of South Washington street, was born on Friday. The child is expected to be named William.

The remains of an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Phillips, of South Washington street, were buried in Washburn street cemetery yesterday afternoon.

Rev. D. Phillips, D. D., and Rev. J. D. Price, of the South Side, preached at the Tabernacle congregation last evening at the Tabernacle (Congregational church on South Hyde Park avenue).

The Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Washburn street Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Walker, on Division street, on Friday.

Miss Belle Snyder gave a tea to a few of her young lady friends on Friday afternoon at her home on Luzerne street. All had a pleasant time. A dainty repast was served. Those present were: Misses Margaret and Agnes Miller, of the Belmont; Helen Long, Cora Decker, Grace Cramer and Isabel Snyder.

The Welsh Baptist Sunday school and the Baptist mission of Bellevue, will picnic at Nay avenue park on Saturday.

Frank Matzky, the young lad who was accidentally shot on the West Mountain on Sunday, called at the West Side hospital and had the bullet removed from his arm.

The regular class meeting of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will be held tonight. The prayer meeting will take place tomorrow evening.

The Anthracite Camping club will meet tonight at the home of Thomas Francis, on Hyde street, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

St. Brendan's council, Young Men's Institute, met in regular session in their rooms over Jenkins' drug store last evening. The report of their recent excursion to Montreal was read. A song was sung.

The Franklin Engine company will hold an important meeting this evening. All members are urged to attend.

The regular monthly meeting of the Electric City Women was held last evening. After the transaction of all routine business a social session ensued. The club takes pleasure in this evening has been postponed. The club will have a moonlight excursion on July 17 to Lake Henry, Providence division, No. 57, Sons of Temperance, paid a fraternal visit to Higham division, No. 48, last evening. An enjoyable evening was spent together.

The ladies of West Scranton will meet this evening in the shop of James Roberts on Main avenue.

The regular monthly meeting of the Columbia Chemical and Home company was held last evening. Many matters of importance to the company were transacted. Permanent Man Peterick was chairman.

The Men's club of St. David's Episcopal church will meet tonight. The guild met last evening. Rev. McIlroy presided.

GREEN RIDGE.

The Brotherhood of St. Paul, a society organized by Dr. W. G. Simpson among the men of his church last fall, has grown and flourished to such a degree that plans are being formed for the purpose of securing a room, which will be fitted up for their convival use.

The exercises of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church has been changed from August 10 to August 14.

The funeral of Edna Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Emrich, of Jackson street, took place from their residence yesterday afternoon and was private.

NEURALGIA?

Yes, it will cure Neuralgia too—any kind of headache, in fact—and without any bad effects.

Dr. James' Headache Powders. Famous Prescription of an old physician. Perfectly harmless and perfectly sure to cure.

Babies, invalids, any one can take them with perfect safety.

At all Drug Stores. 4 Doses 10 Cents.

Cure Where Others Fail.

such a degree that plans are being formed for the purpose of securing a room, which will be fitted up for their convival use.

The exercises of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church has been changed from August 10 to August 14.

The funeral of Edna Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Emrich, of Jackson street, took place from their residence yesterday afternoon and was private.

Camp 25, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will have an entertainment and ice cream social tonight at Masonic hall, Jackson avenue. The boys are prepared to receive all the members and their friends. A silver offering will be received at the door.

Miss May Saker, of Penn avenue, is visiting friends in Guilford, Wayne county.

Nicholas Moch, of Carbonate, paid a business trip to Green Ridge yesterday.

Dr. Farrell, who with Mrs. Purcell, is a guest at the home of Mrs. M. R. Kaye, of Sanderson avenue, is quite ill.

Mrs. Rosa Wilbur, one of Scranton's oldest and most respected citizens, is being nursed at her home on Sanderson avenue. Mrs. Wilbur's illness is the result of a fall.

The young people of the Green Ridge Baptist church have arranged to give a social at the residence of Mrs. Nellie Gardner, of Keystone academy, Fairburyville, will assist them.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Christian Endeavors of Presbyterian Church to Entertain Tonight—Other News Notes.

The Junior Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church will give another of their original and justly interesting programmes this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the Sunday school rooms of the church. During the past weeks the various numbers on the programme have been under careful rehearsal, and the little speakers and singers will be seen at their best at the entertainment tonight.

The programme is as follows: Chorus, "The Song, Junior society; recitation, "Thro'ning Kisses," Edna Frothing; recitation, "Sam's Definition," Arthur Heal; recitation, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them," Grace Edwards; vocal solo, "What Would You Take for Me, Papa," Martha Warrick; recitation, "The Song," Emma Kroetz; recitation, "Belinda," Julia Mowery; recitation, "Bobbing for Apples," Anna Burchell; recitation, "The Grasshopper's Fiddle," Katharine Davis; recitation, "Timothy Brown," Ruth Burchell; recitation, "When Polk's Regiment Marched," Daisy Mowery; whistling solo, selected, Oscar Ludwig; recitation, "Have You Seen My Doll," Violet Burchell; dialogue, "Gossip," selected, Miss Marvel, Martha Warrick, Miss Gad, Ethel "Vickens"; Miss Starn, Clara Frothing; Miss Upham, Grace Edwards; good-night drill, eight little girls; tableau.

Letters Unclaimed.

The list of letters remaining unclaimed at the Dunmore postoffice for the period ending July 7, 1900 are as follows: Persons calling for those letters please say advertised and give date of list. M. K. Bishop, postmaster. Jacob Brown, 131 Monroe avenue; Fred Atkins, 253 Pine street; W. Adams, 329 Mills street; Mrs. A. Hindthe, Chas. Doyle, 669 Drinker street; W. Evans, J. Fowler, 18 Apple street; James Henswell, church street; Charles Kell, Mills and Smith streets; Carrie Keizer, Mary Manning, 317 Monroe avenue; M. McHale, Sir Edwin Merriman, 504 Monroe avenue; Mrs. Vina Payne, Mrs. Smith, corner Adams avenue and Marion street; Mrs. Swangle, Mrs. Irons; Mrs. W. Williams, 214 Drinker street—407 Electric avenue, Forelren; Mrs. Latham, Salvatore Amendina; George Danko, Udatystaw Zarzewski; Giovanni Picciano.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

Division No. 33, Ancient Order of Hibernians, are making elaborate preparations for an excursion to Lake Ariel, which will run on Tuesday, Aug. 21.

Editor H. P. Woodward, of the Dunmore Methodist, an proprietor of the job printing office on Tripp avenue, yesterday moved his presses and office furniture to Peckville. Mr. Woodward will start a weekly paper in Peckville in a few weeks, and is completing the final arrangements.

Applicants to the number of thirty-three, took the remaining examinations for provisional certificates yesterday morning in the High school building. The examinations are now finished.

Miss Ruby Yost, Mrs. Oscar Yost and Master Lester Yost, of North Blakely street, left yesterday for Lake Como, where they will spend some time.

Stephen Harrington, of Troy, N. Y., is visiting friends in the borough.

Miss Myrtle and Belle Watrous are sojourning in the country this week.

OBITUARY.

Little Lena Kleeman, the 3-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Kleeman of Guyana street, Dunmore, died yesterday morning very suddenly. The little one's illness was so brief that it was dead before medical aid could be procured. Her parents have many sympathizers in their bereavement.

Miss Mary O'Neill, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Neill, of Bennett street, died suddenly last Saturday afternoon after a brief illness. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Holy Rosary church. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

William Joseph Beckett, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Beckett, of 219 Fifth street, died yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in Catholic cemetery.

John A. Costello, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Costello, of 420 First street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon with interment in the Catholic cemetery.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

JUNGER MAENNERCHOR RECEIVE A LOVING CUP.

Fred Herbst, of the Brooklyn Quartette Club, thinking that the Society Deserved More Recognition Than It Received, Started a Collection for the Purchase of This Prize—New Officers of Camp 430, P. O. S. of A., Installed—Other News Notes.

That the Scranton Junger Maennerchor made a decided impression on the adjudicator and the societies of Brooklyn and Hoboken, who had immediate charge of the National Saengerfest, just closed, was demonstrated yesterday, when the society received as a just reward for their high-class singing a handsome loving cup, standing about twelve inches high, having three handles and finely engraved.

Fred Herbst, a member of the Brooklyn Quartette club, thinking that the society deserved some recognition beyond mere mention in the official reports, started a collection for the purchase of this handsome prize.

On one side of the cup is engraved: "Prize to the Scranton Junger Maennerchor" and on the other side, "Fred Herbst, Brooklyn Quartette Club." The cup is a deserved recognition for excellence of instruction and singing, and it is one of which the Maennerchor boys can well feel proud. It is their first trophy, and is valued at $50.

The Milk Was Spilled.

A delivery wagon of the Scranton Dairy company, driven by a Poleander named Holeski, got entangled in a fence on the corner of Willow street and Prospect avenue, yesterday, and as a result the fence is broken and the wagon is smashed and all the milk was lost.

John very soberly said, "He didn't care that the wagon was broken, nor that the fence was smashed, but his didn't like to lose the milk." The damage done amounted to about $15.

New Officers of Camp 430.

Camp 430, Patriotic Order Sons of America, had an installation of new officers last night in their hall on Pittman avenue. They also installed a new candidate, Frank Kleinschmidt. The installation exercises were conducted by District President George Lutz.

The officers installed were: Past president, John Doelner; president, Philip Dipprey; vice-president, William Tannier; master of forms, Fred Deising; conductor, George Lewert; inspector, Fred Klotz; outside guard, Peter Hahn; trustee, Fred Schwenk.

After the installation the camp held an informal smoker. Speeches were made by the retiring officers, President Dipprey, Vice-President Tannier and ex-State President A. J. Colborn, who gave a short but brilliant address. The camp is one of the largest and most influential in the city, and begins a new year under most favorable conditions.

Officers Elected.

The following officers have been elected by Division No. 25, Ancient Order of Hibernians: President, A. J. Mulderig; vice president, P. F. McNamee; treasurer, Maurice Duggan; recording secretary, Thomas J. Rafferty; financial secretary, P. McGuire; sergeant-at-arms, James Murray; sentinels, John J. S. and John J. S.

The officers will be installed on July 27, when a smoker will be conducted.

TOLD BRIEFLY.

The funeral of the late John Langan took place yesterday morning from his home on Coon avenue, and was largely attended. A requiem mass was celebrated in St. Peter's cathedral, after which the corpse moved to Catholic cemetery, where interment was made. Mrs. Jacob Berghauer and daughters, Anna and Miss, of East Elm street, returned home yesterday, after a week's visit to friends in Roselle, N. Y.

Julius Ambrust and wife, of Cedar avenue, left on a visit to friends in Danville.

Miss Lettie Hunsicker, of Cherry street, has returned from a visit to relatives in Dalton.

Frank Gavin, of Pueblo, Colo., who had been visiting his mother on Stone avenue, left for his home in Pueblo, Colorado, yesterday.

Miss Kate Reardon, organist of St. John's church, will give a complimentary dance and reception for her students and friends in Pharmacy hall, Wednesday evening.

Misses Margaret Roach, Mame Ruddy and Sarah Neelam, of Cedar avenue, have returned from a week's visit in Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Nell Neelam, of Cherry street, has returned from a three weeks' visit to relatives in Saspehanna.

Louis Gosholde, of Irving avenue, a private in Company I, Fifteenth United States regulars, now stationed at Governor's Island, is home on a furlough, preparatory to sailing for China on the 24th inst.

Michael Faust, of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting the Misses Faust, on Prospect avenue.

Willard Megardle, of the South Side Cash store, is ill at his home on Adams avenue.

Theodore Hess, of Pittman street, left yesterday for New York, where he intends to embark on the steamship Lahn, sailing today for a visit to his home in Wurttemberg, Germany.

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to J. T. Farley, 194 Cedar ave. Phone 663.

VERY SUDDEN DEATH.

Cooper Verniskey Died of Heart Failure Yesterday Afternoon.

An old man, named Verniskey, who lived in South Scranton and was a cooper by trade, dropped dead suddenly yesterday afternoon, heart failure being the cause.

He was repairing a tub belonging to parties living on Guyana street and Brick avenue, North Scranton, and about 4:30 o'clock gave a sudden start, clasped his hand to his breast and fell over backward, dead. The North Scranton police were notified of the case, and coroner J. J. Roberts inquired of the death.

The remains were removed to Undertaker O'Donnell's establishment. Verniskey was a man about seventy years of age.

Marriage Licenses.

John KapaScranton
Minnie HalesmanScranton
John DoakTaylor
Teresa FrankDunmore
John SchaeferScranton
Petrona PuhalskiScranton
Aabel BillandichScranton
John DuchekScranton
Lena ShekScranton
Sarah Rezan485 North Ninth street

Smokes The Hotel Jermyn cigar, 10c.

THE NEW WOMAN

Is Making Her Appearance in All Parts of the Land.

Mrs. Clara Makemer, housekeeper for the Florence Crittenden Anchorage Mission, of Chicago writes from 302 Chestnut street, Chicago: "Peruna is the best tonic I have ever known for general debility—a sure cure for liver complaint, and a never-failing adjunct in cases of dyspepsia. I have also used it in cases of female irregularities and weak nerves common to the sex, and have found it most satisfactory."

Dr. Rachel A. Magaw, 67 W. Jefferson street, Springfield, O., says: "Your Peruna is worth its weight in gold. I feel like a new woman. I can't praise it enough. I spent a great deal of money on doctors, but nothing ever did me any good until I sent to you and tried Peruna."

The coming of what is known as the "new woman" in our country is not greeted by every one as if she were a great blessing. But there is another new woman and suffering they found medical relief at last. The more new women we have of this kind the better it will be for the future of our country. It is only necessary to send name, address, symptoms, duration of sickness and weak nerves already received to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., and directions for one month's treatment will be promptly forwarded. The medicine can be obtained at the nearest drug store. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, for a free copy of "Health and Beauty," a book written especially for women, treating of diseases peculiar to their sex.

WOLKERS APPEARS IN A NEW ROLE

[Continued from Page 3.]

sworn agreement to keep closed if the prosecution against him was suspended.

Last Sunday, so the agents of the union say, he had sentries posted in the front to steer custom to the back door by way of Oakford court, and other sentries at the rear door, Harry Courtwright among them, to scrutinize all who applied for admittance and give the pass word to such as were found to be "all right." A knock at an inner door and the words, "Number Three, gained entrance to the room. Representatives of the union succeeded in getting in without their identity being discovered, and a pen picture of the proceedings is to be presented to "Gentleman Jack" for his art gallery.

NORTH SCRANTON.

The Sunday school of the Welsh Congregational church will conduct a cantata in the Auditorium this evening. A large choir has been rehearsing diligently for the event and one of the grandest and best entertainments is promised. The following is the cast of characters: Two Orphans, Gwen Price, Minnie Thomas; Evil Fairies, May Evans, Sadie Owens, Cassie Edwards, Alwen Bowen, Bessie Lewis; Good Fairies, Gwen Powell, Kau Evans, Lily Colos, Martha Price, Viola Williams, Harry Williams, Florence Jones; Happy Fairy, May Price; Two Angels, Phoebe Evans, Harriet Evans. Ice cream will be served following the entertainment.

A. L. Waterman, of Jones street, was recently tendered a surprise party in honor of his forty-first birthday. The evening was spent in music and vocal and instrumental and at a late hour refreshments were served.

The local unions of United Mine workers of this section will conduct their annual party on a large one and many interesting features, such as athletic games will be indulged in. A first class orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

The funeral of Mrs. James Grier, who died last Saturday, will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Viola Mark street. The remains will be taken to the Holy Rosary church, where a solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated. Interment will be made in Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Farrell, of Parker street, who has been seriously ill is convalescing.

M. W. Vandenberg and son, J. R. Vandenberg, of Bloomsburg, Pa., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Conner, of South Place.

Carl Garrigan, of East Market street, will spend the week at Lake Ariel, where he will spend the week.

Mrs. E. Z. Bower, of Oak street, has returned from Philadelphia.

The Rev. John R. Jones, of Forty-third street, will preach at the Holy Rosary Baptist church on Thursday evening. This will be in all probability the last opportunity for the Welsh people of Scranton to hear Mr. Jones.

The Welsh Methodists of Wayne avenue are the Welsh Congregationalists, of West Market street have postponed their meetings for that night that they may hear this great Welsh orator.

The Sunday school of the Holy Rosary street Baptist church will picnic at Nay Aug park on Thursday. The cars will leave the park at 5 o'clock, leaving plenty of time before the evening services.

Miss George A. Curo, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Curo, left yesterday for the Thousand Islands and Montreal, where she will spend a few weeks.

An important rehearsal of the North Scranton Glebe society will be held in O'Malley's hall at 7:00 o'clock this evening. Every member who intends going to Atlantic City on July 17 is requested to be present. Tomorrow evening the executive and general committee will meet at 7:30 o'clock for the transaction of important business.

There will be a special meeting of local union No. 88, of United Mine Workers of America this evening.

During the severe thunder storm Saturday afternoon the house of Wyatt McCormick, of Wayne avenue, was struck by lightning. Little damage, however, resulted from the accident, save for the destruction of a few articles.

Mr. and Mrs. David Evans of New Castle, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Jane Williams, of Wayne avenue.

SUIT AGAINST COMPANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carroll Want $10,000 Damages.

Eugene P. Carroll and his wife, Bridget Carroll, of Bellevue, began proceedings yesterday in Prothonotary Copeland's office to recover $10,000 damages from the Scranton Railway company for personal injuries sustained by Mrs. Carroll, while a passenger on a Bellevue-Stone avenue car, August 7, of last year.

A GEORGE W. FINN SERVICE.

It isn't generally known, but we are always willing to furnish a STEIFF Piano for special service. You can have a STEIFF as you desire for your church entertainment, or concert. You need never use a low grade piano when you prefer a STEIFF. A grand man receives an appeal to us to rent him a STEIFF Piano for his recital as a "personal favor." Favors such as this we regard as privileges. Call or write.

GEORGE W. FINN, 135 Wyoming Avenue.

Fine Tuning a Specialty.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever.

DR. T. FELIX GOFFARD'S ORIENTAL SKIN TREATMENT. It removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, and every blemish on the face. It restores the natural color and softness of the skin. It is the only preparation that will cure the most obstinate cases of skin disease. It is the only preparation that will cure the most obstinate cases of skin disease. It is the only preparation that will cure the most obstinate cases of skin disease.

SUMMER RESORTS. LAKE WINOLA, PA. HOTEL CLIFTON.

Now and modern on a lake perfectly situated among beautiful mountains. Elevation, 1,100 feet. Large verandas, cooking the best. Write for pamphlet. J. W. Moore, Prop., Lake Winola, Pa.

OCEAN GROVE, N. J. THE ARLINGTON

The leading hotel. Extensive improvements service first class. Orchestra; special rates to families; booklet. C. H. MILLAR, Prop.

HOLLAND HOUSE, Brigantine, N. J.

Respected by Reading Railway from Philadelphia, or by ferry from Atlantic City; directly on beach; artesian water electric light; resident physician; surf bathing; fishing and sailing. Address Eugene Mell, Manager.

MONUMENT STONE SHIPPED. Forty Carloads Will Be Delivered Within a Month.