

WEST SCRANTON

LAST NIGHT'S PRETTY WEDDING

NUPTIALS OF R. KOHNSTAMM AND MISS BIRTLEY.

Ceremony Performed at the Residence of the Bride's Parents on Rock Street by Rev. William Netherton. John E. Evans and Miss Stella Shaw Ezentain—Thomas Durkin Kicked by a Mule—John Wilson Accidentally Shot—Alfred Joseph and Miss Cassie Jenkins Married. Other Notes.

Miss Gertrude Birtley, daughter of M. C. Birtley, of Rock street, was united in marriage last evening to Raphael Kohnstamm, of North Summer avenue. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents on Rock street, only the relatives of the contracting parties being present.

Rev. Mr. Netherton, pastor of the Methodist church of Wyoming, performed the ceremony which made them one. The bride was becomingly attired in a heavy white silk, trimmed with delicate lace and carried a bridal nosegay. They were unattended.

At the conclusion of the nuptial services the guests repaired to the dining rooms, where a beautiful repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Kohnstamm departed on an extended wedding tour at 1:15 o'clock over the Lackawanna railroad for New York and other points of interest. They will be at home after Aug. 10 in a newly furnished home at 117 Rock street.

Mrs. Kohnstamm is a popular young lady who has gained a large number of friends by her numerous praiseworthy traits. Her husband is an exemplary young man and is employed as a linotype operator on The Tribune. Both enjoy the best wishes of their friends.

Social Events.

John E. Evans, of 1218 Eynon street, entertained last evening. A pleasant time was had by all. Divisions incidental to such occasions were merely indulged in. Several flashlight pictures of the jovial coterie were taken. At a reasonable hour dainty viands were served.

Miss Stella Shaw, of North Hyde Park avenue, entertained in honor of Miss Annes and Miss Margaret Miller, of Johnstown, N. Y., last evening. A delightful evening was spent by all. Refreshments were served on the spacious lawn adjoining the house, which was brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns. The Columbia orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success, It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest.
FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

Miss Bertha Carson, of South Main avenue, pleasantly entertained a few friends on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Keenan, of Twentieth street, entertained a few friends on Saturday evening in honor of their guest, Mrs. Kilbridge, of Chicago, Ill. The evening was enjoyably spent in games and dancing. Graphophone selections were rendered by Mr. James Barry. Mr. J. Silas Keeney took a flashlight picture of the gathering. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. John McNicholas, Mr. and Mrs. James Feeney, Mr. and Mrs. James Garry, Misses Margaret Bolton, Ann Barry, Margaret and Helen Durkin, Mollie Walsh, Katie Burke and Mary Armstrong, Messrs. Brian Tierney, J. Silas Keeney, Patrick and Theodore Barry, Alphonso O'Hara, Dominick O'Boyle and Peter Gallagher.

Several Accidents.

Thomas Durkin, of Luzerne street, a member of the Browns' base ball team, was kicked by a mule in the Central mine on Tuesday. Mr. Durkin is employed as a laborer, and after completing his day's work he was returning to the foot of the shaft. As he was passing one of the mules on the gangway road the mule kicked him in the left leg above the knee, injuring him quite badly. He succeeded in reaching his home by the use of a large stick.

William, the six-year-old son of Mr. Mrs. James Peters, of Seattle place, sustaining a fracture of the right arm, Tuesday, by falling from a fence. The boy has met with considerable misfortune for some time. His left arm has been broken three times in a short while, and had only taken his arm out of a sling a few weeks ago. Dr. Davis set the fractured arm.

Shot in the Leg.

Joseph Wilson, a small boy, of this side, was admitted to the West Side hospital yesterday afternoon, suffering from a wound in the right leg, inflicted by the accidental discharge of a gun which he was fooling with.

Miss Lane, of the Jefferson hospital clinic, who is visiting Superintendent Miss Smith, dressed the injury and removed the bullet. Young Wilson refused to disclose any particulars pertaining to the accident.

Married at the Parsonage.

Alfred Joseph, of North Bromley avenue, and Miss Cassie Jenkins, of 1132 Hampton street, were united in marriage last evening at the parsonage of Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle church, on South Hyde Park avenue. They were unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph are popular young people of this side, who enjoy the best wishes of a large circle of friends. They will commence house-keeping in a newly furnished home on Hampton street.

Around the Mines.

The Archbold colliery will resume operations this morning. The breaker has been repaired and it is now one of the most modern in the valley. The repairs have been completed since July 1, but owing to the shortage of mules they did not resume work. The mules were taken there yesterday, and the colliery will be in full operation today as usual. The colliery will give employment to about sixty men. The Hampton breaker, half of which was turned into a culm washer, resumed operation yesterday morning. The washer will be used to consume the coal of the Continental and Hampton culm banks.

HEALTHY BABIES ARE THOSE RAISED ON BORDEN'S EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK. SEND "BABIES" A BOOK FOR "MOTHERS". Borden's Condensed Milk Co., New York.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Rev. J. R. Jones, of Ponty-Pridd, South Wales, will preach at the Tabernacle on Hyde Park avenue tomorrow evening at 7:30. He is one of the leading preachers of Wales.

The Ladies' Aid of the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church will picnic today at Nay Aug park.

The Electric City Wheelmen will conduct a moonlight excursion to Lake Henry on Tuesday. The Ladies' Aid society of the Plymouth church will meet today.

The Sunday school of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church will conduct an excursion to Harvey's Lake on August 8. A number of letters remain uncollected for at the postoffice.

The regular prayer meeting of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church was held last evening.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Lane, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of friends on this side, returned home this morning after a pleasant visit.

Thomas Elliott, of Carlisle, spent yesterday with friends on this side.

Joseph Heffernan, of Musgrave's pharmacy, visited his parents at Wilkes-Barre yesterday.

Miss Richard, of Shamokin, called on West Scranton friends last evening.

Miss Esther Davis, of South Main avenue, is spending a few days in Wyoming.

Miss H. L. Conroy, of Lincoln avenue, has gone on a ten weeks' visit to her friends and relatives near the Wyoming camp ground.

Miss Conroy, of South Main avenue, entertained at cards in honor of her guest, Miss Richardson, of Maryland.

Miss Anna Edwards is home from a visit at Lake Winola.

Mr. Berger, of New York city, is a guest at the residence of Major M. L. Blair, of South Main street.

Miss Mabel Derbshire has returned from Mansfield, where she attended the commencement exercises at the State Normal school.

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address: J. T. Farley, 1214 Cedar ave. Phone 6553.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Constable John C. Moran, of the Twelfth Ward, Arrested at the Instance of Michael Lynn.

John C. Moran, constable of the Twelfth ward, was arrested yesterday at the instance of Michael Lynn, of Fig street, who charges him with malicious mischief and threatened assault. He was also arrested on two other charges, namely, assault and battery on Mrs. Katherine Brown, an old woman, aged seventy-two years, and Miss Kate Tuane, both of Fig street.

The trouble grew out of a claim for rent, which the prosecutor says was paid, and which the landlord, John McDonald, says was not. Acting upon this, he had a landlord's warrant issued and Constable John C. Moran was assigned to the duty of executing the family out of the house. It is claimed that in his haste to do so, he not only broke the door, but damaged the house and furniture as well, and behaved generally in a most disgraceful manner.

The prosecutor further claims that he also did bodily harm to old Mrs. Brown, a woman aged seventy-two years, and as a result of the threats made, Mrs. Lynn was thrown into a highly nervous state, medical attendance being necessary. At a hearing before Alderman Tully last evening, Moran was held in $1,200 bail.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

Division No. 25, Ancient Order of Hibernians, are making arrangements for the installation of the officers next evening. In addition to the installation a reception will be given July 27. The committee in charge of the arrangements consists of A. J. Mulderg, J. J. Natta, Maurice Dugan, T. E. Bafter, James Murray and Philip Macneir.

The funeral of John Yenicki, who died suddenly in Providence, Monday, will take place this morning at 9 o'clock from his late home on Beech street. Services will be held in St. Mary's church.

John Brown, of Prospect avenue, a member of GRAIN-O THE FOOD DRINK. Some people can't drink coffee; everybody can drink Grain-O. It looks and tastes like coffee, but it is made from pure grains. No coffee in it. Grain-O is cheaper than coffee; costs about one-quarter as much.

PERSONAL NOTES.

A. J. Mulderg and Druggist D. W. Humphrey, of Pittston avenue, left today for Lake Winola. Conant Heister, John Blatter and Victor Wessel, of Pittston avenue, are spending their vacation at Lake Underwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Humm, of Crown avenue, returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Antwerp, Belgium.

Mrs. J. W. Weathermer, of Cedar avenue, gave a pleasing photograph party last evening to a large number of friends. The selections were rendered by Clark Warren. The usual party diversions were indulged in and at a late hour refreshments were served. The party spent a most enjoyable evening.

John Tierney, of Clarke Brothers' Pittston avenue store, has recovered from his recent illness. Fred Polasky, of Brick street, left for Dover, N. J.

John P. Bennett, of Kansas City, Kan., is visiting Mrs. Caroline Sunday, of Cedar avenue.

Earl Smith, a student at Girard college, Philadelphia, is spending his summer vacation with his mother, Mrs. Pauline Smith, of Willow street.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Meeting of W. C. T. U. Today—Vacations of the Policemen—Other News and Personal Notes.

The Women's Christian Temperance union of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold their usual weekly meeting tomorrow afternoon in the Sunday school rooms of the church. At this meeting the members will arrange for a picnic and a trolley ride to Nay Aug park, where the day will be spent by the society and their friends.

A date has yet to be selected and arrangements made for the selling of memberships on the grounds by members of the Temperance union, and as soon as these are assured, the different committees will at once commence work.

Policemen's Vacations.

The borough police force are looking forward to their ten days' vacation, which council granted to each member of the force last week meeting. Heretofore the men have been granted only eight days and the patrolmen take very kindly to the change. Policeman Frank Sacco is now on his vacation, which will last until July 18.

The others are as follows: O. P. Biglin, July 19 until July 28; P. P. Hagan, July 22 until August 7; Chief P. J. Healey, August 8 until August 17; James Golden, August 18 until August 27; W. J. Quinn, August 28 until September 6; P. P. Keyes, September 7 until September 16; Fred Beaver, September 17 until September 26.

MENTIONED BRIEFLY.

Active preparations are being made for the day's outing and picnic which the members of St. Mary's Catholic church will enjoy next Thursday, July 13, at Lake Hill park. Tea will be served at 10 o'clock, followed by ice cream, and a good time is assured all who come.

Albert Wagner, of Green Ridge and Blakely street, is incapacitated from performing his usual duties at the shops of the Pennsylvania coal company on account of an accident which happened Monday while lifting a heavy piece of iron. The iron fell on his foot, injuring that member severely.

A large number of tickets have been given out for the excursion which takes place this morning to Lake Ariel under the auspices of the Presbyterian church and Sunday school. A day of pleasure is anticipated.

This evening the members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Primitive Methodist church will hold a pink tea and ice cream social in the club rooms on East Market street. Tea will be served at 6 o'clock, followed by ice cream, which will be served during the day.

Miss Jane Lennon, of Grove street, is in New York city, where she will spend several weeks with friends.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Rev. S. G. Redding, D. D., pastor of the North Main Avenue Baptist church, has had several requests from other churches to accept the pastorate. The most recent proposition was that of becoming pastor of a Baptist congregation at Colfax, Wash. Tuesday night he received a pressing message, urging his acceptance of the offer. He has declined it, however, and will remain pastor here.

Miss Maude Williams, who has been private teacher in the family of General Gordon at Savannah, Ga., is spending her summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams, of School street.

William Jones and Tallie Gabriel have purchased the barber shop on West Market street, belonging to Morgan Watkins.

Miss Loretta Williams, of Spring street, is at Lake Winola.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans, of New Castle, Pa., are the guests of Mrs. Jane Williams, at Wayne avenue.

Rev. John R. Jones, the well known orator of Ponty-Pridd, South Wales, will preach in the North Baptist church on West Market street this evening.

S. B. Robinson and family, of North Main avenue, are occupying their cottage at Lake Winola.

All members of the Sunday school of the West Market street Baptist church are requested to meet at the church at 8:45 sharp this morning to march in a body to the cars which will convey them to Nay Aug park.

Fred Pross, of Delaware street, is entertaining friends from Carlisle.

A meeting of the solicitors will be held in the Auditorium tonight for the purpose of receiving stock for the North End bank. All those interested are requested to be present.

GREEN RIDGE.

The ladies of St. Katherine's guild will serve ice cream and cake this evening in the guild rooms of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The Green Ridge Women's Christian Temperance union will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Baptist church, on Money avenue. The meeting will be in charge of Mrs. J. L. Miller, ex-superintendent, and Mrs. H. H. Hight, superintendent of mothers' work. A central invitation is extended to all.

Mrs. S. G. Stahl and daughters, Bessie and Mary, of Delaware street, guests of Mrs. Arthur Dahn, of Delaware street.

A cablegram has been received announcing the safe arrival at Liverpool, Eng., of Dr. Reo and his wife, formerly Miss Lavinia Dimmick, of Sanderson avenue.

Miss Ethel Hubert, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. H. Pond, of North Park, for several weeks, returned to her home in Southington, Conn., yesterday.

Colomb and Mrs. George Sanderson and family, of Washington avenue, have gone to Watch Hill, Conn., for the summer.

C. H. Pond, resident of the Scranton Drop Forge company, is in New York city on business.

Miss Maude Super, of Carlisle, is visiting Miss Florence Bower, of Jefferson avenue.

Miss Beata Estor, and Mrs. De Lencard, who have been visiting Mrs. J. J. Williams, of Jefferson avenue, returned to their home in Brooklyn, N. Y., yesterday.

The Newman property, on Money avenue, recently purchased by Dr. Frey, is being renovated and repaired under the direction of Contractor C. L. Lord.

Miss Marjorie, of Morrisstown, daughter of Rev. Mr. Marjorie, former pastor of St. Luke's church, Scranton, is visiting Miss Anna Sanderson, of Sanderson avenue.

Mr. Jacob Dietrich is making extensive improvements in her Sanderson avenue residence.

Miss Ovisman, of Piquetteville, Pa., spent yesterday with Miss Fanny Marvino.

The Brotherhood of St. Paul of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church has rented the building, corner of Dickson avenue and Green Ridge street, formerly used as a drug store, by Rea & Jones, and is having the counters and store fixtures removed and first general meeting of the brotherhood in their new quarters will

THIRD SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

Commencing Friday Morning, July 13, Of High Grade

MEN'S FURNISHINGS AND HATS

All new goods, of standard makes, to be sold at a great sacrifice to make room for the new Fall stock now being manufactured expressly for us. Rare bargains; see our windows.

Hats.	Neckwear.
All Straw Hats at Half Price.	All $1 and $1.50 Imported Scarfs. 75c
Ladies' Imported Straw Sailors that sold at $3. Sale price.... $1.50	All 50c quality, all shapes. Sale price..... 25c
All Stiff, Golf and Alpines that sold at $2.50 and $2. Sale price... 1.25	All shapes, biggest bargain ever offered in Scranton, Wash Ties and Bows, worth 10 and 15c. Sale price..... 5c
Stiff, Golf and Fedoras that sold at $3. Sale price..... 2.00
Shirts.	Night Robes and Pajamas
Silk Bosom Negligee Shirts, former price 75c and $1. Sale price 60c	Faultless Night Robes, fancy trimmed..... 48c
All $1 and $1.25 shirts of woven madras, silk fronts and pleated, newest patterns, perfect fitting. Sale price..... 79c	Better grade, with or without collar. All $1.50 and $2 Pajamas, of fast color woven madras and cheviot. Sale price..... $1.39
A special line of stiff bosoms, that sold at $1, fast colors. Sale price..... 59c
All the $1.50 shirts of Monarch and Griffin make of imported madras. Sale price..... $1.00	Suspenders.
	All 50c Suspenders. Sale price.... 39c
Underwear.	Special line of Regal Cord End Madras Suspenders..... 21c
Balbriggan that sold for 35c and 25c, several colors. Sale price 21c
The well known Bon-Bon in various colors, also plain with the Otis patent gusset. Sale price..... 39c	Belts.
All the 75c grade of fancy and plain Balbriggans. Sale price..... 59c	Big lot, worth 35c. Sale price..... 21c
All the $1 grade of Imported Underwear. Sale price..... 79c	Big lot, worth 50c. Sale price..... 39c
All the $1.50 quality. Sale price... $1.15	Big lot, worth $1. Sale price..... 75c
Pure silk and silk and lisle, $4 quality. Sale price..... $1.50
Pepperel Jean Drawers..... 39c	Sole Leather Dress Suit Cases reduced to..... $5.90
	Try Our Special 10c Collar.
Hosiery.	Those who have attended previous sales know when they read our ads. they read facts.
All 50c quality of Fancy Hosiery. Sale price..... 39c
All 25c quality, plain and fancy.... 19c
Some fancy special line in stripes, 15c..... 2 for 25c

Louis H. Isaacs 412 Spruce St
See Windows for Other Bargains.

SALE Of Ladies' Fine White Muslin Gowns

The principal feature about these sleeping robes is their thorough excellence of quality in workmanship, materials and finish, coupled with rare novelty and beauty of designs, such as is rarely met with. Every garment represents the newest there is in correct fashion, all are roomy and will fit easily and comfortably and even the lowest priced gowns suffer only in lack of elaborate details, for none are trashy or of unsatisfactory quality.

The Sale Opens This Morning.

When the handsomest line of Ladies' White Muslin Night Dresses ever shown in this city, will be open for your inspection.

Here Are a Few Details of Interest

- Lot 1—About half a dozen styles fine Muslin Gowns, neat Hamburg trim, full size and perfectly made. Sale Price..... 49c
- Lot 2—Empire or high neck gowns in various styles, with lace or Hamburg trimmings. Really very special. Sale Price 59c
- Lot 3—Contains several beautiful and distinct styles in Ladies' Night Robes all of which are much under regular value. Sale Price..... 69c
- Lot 4—Here's a value without a parallel, extra fine muslin, finished with embroidery and lace in a manner rarely equalled—much higher priced garments, full size and worth very much more money than we now ask. Sale Price 79c
- Lot 5—A really superior gown in every respect, lace and embroidery trim, exquisite finish down to the slightest details—a value hitherto unapproached in the trade. Sale Price... $1

Others Ladies There are higher priced bargains for those who wish them, but the price cut is just as deep. You will do yourselves an injustice if you fail to visit the Muslin Underwear Department while this sale is in progress.

Globe Warehouse

OBITUARY.

The death of John Larnard, a prominent resident of Green Ridge, occurred yesterday at his home, 1214 Gardner avenue, after an illness of two weeks' duration. The deceased was aged 53 years and had always resided in this vicinity. When quite young he enlisted in the Federal army and served with distinction throughout the Civil war. He was well compelled by illness to relinquish his duties as section foreman of the Delaware and Hudson railroad and was well known to scores of railroad men throughout the valley. A wife and five children survive him. The funeral will take place from the family home, 1214 Gardner avenue, at 1 o'clock. Services will be in charge of Rev. Mr. Simpson, of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral obsequies will be held Friday morning in St. Mary's German Catholic church. Interment in German Catholic cemetery.

Paul Grogan the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grogan, of 428 New street, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Marjory cemetery, Moosic.

John Dye, of Locust street, died Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at his late home after a lingering illness of several months. He was aged 72 years. Deceased is survived by eight children and a wife. The funeral ob