THE TRIBUNE'S EDUCATIONAL CONTEST

Three More Names Enrolled Among the Workers.

POINTS RECORDED DAILY

No Contestant Has Much of a Lead as Yet-All Striving to Secure Subscribers for Three Months or More Long-term Subscriptions Mean More Points-All Those Who Start Before August 1 Will Have an Advantage Hard to Overcome.

The Tribune's Educational Contest continues to attract the young people Yesterday three more names were added to the roll and these new contestants started to work in earnest. New subscribers are being brought in every day and points are being recorded for the various candidates, but these are so thoroughly scattered that no one can be said to have any appreciable lead and there is an excellent opportunity yet for those who are considering the advisability of entering. The young man or woman who stops to consider the value of the special rewards offered by The Tribune will not hesitate long before entering the contest and starting earnestly into the work.

A Rare Opportunity.

An opportunity to secure a four board, at such a high-class institution as the Wyoming Seminary, one which cannot be bought for less than $1,000, probably never will be offered upon such favocable terms. The use of spare moments during the next eleven weeks may result in securing an education without further cost or labor that will be almost beyond value in the years to

The three years' course in the Keystone Academy is another of the sperial rewards of as remarkable value. The student who completes this course will be well fitted to cope with the vicissitudes of life, and all with the expenditure of a comparatively small amount of time and labor.

Illustrated Description Saturday. The Tribune will on Saturday give an illustrated description of the Wyo-
