MUNICIPAL WATER ORDINANCE

Passes Two Readings in Common Council-Only One Opposed.

Common council met last night and passed two readings an ordinance which will give the people of Carbondale a chance to decide by their rotes whether they desire municipal water. I A. Roberts, chairman of the water committee explained the past eight months of work which has led up to this step.

He recited the advantages of the Ranson tract as given in The Tribune a few days ago Competent legal opinion on all doubtful point is in favor of the city and the storage capacity is ample for a city many times as large. There will be fifty acres of water at an average depth

R. M. Shepherd's was the only dissenting voice when a vote was taken on the ordinance He gave as his reasons lack of enlightenment the absence of a written opinion by the solicitor. Chairman Kennedy explained city solicitor. that all the councils have to do at present is to afford the opportunity for the people to take the matter in their own hands. Here is the
